Rae Harcum, 2010-07-15 The central proposition of God's Prescription for Mental Health and Religion is that the highway to mental health of individuals and of society is God's prescription of selfless devotion and service to others Mental health does not refer to the absence of mental disturbance but rather to feelings of happiness and well being This message represents an integration of psychological and religious thinking both of which say that personal peace and happiness come to those who devote their lives to serving others instead of those who focus their lives on a search for personal pleasure This proposition is supported by rigorous psychological research showing that people who believe in a loving and supportive God do in fact enjoy better mental health This thesis is also supported by the insightful advice of many experts and commentators on social problems and by specific quotations from the Bible So smile if you truly believe your religion     God's Psychiatry Charles Livingstone Allen,1963     God's Psychiatry Charles L. God's Generals Richard A. Gabriel, 2016-09-19 It is one of the more startling facts of military history that the founders of three of the four great religions Judaism Buddhism and Islam were also accomplished field generals with extensive experience in commanding men in battle One of these Muhammad fought eight battles and was wounded twice once almost fatally Another Siddhartha Gautama later to become the Buddha witnessed so much battlefield carnage that he suffered a psychological collapse Moses had become so much a god intoxicated personality it is a reasonable suspicion that he like the Buddha was murdered Indeed had the experiences of these men in war not been so successful it is quite possible that their achievements as religious leaders would never have occurred For all three war and religion were so closely intertwined in their personalities that it is difficult to discern where the influence of one ended and the other began This book attempts to explore the military lives of Moses the Buddha and Muhammad and the role their war experiences played in their religious lives
