missionary training Noticing God Richard Peace, 2012-05-25 Where is God How do we encounter God How do we know it is God we encounter and not some figment of our imagination Is it possible to know God in some sort of relational way Richard Peace believes it is But it requires a certain level of awareness a certain discipline of the heart Peace calls it the spiritual discipline of noticing God In this book he unpacks what it means to make a conscious practice noticing God in daily life He explores the various ways people experience and recognize God's presence including mystical encounters ordinary daily life within our hearts through other people through Scripture nature and the church Throughout he returns to the question of discernment helping you understand how you can know that it is indeed God you are meeting in each of these places not just some fanciful figment of the imagination God is deeply present in our world and you can actually encounter him Here's how Send Me! Steve Hoke, William Taylor, 1999-06-01 This hands on workbook has been designed for two kinds of people those who have a deep desire to serve God overseas and those who want to help them It has not been designed to persuade people to become missionaries Rather it assumes an initial interest an early indication or drive somewhere inside that God may have more for you than you previously thought It is aimed at two primary readers college university students and young career persons as well as committed older adults facing the challenge of an early retirement or career change The information this workbook presents will also help churches campus groups schools missionary training centers and agencies to think and pray through short term and long term plans with those responding to God's call New Wineskins for Global Mission: Sharon J. Home Naomi Reed,2012-06-01 The third book in Naomi Reed s award winning trilogy following on from My Seventh Monsoon and No Ordinary View In Nepal whenever the water ran out or the electricity cuts were worse than normal or the monsoon seemed interminably long or the motorbike stopped or the Maoists forced another strike or my home school patience ran out I would think about Australia I would think about our real home with hot water and electricity and cheese and lettuce and chocolate and olives and friends where I would belong and be understood and known and everything would be alright again Then in the middle of 2006 we returned to Australia and it wasn t like that at all It wasn t immediately home and I didn t immediately feel like I belonged or that I was understood or known And I spent years wondering why not and getting confused by the answers This is a book for anyone who has felt the pain of being in between homes or jobs or countries or roles or relationships It s about our deep seated human need to belong and enjoy purpose and community After their six years in Nepal Naomi Reed and her husband Darren and their three sons returned from Nepal to Australia and struggled with identity and disorientation In this Naomi s fifth book she shares her story honestly and openly allowing the narrative to lead the reader into prayer and reflection By the end of it you will feel a deeper and more profound understanding of what it means to belong to God and hope for heaven
