The Immigrant Woman in North America Francesco Cordasco,1985 Women in Global Migration, 1945-2000 Eleanore O. Hofstetter,2001-03-30 With large numbers of people migrating to other countries after World War II a substantial amount of scholarship has focused on the status problems and successes of women immigrants since 1945 The first comprehensive compilation of the international literature on these women this bibliography with over 5 100 entries reveals the breadth of scholarship on feminist immigration issues Focusing particularly on sources from North America and Western Europe where most immigrant women settled the book includes feminist analyses bibliographies demographic studies economic comparisons educational research health and medical reports legal discussions biographies and autobiographies psychological case studies religious reports sociological investigations and publications dealing with general aspects of female immigration The book covers such legal issues as citizenship international conventions on contract workers the traffic in women and services and government benefits to immigrants Medical entries include such topics as female genital mutilation comparative obstetric results and equity of treatment Education entries cover such subjects as adult education and the second language programs necessary for assimilation With entries in several languages the bibliography includes books journal articles essays and chapters in books dissertations ERIC reports national and international government documents and statistical sources With immigration a major political and social issue in most countries today the book provides an important research tool The Review of Italian American Studies Frank M. Sorrentino,Jerome Krase,2000-01-01 This collection of articles examines the complex nature of identity in the Italian American community Sorrentino and Krase have constructed a volume that covers topics of diverse interest such as the development of Italian American literary studies and the integration of a uniquely Italian American sensibility into a larger and dominant idea of European American culture As an erudite examination of contemporary studies being done on one of the largest ethnic groups in the United States this work is an essential addition to the ongoing and contentious debates about the nature of ethnicity identity assimilation and acculturation in the United States Church and State in America: A Bibliographical Guide Bloomsbury Publishing,1987-08-14 The second in a two volume bibliography on church state relations in U S history this book contains eleven critical essays and accompanying bibliographical listings on periods or topics from the Civil War to the present day Each essay reviews the available relevant literature and the listings emphasize critical studies and documents published in the last quarter century This reference work will enable the reader to grasp the historiographic issues become acquainted with the resources available and move on to interpret current as well as past issues more knowledgeably and effectively United States History James Warren Oberly,1995 European Immigrant Women in the United States Judy Barrett Litoff,Judith McDonnell,1994 Between Race and Ethnicity Marilyn Halter,2022-10-17 Arriving in New England first as crew members of whaling vessels Afro Portuguese immigrants from Cape Verde later came as permanent settlers and took work in the cranberry industry on the docks and as domestic workers Marilyn Halter combines oral history with analyses of ships records to chart the history and adaptation patterns of the Cape Verdean Americans Though identifying themselves in ethnic terms Cape Verdeans found that their African European ancestry led their new society to view them as a racial group Halter emphasizes racial and ethnic identity formation to show how Cape Verdeans set themselves apart from the African Americans while attempting to shrug off white society's exclusionary tactics She also contrasts rural life on the bogs of Cape Cod with New Bedford's urban community to reveal the ways immigrants established their own social and religious groups as they strove to maintain their Crioulo customs The Source Loretto Dennis Szucs, Sandra Hargreaves Luebking, 2006 Genealogists and other historical researchers have valued the first two editions of this work often referred to as the genealogist's bible The new edition continues that tradition Intended as a handbook and a guide to selecting locating and using appropriate primary and secondary resources The Source also functions as an instructional tool for novice genealogists and a refresher course for experienced researchers More than 30 experts in this field genealogists historians librarians and archivists prepared the 20 signed chapters which are well written easy to read and include many helpful hints for getting the most out of whatever information is acquired Each chapter ends with an extensive bibliography and is further enriched by tables black and white illustrations and examples of documents Eight appendixes include the expected contact information for groups and institutions that persons studying genealogy and history need to find First Generation June Namias, 1992 Difference and Community, 2022-03-07 This volume brings together essays which suggest that the relationship between Canada and Europe is a two way process as historically the traffic between them has been either may have something to offer the other Europe too acknowledges situations today in which difference and community are hard terms to reconcile Difference refers to gender sexuality race nationality or language Community is the collective understanding which must continually be renegotiated and reconstructed among these factors The Canadian European connection is one in which it seems especially appropriate to explore such circumstances The topics covered include pioneer women's writing transcultural women's fiction canonical taxonomy of the contemporary novel the city poem in Confederate Canada poetry of the Great War various ethno cultural perspectives Jewish South Asian Italian Native reappropriations Quebec cinema literature and the media and small press publishing Some of the authors treated Sandra Birdsell Nicole Brossard Jack Hodgins Henry Kreisel Robert Kroetsch Janice Kulyk Keefer Archibald Lampman Malcolm Lowry Lesley Lum Daphne Marlatt Susanna Moodie Bharati Mukherjee Alice Munro Frank Paci and Susan Swan Multiculturalism in the College Curriculum Marilyn Lutzker, 1995-03-18 Emphasizing that diversity in the curriculum is as much about a way of thinking as it is about specific information Lutzker presents a compendium of innovative and practical classroom strategies and widely available information resources which will enable faculty to increase the multicultural content of their courses without necessarily making major changes in their accustomed methods of teaching

This is a handbook for college faculty in all disciplines who would like to increase the multicultural content of their courses but have been reluctant to do so for a variety of reasons including an already overloaded syllabus a lack of background in the subject uncertainty about student reactions or lack of time to make substantial changes in an existing syllabus Administrators anxious to increase diversity in the curriculum of their institutions but unable to fund large scale curriculum revision projects will also find this volume useful Part I is concerned with classroom strategies and with student research projects Starting with discussions of objectives and priorities the underlying role of critical thinking and the importance of language sensitivity the book then describes specific classroom strategies useful for increasing diversity The subsequent chapters are devoted to discussions of general guidelines for developing student projects with a multicultural perspective innovative alternatives to the traditional term paper and suggestions for multicultural student projects which do not require library research Part I concludes with a discussion of possible student reactions to increased multiculturalism and suggested approaches to those reactions Part II is concerned with information resources which will be useful to instructors and to students Fully annotated lists are provided in a variety of areas including widely available primary sources specialized biographical directories sources for sample syllabi in all disciplines guides to ethnic and foreign press to films and videos and to electronic resources Part II concludes with a discussion designed to increase efficiency in using the library catalog to locate information in multicultural subject areas Appendices provide sample research worksheets a list of small publishers and distributors of multicultural books and an annotated bibliography Chicano Periodical Index, 1987 Seeking Common Ground Donna

Gabaccia, 1992-10-30 This book is the first interdisciplinary reader focusing on immigrant women in the United States Part I includes three chapters by a historian a sociologist and an anthropologist summarizing the way research on immigrant women has developed in the three disciplines Parts II and III focusing on Immigrant Women of the Past and Immigrant Women Since 1920 provide empirical and interpretive essays on immigrant women from Europe Latin America and Asia The chapters explore such themes as women in the migration process the role of gender in the creation of American ethnic identities and the comparability of today's immigrant women with those of the past Seeking Common Ground is the first interdisciplinary reader focusing on immigrant women in the United States By providing a basis for comparison between both different ethnic groups and different disciplinary approaches the volume aims to encourage interdisciplinary communication and research After the editor's introduction the volume begins with three chapters Part I by a historian a sociologist and an anthropologist summarizing the way research on immigrant women has developed in the three disciplines Parts II and III focusing on Immigrant Women of the Past and Immigrant Women Since 1920 provide empirical and interpretive essays on immigrant women from Europe Latin America and Asia The chapters explore such themes as women in the migration process the role of gender in the creation of American ethnic identities and the comparability of today's immigrant women with those of the past The work will be of interest to individuals from all disciplines who are concerned with women's studies in general and immigrant women in particular Women Struggling For a New Life Ai Ra Kim,1996-01-01 Kim explores the religious impact particularly that of the Korean Methodist Church on the lives of Korean immigrant first generation in the United States To most of these women America is new soil and they need to adjust to a different cultural and social environment Consequently they may be confused and frustrated As a community center the Korean church plays a significant role in their lives Kim examines the church to determine if it is helpful or detrimental to these women as they adjust to their lives in the United States Although the history of Korean immigrants in the United States is almost 100 years old resources about Korean immigrants particularly women are scarce These women have long been invisible and unheard in American society as well as in the Korean community and church Their experiences as minority women and their painful struggle for survival in patriarchal Korean churches reflect not only the plight of women but also genuine human struggle Ethnic Demography Shiva Halli,1990-06-15 Canada is a country of immigrants of different ethnic origins This is the first volume that provides the demographic profile vital to an understanding of this country Twenty five of the top demographers in Canada draw upon 1986 and 1981 census figures and social surveys Resources in Education ,1997 Research in Education ,1968

Italian Americana ,1993 Still Struggling for Equality Plummer A. Jones,2004-12-30 A companion volume to Immigrants and the American Experience 1999 this book covers American public library services to immigrants from 1876 to 2003 As such it provides an excellent text on public library services to diverse groups and multiculturalism in public libraries It presents a detailed exposition of immigration law accompanied by an analysis of laws affecting libraries These legislative activities are placed in the context of library practice and the library profession treating fully developments within ALA and the government agencies tasked with the funding and oversight of libraries Difference and Community Peter Easingwood,Konrad Gross,Lynette Hunter,1996 This volume brings together essays which suggest that the relationship between Canada and Europe is a two way process as historically the traffic between them has been either may have something to offer the other Europe too acknowledges situations today in which difference and community are hard terms to reconcile Difference refers to gender sexuality race nationality or language Community is the collective understanding which must continually be renegotiated and reconstructed among these factors The Canadian European connection is one in which it seems especially appropriate to explore such circumstances The topics covered include pioneer women s writing transcultural women s fiction canonical taxonomy of the contemporary novel the city poem in Confederate Canada poetry of the Great War various ethno cultural perspectives Jewish South Asian Italian Native reappropriations Quebec cinema literature and the media and small press publishing Some of the authors treated Sandra Birdsell Nicole Brossard Jack Hodgins Henry Kreisler Robert Kroetsch Janice Kulyk Keefer Archibald Lampman Malcolm Lowry Lesley Lum Daphne Marlatt Susanna Moodie Bharati Mukherjee Alice Munro Frank Paci and Susan Swan
