Hazardous Home Based Sub Contracted Work:

Asian Informal Workers Santosh K. Mehrotra, Mario Biggeri, 2007-01-24 This thoroughly researched volume surveys the nature and extent of informal work in Asia which is a powerful and under studied force in the region After over half a century of development even in the fast growing economies of Asia the formal sector and industrial jobs have grown rather slowly and most non agricultural employment growth has occurred in the informal economy At the same time as this there has been a feminization of informal workers and growth in subcontracted homework Drawing on detailed case studies carried out in five Asian countries two low income India and Pakistan and three middle income Indonesia Thailand and the Philippines where subcontracted production usually by women and children working out of home is now widespread this insightful book acknowledges that home based work is the source of income diversification for poor families but is also the source of exploitation of vulnerable workers and child labour as firms attempt to contain costs This wide ranging and accessible survey edited by key specialists in this field along with an impressive team of contributors examines the social protection needs of these workers arguing convincingly for public action to promote such work and protect these workers as a possible new labour intensive growth strategy in developing countries

The Hidden Assembly Line Radhika Balakrishnan, 2002 Looks at the economic trends impacting Asian women and subcontracted labor illuminating the lives of the millions of women struggling in low wage jobs Presents case studies from Pakistan the Philippines Sri Lanka and India Provides examples of strategic responses from NGOs unions and activists The Hidden Assembly Line studies the impact of subcontracted work in different national settings linking it to the global economy and to changes in women s financial security and work opportunities The contributors debate the implications for women s empowerment and for the changing social relations of production This book contains clear practical information for scholars students and researchers interested in women s roles regarding economic development and the globalization of the world economy

Poverty and Sustainable Development in Asia Armin Bauer, Myo Thant, 2015-01-01 This joint publication from the Asian Development Bank and the Asian Development Bank Institute features selected papers from the September 2009 conference on the social and environmental impact of the global economic crisis on Asia and the Pacific especially on the poor and vulnerable The publication is designed with the needs of policy makers in mind utilizing field country and thematic background studies to cover a large number of countries and cases This publication suggests that the crisis is an opportunity to rethink the model of development in Asia for growth to become more inclusive and sustainable Issues that need to be more carefully considered include closing the gap of dualistic labor markets building up social protection systems rationalizing social expenditures addressing urban poverty through slum upgrading promoting rural development through food security programs in pro poor growth potential areas and concentrating climate change interventions on generating direct benefits for the environments of the poor

Poverty and Sustainable Development in Asia Asian Development Bank, 2010-04-01 On 28 30 September 2009 the Asian Development

Bank the governments of the People s Republic of China and Viet Nam and the ASEAN Secretariat jointly organized a high level Asia wide conference in Ha Noi on the social and environmental impact of the global economic crisis on Asia and the Pacific especially on the poor and vulnerable The conference also served as the 3rd China ASEAN Forum on Social Development and Poverty Reduction and as the 4th ASEAN 3 High Level Seminar on Poverty Reduction It was supported by various development partners This book features selected papers from the Ha Noi conference It is designed with the needs of policy makers in mind utilizing field country and thematic background studies to cover a large number of countries and cases It is complemented by a website comprising more information about the conference and all the papers presented there www.adb.org/Documents/Events/2009/Poverty_Social_Development/default.asp The Indian Journal of Labour Economics ,2003

The Asian Yearbook of Human Rights and Humanitarian Law Javaid Rehman,Ayesha Shahid,Steve Foster,2022-09-19 The Asian Yearbook of Human Rights and Humanitarian Law aims to publish peer reviewed scholarly articles and reviews as well as significant developments in human rights and humanitarian law It examines international human rights and humanitarian law with a global reach though its particular focus is on the Asian region The focused theme of Volume 6 is Essays in Honour of Professor Shaheen Sardar Ali The Politics of Common Sense Aasim Sajjad Akhtar,2018-02-01 This work offers a refreshingly different perspective on Pakistan it documents the evolution of Pakistan s structure of power over the past four decades In particular how the military dictatorship headed by General Zia ul Haq 1977 1988 whose rule has been almost exclusively associated with a narrow agenda of Islamisation transformed the political field through a combination of coercion and consent production The Zia regime inculcated within the society at large a common sense privileging the cultivation of patronage ties and the concurrent demeaning of counter hegemonic political practices which had threatened the structure of power in the decade before the military coup in 1977 The book meticulously demonstrates how the politics of common sense has been consolidated in the past three decades through the agency of emergent social forces such as traders and merchants as well as the religio political organisations that gained in influence during the 1980s
