Collective Memory and the Dutch East Indies Paul Doolan, 2025-10-01 Collective Memory and the Dutch East Indies Unremembering Decolonization examines the afterlife of decolonization in the collective memory of the Netherlands. It offers a new perspective on the cultural history of representing the decolonization of the Dutch East Indies and maps out how a contested collective memory was shaped. Taking a transdisciplinary approach and applying several theoretical frames from literary studies, sociology, cultural anthropology, and film theory, the author reveals how mediated memories contributed to a process of what he calls unremembering. He analyses in detail a broad variety of sources including novels, films, documentaries, radio interviews, memoirs, and historical studies to reveal how five decades of representing and remembering decolonization fed into an unremembering by which some key notions were silenced or ignored. The author concludes that historians or the historical guild bear much responsibility for the unremembering of decolonization in Dutch collective memory.

Banning Black Gods Danielle N. Boaz, 2021-02-18 Banning Black Gods is a global examination of the legal challenges faced by adherents of the most widely practiced African derived religions in the twenty first century, including Santería, Lucumí, Haitian Vodou, Candomblé, Palo Mayombe, Umbanda, Islam, Rastafari, Obeah, and Voodoo. Examining court cases, laws, human rights reports, and related materials, Danielle N. Boaz argues that restrictions on African diaspora religious freedom constitute a unique and pervasive form of anti-Black discrimination. Emphasizing that these twenty first century cases and controversies are not a new phenomenon but rather a reemergence of colonial era ideologies and patterns of racially motivated persecution, Boaz focuses each chapter on a particular challenge to Black religious freedom. She examines issues such as violence against devotees, restrictions on the ritual slaughter of animals, limitations on the custodial rights of parents, and judicial refusals to recognize these faiths as protected religions. Boaz introduces new issues that have never been considered as a question of religious freedom before, such as the right of Palo Mayombe devotees to possess remains of the dead, and she brings together controversies that have not been previously regarded as analogous, such as the right to wear headscarves and the right to wear dreadlocks in schools. Framing these issues in comparative perspective and focusing on transnational and transregional issues, Boaz advances our understanding of the larger human rights disputes that country specific studies can overlook. Original and compelling, this important new book will be welcomed by students and scholars of African diaspora religions and discerning readers interested in learning more about the history of racial discrimination.

Bibliography of the Indonesian Revolution H.A.J. Klooster, 2024-12-09 Interest in the Indonesian Revolution, a period of crucial importance in the history of modern Indonesia, continues unabated as reflected in this bibliography. The bibliography lists more than 6 000 titles related to the Indonesian Revolution, 1945-1949, the West Irian issue, 1950-1962, and the South Moluccan question, 1950-1951, and its aftermath. It is the first bibliography of such depth and scope and purports to offer a complete listing of scholarly works, including unpublished theses, as well as journalistic accounts, pamphlets, memoirs, and fictional works Most of the works listed are in Indonesian Dutch or English but relevant works in French German Russian Japanese and other languages have also been included An introduction allows a first acquaintance with the mass of publications listed The titles are arranged by period and subdivided by language Indexes of authors of subjects of persons and of geographical names make it possible to access the titles in more detail Gods Ravijn. Derde Druk. [A Novel.]. Job SYTZEN,1955 The Relics of War, Books 1-3: The Moon's Eye, The Talisman of Delucha, War of the Nameless A.J. Calvin, The Relics of War ebook bundle includes The Moon's Eye The Talisman of Delucha and War of the Nameless An epic conflict Meddling gods Dangerous magic Uncover the Relics of War War is coming to the Five Kingdoms brought about by the nameless god of death and his Soulless followers The death god has been scorned by the world for millennia relegated to plotting his scheme for revenge from within his prison of flames When all of his pieces are finally in place he seizes the opportunity to secure his freedom and with it the destruction of all who oppose him War of the Nameless A.J. Calvin,2022-12-06 The god of death called the Nameless by some has been biding his time for millennia His scheme to break free of his prison is nearing fruition and with the aid of the Soulless bound to him he seeks to regain his former power The world has scorned him and it must face his wrath Emra Castledowns has gathered an army to combat the threat the Soulless pose Beside her are Vardak a skilled warrior renowned amongst his people and the protégé of the god of war and Ravin the most powerful wielder of magic the world has ever produced The wizards have allied with her the Five Kingdoms have lent soldiers and arms and even the gods sworn to remain neutral during mortal conflicts have begun to choose sides In spite of her army's might the power the Nameless begins to unleash is daunting The death god is a threat to the existence of every kingdom every race and nationality even the Soulless who serve him are not immune to his thirst for revenge Mirror of the Indies Robert Nieuwenhuys,1982 This book is the definitive literary history of the colonial Dutch East Indies and is partially distinguished from its predecessors by its discussion of materials ranging from natural history and religious sermons to pamphlets and the accounts of travelers from the seventeenth through the twentieth centuries What emerges from this comprehensive approach is an unusually thorough and sensitive account of the manifold encounters of the Dutch with the East Indian societies that they conquered tried to understand and finally had to relinquish under the inevitable pressures of change and the desire for independence This history records how a hybrid literature emerges from that of the colonial culture to become a distinct literature of its own and why the concepts derived from European cultural history such as baroque or neoclassicism are totally inapplicable to the works discussed here The Talisman of Delucha A.J. Calvin,2022-07-19 Ravin is an anomaly amongst those who use magic He refuses to join the Council of Auras and tie his fate to the wizards and long ago escaped a terrible fate amongst the Enlightened called the Shadow Council by some His escape gave him freedom few others with his power enjoy and he means to keep it no matter the cost Serving as an advisor to the Deluchan queen Ravin learns a powerful relic is kept deep within the catacombs below the palace War is on Delucha's doorstep brought about by none other than the council he fled from and their Soulless leaders He resolves to retrieve the relic in order to combat the imminent threat but collecting the Talisman of Delucha is not without its own danger As the Soulless army prepares to besiege the Deluchan capitol Ravin makes one final desperate attempt to secure the Talisman The kingdom s survival depends on his success but time is not on his side
