Gods Ghosts and Men in Melanesia. Some Religions of Australian New Guinea and the New Hebrides. D. by P. Lawrence and M. J. Meggitt P.. Lawrence,M. J.. Meggitt,R. M.. Glasse,R. F.. Salisbury,R. M.. Berndt,1965 Gods Ghosts and Men in Melanesia Peter Lawrence,M.J. Meggitt,1965 Gods, Ghosts and Men in Melanesia P. Lawrence,M. J. Meggitt,1972 The Anthropology of Morality in Melanesia and Beyond John Barker,2016-04-01 The Anthropology of Morality in Melanesia and Beyond examines how Melanesians experience and deal with moral dilemmas and challenges Taking Kenelm Burridge s seminal work as their starting point the contributors focus upon public situations and types of people that exemplify key ethical contradictions for members of moral communities While returning to some classical concerns such as the roles of big men and sorcerers the book opens new territory with richly textured ethnographic studies and theoretical reviews that explore the interface between the values associated with indigenous village life and the ethical orientations associated with Christianity the state the marketplace and other facets of modernity A major contribution to the emerging field of the anthropology of morality the volume includes some of the most prominent scholars working in the discipline today including Bruce Knauft Joel Robbins F G Bailey Deborah Gewertz and Frederick Errington Religions of Melanesia Garry Trompf,2006-09-30 Melanesia boasts over one quarter of the world s distinct religions and presents the most complex religious panorama on earth The region is famous for its unusual new religious movements that have adapted traditional beliefs to modernity in surprising ways As the first bibliographical survey to comprehensively cover the entire region Religions of Melanesia is an invaluable research aid for anyone interested in this growing field Trompf s work is a complete listing of scholarly publications and provides readable and concise descriptions that will clearly guide the researcher toward the most relevant sources This survey covers 2188 entries organized topically and regionally Trompf covers such subjects as traditional and modern belief systems and the emergent indigenous Christianity that has taken root Regional coverage includes Irian Jaya Papua New Guinea Solomon Islands Vanuatu New Caledonia and Fiji Melanesians and Missionaries Darrell L. Whiteman,2002-05-10 In Melanesians and Missionaries one of the best of the younger generation of missionary anthropologists demonstrates that a commitment to the missionary enterprise on the part of a solid scholar facilitates rather than hinders the anthropological study of a missionary topic This is better anthropology because Dr Whiteman is able to probe more deeply into his topic and demonstrates that he understands and appreciates both Melanesians and missionaries Charles H Kraft Professor of Anthropology School of World Mission Fuller Theological Seminary Pasadena Cargo, Cult, and Culture Critique Holger Jebens,2004-01-01 This collection of original essays is based on fieldwork in Melanesia Fiji Australia and Indonesia by scholars who are influential in the contemporary debate on cargo cults A History of the Churches in Australasia Ian Breward,2001-12-13 This pioneering study of Australian New Zealand and Pacific Christianity opens up new perspectives on Christianization and modernization in this richly complex

region The reception of Christianity into Pacific cultures has produced strongly Christian societies Based on research in widely scattered archives this book not only deals with regional interactions but pays careful attention to developments in microstates and to the variety of indigenous religious movements which were earlier regarded as deviations from Christian orthodoxy but are now seen as significant adaptations of Christian teaching In Australia and New Zealand too European Christian beginnings have been given local emphases producing Churches with distinctive identities Lay leadership is emphasized not only in the Churches but as part of the Christian presence in the realms of politics business and culture The broad liturgical theological constitutional and pastoral developments of the 19th and 20th centuries are mapped as a context for the striking changes which have taken place since the 1960s The dynamics of religious change and conflict the ambiguities of religious authority and the destructive effects of Christian colonialism on indigenous communities especially Australian aborigines are all frankly dealt with The decline of the institutional impact of the Churches in Australia and New Zealand is explored as is the growth of partnership between government and Churches in education social welfare and overseas aid and development Interchange in personnel and ideas is strikingly illustrated in the missionary activities of the regional Churches and their cultural impact The author's involvement in Church and community leadership ecumenism and theological education makes this volume in The Oxford History of the Christian Church a valuable addition to the series describing both continuities with world Christianity and little known local developments

Knowledge and Ethics in Anthropology Lisette Josephides, 2020-05-26 Inspired by the work of world renowned anthropologist Marilyn Strathern this collection of essays features contributions from a range of internationally recognized scholars including Strathern herself which examine a range of methodologies and approaches to the anthropology of knowledge The book investigates the production of knowledge through a variety of themes centered on the question of the researcher's obligations and the requirements of knowledge These range from the obligation to connect with local culture and existing anthropological knowledge to the need to draw conclusions and circulate what has been learned Taking up themes that are relevant for anthropology as a whole particularly the topic of knowledge and the ethics of knowing others as well as the notion of the local in a global world Knowledge and Ethics in Anthropology is key reading for students and scholars alike A thorough introduction to the key concepts and terms used in Strathern's work is provided making this a fantastic resource for anyone encountering her work for the first time

The Religions of Oceania Garry Trompf, 2005-08-18 More than a quarter of the world's religions are to be found in the regions of Australia Melanesia Micronesia and Polynesia together called Oceania The Religions of Oceania is the first book to bring together up to date information on the great and changing variety of traditional religions in the Pacific zone The book also deals with indigenous Christianity and its wide influence across the region and includes new religious movements generated by the responses of indigenous peoples to colonists and missionaries the best known of these being the Cargo Cults of Melanesia The authors present a thorough and accessible examination of the fascinating diversity of religious practices in the area analysing new religious developments and providing clear interpretative tools and a mine of information to help the student better understand the world's most complex ethnologic tapestry

Power and the Self Jeannette Marie Mageo, 2002-01-24 Power and the Self first published in 2002 deals with an important but neglected topic the ways in which power is experienced by individuals both as agents and as objects of the exercise of power Each contributor presents a series of case studies drawn from a variety of cultural contexts including the analysis of the appeal of Japanese superhero toys for American children the conditions that lead to dehumanising treatment of patients in an American nursing home the experiences of a Turkish immigrant woman in the Netherlands a contribution relating theories about the capacity to commit genocidal violence to everyday forms of violence and other cases from New Guinea and Samoa The introduction provides a readable historical review and synthesis of the theoretical ideas that provide the context for the work presented in the book

Encyclopedia of Social and Cultural Anthropology Alan Barnard, Jonathan Spencer, 2009-12-04 Written by leading scholars in the field this comprehensive and readable resource gives anthropology students a unique guide to the ideas arguments and history of the discipline The fully revised and expanded second edition reflects major changes in anthropology in the past decade

The Magical Body Richard Eves, 2014-01-09 An intriguing exploration of the role and significance of the body in the world of a Pacific Islands People the Lelet of New Ireland Papua New Guinea In vivid ethnographic detail the monograph captures the fluidity and complexity of Lelet conceptions of corporeality and their significance to identity as they encounter the influences of modernity in the form of colonialism Christianity and cash cropping The author examines the importance of the body to constructions of identity and difference and its role in the constitution of place and space The book provides a richly detailed ethnographic study of magical belief and the body whilst paying particular attention to the polyvalent meanings of bodily images and metaphors as they are used in numerous contexts of magic

Pathways to Heaven Holger Jebens, 2006-09-01 How does global Christianity relate to processes of globalisation and modernization and what form does it take in different local settings These questions have lately proved to be of increasing interest to many scholars in the social sciences and humanities This study examines the tensions antagonisms and outright confrontations that can occur within local Christian communities upon the arrival of global versions of fundamentalism and it does so through a rich and in depth ethnographic study of a single case that of Pairundu a small and remote Papua New Guinean village whose population accepted Catholicism after first being contacted in the late 1950s and subsequently participated in a charismatic movement before more and more members of the younger generation started to separate themselves from their respective catholic families and to convert to one of the most radical and fastest growing religious groups not only in contemporary Papua New Guinea but world wide the Seventh Day Adventist Church This case study of local Christianity as a lived religion contributes to an understanding of the social and cultural dynamics that increasingly incite and shape religious conflicts on a global scale Big-Men and Business Ben R. Finney,2019-03-31 High in the New Guinea mountains a sociological drama of unique design has been unfolding since the early 1930s At that time the first of the Europeans who would take part in the area s development trekked into the remote highlands These early gold prospectors patrol officers and missionaries made the first outside contacts with the Stone Age Gorokan people These encounters ultimately catapulted the Gorokans subsistence gardeners cultivating sweet potatoes and raising pigs squarely into the twentieth century The magnitude of the economic and social changes that followed in the next forty years clearly distinguish the Gorokan case as one of the most remarkable examples of human adaptability to be witnessed in modern times Although popular thinking has it that traditional societies are change resistant and that social reforms therefore must precede economic and other types of development the Gorokans remarkably reversed the process and passed from the Stone Age to the twentieth century marketplace in one generation Today they are heavily involved in growing coffee they have developed their own trucking industry for transporting coffee and other cash crops to market and they are venturing into the raising of beef cattle and the operation of trade stores and various businesses Big Men and Business is the record of this extraordinary case of economic change based on field study conducted in 1967 and 1968 Dr Finney interviewed many of the Gorokan leaders of this commercial revolution and draws comparisons between the Gorokan experience and that of other New Guinean peoples One of the results of his research indicates that the Gorokans may have been predisposed to entrepreneurship Traditionally a Gorokan big man was the man who acquired the valuables of his society cowrie shells mother of pearl shells pigs and bird of paradise plumes These leaders were honored for their skills in the flourishing local exchange system This fact coupled with a supportive colonial relationship and a favorable natural environment enhanced the Gorokans adaptation and thus the leap from the world of traditional exchange to one where business is conducted on a cash basis was in reality a short step Foreword by Douglas L Oliver 'Homo Religiosus' in Mircea Eliade Saliba,2023-09-20

Landscapes of Fear Yi-Fu Tuan,2013-04-01 To be human is to experience fear but what is it exactly that makes us fearful Landscapes of Fear written immediately after his classic Space and Place is renowned geographer Yi Fu Tuan s influential exploration of the spaces of fear and of how these landscapes shift during our lives and vary throughout history In a series of

linked essays that journey broadly across place time and cultures Tuan examines the diverse manifestations and causes of fear in individuals and societies he describes the horror created by epidemic disease and supernatural visions of witches and ghosts violence and fear in the country and the city fears of drought flood famine and disease and the ways in which authorities devise landscapes of terror to instill fear and subservience in their own populations In this groundbreaking work now with a new preface by the author Yi Fu Tuan reaches back into our prehistory to discover what is universal and what is particular in our inheritance of fear Tuan emphasizes that human fear is a constant it causes us to draw what he calls our circles of safety and at the same time acts as a foundational impetus behind curiosity growth and adventure American, African, and Old European Mythologies Yves Bonnefoy,1993-05-15 Here are 80 articles on mythologies from around the world including Native Americans African Celtic Norse and Slavic and about such topics as fire the cosmos and creation Also includes an overview of the Indo Europeans and an essay on the religions and myths of Armenia Illustrations New Approaches to the Study of Religion: Regional, critical, and historical approaches Peter Antes,Armin W. Geertz,Randi Ruth Warne,2004 Internationally recognized scholars from many parts of the world provide a critical survey of recent developments and achievements in the global field of religious studies The work follows in the footsteps of two former publications Classical Approaches to the Study of Religion edited by Jacques Waardenburg 1973 and Contemporary Approaches to the Study of Religion edited by Frank Whaling 1984 85 New Approaches to the Study of Religion completes the survey of the comparative study of religion in the twentieth century by focussing on the past two decades Many of the chapters however are also pathbreaking and point the way to future approaches
