Gods Advocates:

God's Advocates Rupert Shortt, 2005-10-10 Religion journalist Rupert Shortt's lively interviews introduce readers to eighteen respected Christian thinkers who have contributed to the recent renaissance in theology All Scripture

Advocate Robert E. Clayton, 2003-03 God's Mother, Eve's Advocate Tina Beattie, 2002-12-01 Tina Beattie has written a stunning book on the theology of woman. Her stated objective is to discern the place of the female body in the Christian story of salvation and she has done so from the very heart of Christian stylisations of the female: the figures of Mary and Eve. Beattie has pursued her subject with the aid of French psychoanalytic feminism; these writers are preoccupied as is Catholic theology with questions of language and symbolism. But she deliberately puts herself at odds with neo orthodoxy and feminist liberal theology: she believes that theologians like von Balthasar depart from the best Patristic tradition of Marian theology with disastrous effect. Nor does she offer any solace to the Marina Warners of this world in a book which is strong in defence of classical Marian theology. She defends with passion and theological insight not only the Virgin Birth, the Immaculate Conception and the Assumption but also the perpetual virginity of Mary. Virginal desire, according to Beattie, need not be seen negatively but as an affirmation of the integrity of women's desire before God in a way not dependent on the phallus nor reducible to genitality. Advocates Dharti Lewis, 2019-06-01 A slave runs away from his master. A mutual friend steps in to mediate between the two of them. Can there be healing in such a scarred relationship? In the face of such a daunting breach is reconciliation not to what was but to what God designed even possible? This is the situation faced in the book of Philemon. From this short New Testament letter, pastor and author Dharti Lewis, Among Wolves, unpacks key principles that Paul applied to being an advocate in the midst of division. The divisions of our day don't look the same as Paul's but the principles are timeless. In 2 Corinthians 5, God commissioned us to be his ambassadors and gave us the ministry of reconciliation. Whether we're engaging in issues of politics, ethnicity or religious beliefs, our heart posture should be one of an advocate set on reconciliation. The problem is too many of us approach difficult conversations with the heart of an aggravator. Aggravators sometimes look like they are pursuing good things but their heart is not toward reconciliation. Any motive less than reconciliation falls short of the desires of God's heart. We need godly advocates in every sphere of life. This book will specifically apply these principles to issues of ethnic division. Are you willing to call any division caused by discrimination, prejudice or racism a sin? Do you want to grow in your ability to navigate tense and emotional conversations about ethnic divisions? Are you ready to become an advocate?

Remythologizing Theology Kevin J. Vanhoozer, 2010-01-14 The rise of modern science and the proclaimed death of God in the nineteenth century led to a radical questioning of divine action and authorship. Bultmann's celebrated demythologizing. Remythologizing Theology moves in another direction that begins by taking seriously the biblical accounts of God's speaking. It establishes divine communicative action as the formal and material principle of theology and suggests that interpersonal dialogue rather than impersonal causality is the keystone of God's relationship with the world This original contribution to the theology of divine action and authorship develops a fresh vision of Christian theism It also revisits several long standing controversies such as the relations of God s sovereignty to human freedom time to eternity and suffering to love Groundbreaking and thought provoking it brings theology into fruitful dialogue with philosophy literary theory and biblical studies The Hum of Angels Scot McKnight,2017 The majority of earth s inhabitants believe in angels Yet many of us cannot claim to have seen one Why Perhaps it s because in order to encounter one we first have to learn what to look for and how to look We live in a world where the natural and supernatural overlap Angels are constantly on mission from God and constantly at work in the world From the Garden of Eden to the book of Revelation Scripture is filled with hundreds of references to these wondrous creatures In this creative work Scot McKnight explores what the Bible says and doesn t say about these majestic beings Gospel Advocate ,1826 Philosophers and God John Cornwell,Michael McGhee,2009-05-14 Public interest in religious debate in the UK and USA has recently been fed by a series of books of popular polemic against theism religion and the discipline of theology itself A small industry has grown up around these works by Dawkins Dennett Hitchens and others but many have complained not just of their theological illiteracy but also of their tendency to conflate religious belief with fundamentalism They have contributed to a public atmosphere of anti pluralist hostility to the expression of faith positions The atmosphere in Britain of aggressive secularism contrasts sharply with a public culture in the USA of religious conservatism that is suspicious of secular humanism Here a series of philosophers reflect in an exploratory and confessional spirit upon the status and sources of their religion or other spiritual sympathies this may come in the form of a commitment to faith an openness to religion or another experience of transcendence The authors get down to the essentials of religious agnosticism the limits of secular humanism the idea of conversion the nature of despair and the possibility of moral objectivity Problems of Evil and the Power of God Professor James A Keller,2013-05-28 Why do bad things happen even to good people If there is a God why aren t God s existence and God s will for humans more apparent And if God really does miracles for some people why not for others This book examines these three problems of evil suffering divine hiddenness and unfairness if miracles happen as believers claim to explore how different ideas of God s power relate to the problem of evil Keller argues that as long as God is believed to be all powerful there are no adequate answers to these problems nor is it enough for theists simply to claim that human ignorance makes these problems insoluble Arguing that there are no good grounds for the belief that God is all powerful Keller instead defends the understanding of God and God s power found in process theism and shows how it makes possible an adequate solution to the problems of evil while providing a concept of God that is religiously adequate Michigan Christian Advocate ,1918 Yahweh and the Origins of Ancient Israel Nissim Amzallag,2023-06 Promotes a new understanding of the emergence of early Israel founded on the previously ignored metallurgical background of ancient Yahwism You Will Be My Witnesses Brian A. DeVries,2024-09-24 A Theological Introduction to the Witness of the Church

The DEVIL'S ADVOCATE: A Spiritual Man's Case Against the LORD God Dr. Alonzo Richard Fleming Jr., 2008-01-31 The Serpent Told the Truth But he is called the Devil And though LORD God admitted to the truth he still cursed all mankind plus GOD's creation Though he is the evil one he is worshipped as a loving God And his children act out of his evil nature universally Dr Alonzo Fleming Jr presents a compelling case against LORD God He is willing to say what everyone is thinking For centuries man has resisted and quieted the voice inside his own head that asks the obvious questions How could God curse his own children and creation then call it love How could he tell everyone else to love their enemies yet he gladly kills his own How could he instruct us to bless and not curse yet he curses Why would God set his children up to die in the first place We challenge the reader to consider what we say in the light of the world's present condition Who is controlling the present world He that blessed or he that cursed Be instructed
