Gods People Instruments Of Healing The Diaconical Dimension Of The Church:

God's People: Instruments of Healing Ottmar Fuchs, 1993 The future impact of the churches on the societies in which they are situated depends on how they are experienced as healing and solidarizing communities concerning their religious and social praxis within themselves and to the outside Exactly this is the question of the diaconical dimension of the church the question of how much love in terms of mercy and justice and freedom to the individual and to society are being spread by the churches in this world Theologically this book refers not only to the biblical foundations but also to the latest theology of the II Vatican Council and of the appropriate understanding of the term Evangelization within the Catholic Church without suggesting that this theological position is something exclusive in the ecumenical sphere It rather may support similar theologies emerging from other churches as a kind of offer to solidarize with each other looking for the possibilities of substantiating the Christian faith

Committed Spirituality Ottmar Fuchs, 2019-11-13 Christian faith can lead to a spirituality that can give strength and energy for just action Conversely human solidarity can open us up to the contents of the Christian faith Christian hope in particular opens us to a universal solidarity that does not exclude others and never serves only one's own areas without others Ottmar Fuchs has spelled out this connection in his entire practical theology in many works and now presents here important results of his work in collected form for an English language readership The churches are at the service of this commitment for all people In the acute disputes between identitarian fundamentalist and open universal solidararian formations the author represents the position of a faith that accepts all people into the love of God and an ethics not limited by any borders It is the vote for a church that is more self-giving than victorious at the expense of others and that profiles all its instruments from the social and ritual organization of the church to its respective external relations in such a way It is about a format of faith and church that does even not release the respective exclusivistic parts in churches and in society from the caring responsibility

Encountering Christ in the Suffering Humanity (Mt 25:31-46) Cynthia Pinto, 2011 Church as a Communion Ferdinand Nwaigbo, 1996 Originally presented as the author's thesis doctoral University of Bamberg 1995 International Books in Print, 1997 Human Rights and the Mission of the Church in Nigeria Paul Odoeme, 2013 The human rights question constitutes a vital link to the mission of the Christian Church The Church is thereby obliged by principles of the gospel mandate to defend promote and protect human rights Using the Nigerian context as a model this book examines how the Church exercises its mission towards salvaging the deplorable situation of human rights violations The Church is accused of intrusive ethnocentric and triumphalist tendencies in some methods and structures which constantly expose it to steady allegations of human rights violations This scenario evokes an in-depth investigation into the matter to ascertain the extent of the Church's credibility and competence in the human rights question Series T 1 4binger Perspectives on Pastoral Theology and Religious Education Tubinger Perspektiven zur Pastoraltheologie und Religionspädagogik Vol 46

The Ministry of Healing A. J. Gordon, 2020-02-18 Classic Christian author A J Gordon expresses curiosity about whether the healing miracles from the Middle Ages up to his day can be verified as a continuation of Christ's Spirit in the church Through deep study and inquiry of the established history Gordon concludes that the power to heal followers remains with the church there was no special era of miracle working God and His powers remain the same in the modern era as they have right through human history For Gordon God's intervention in the suffering and sickness of His followers is frequent the will of the Lord however is variable but He will not prolong the pain of someone whose illness is too great Throughout this text A J Gordon makes his argument from a biblical perspective citing passages in both the Old and New Testament that support the continuation of spiritual gifts Quoting testimonies of believers across the ages he offers a convincing argument that the church ministry is to this day one of healing
