Gamal Abdelmonem,Antonio Argandoña,2020-05-18 Introducing novel theoretical empirical and practical investigations with case studies from UK Europe South America and South East Asia the book offers a novel global outlook on how contemporary homes are facing genuine challenges from operational economic spatial social and wellbeing perspectives The changing demographics of our modern society have inevitably impacted the dynamics and relationships within the home from being personal and private to that of multiple work relationships domestic work care for older people or supporting people with special needs Whilst the home is a concept universally experienced permeating every aspect of our lives it remains an entity whose influence on health and wellbeing is poorly understood This book brings together 17 different contributions from scholars researchers and practitioners from different disciplinary and professional backgrounds including three feature articles by leading figures such as Lord Best and Baroness Hollins The chapters are organised within three parts that look at the triangle of people work care in the home At a time when homes are increasingly becoming local hubs for care and wellbeing this volume is a critical and useful addition to current literature in the social sciences humanities economics culture care and wellbeing in the domestic sphere      Narrating Midlife Christine Elizabeth Kiesinger,Lori West Peterson,2019-04-30 Narrating Midlife Crisis Transition and Transformation is rooted in a discussion about why it is important to address the midlife years in ways that challenge and interrogate the myths that surround this phase of life. Although readers are free to construct their own meaning after reading each narrative they are encouraged to attend to the ways in which each narrative reveals how the author grapples with their particular issues communicatively. More important, readers are invited to see the power of narrative re framing as authors seek to understand, interpret and live midlife changes in ways that are empowering and life affirming. In this book contributors spin compelling and meaningful narratives about change at midlife. The empty nest, the surprise discovery of cancer, re defining one's life at midlife and re imagining long term commitment after divorce are just some of the topics explored in this book. Auto ethnographically crafted the narratives presented throughout the book aim to show how managing and living through change at midlife is very much a communicative endeavor. Corporate Politics - A Community Affair: A Proverbial Guide to Success R. Siisi

Adu-Gyamfi, 2010-04 What does it take to succeed in the corporate world? Is it by chance? Is it based on your IQ? What exactly does it take to climb the infamous corporate ladder? These questions are not easily answered because of the inherent politics in corporations. The bad news about corporate politics is that it is real and unavoidable. There are no written rules hence it is not widely understood. The good news is that corporate political skills are learned skills. This book reveals how several successful executives managed to excel when faced with difficult corporate challenges. This book takes the unique approach of explaining key success concepts through the use of actual case stories, vignettes and proverbs. You will learn what is referred to as the 8 C's for Corporate Success. You will discern that being Competent and Credible are not enough. Why having Core Values can save more than just your job. How having Charisma and Champions can propel you into the fast lane. How a Challenge can offer you new opportunities. Why your Community plays such an important role in your advancement. How your Communication skills can define your destiny. Individuals can renew, jump start or begin their career by using these leadership methods and tools. This book helps you to define who you are, where you are, where you want to go and the path you need to get there. R Siisi Adu Gyamfi speaks regularly at conferences, universities and companies on the subject of global growth, value based marketing strategies and negotiations. He has been a corporate officer at several Fortune 500 companies. He is co author of Inside the Mind: CMO Leadership Strategies. A mentor to several corporate aspirants and employees, he is a graduate of MIT and Harvard Business School. He Works She Works Jaine Carter, James D. Carter, 1995-12

Resources in Education, 1997 Disability and Vocational Rehabilitation in Rural Settings Debra A. Harley, Noel A. Ysasi, Malachy L. Bishop, Allison R. Fleming, 2017-11-03 This first of its kind textbook surveys rehabilitation and vocational programs aiding persons with disabilities in remote and developing areas in the U.S. and abroad. Contributors discuss longstanding challenges to these communities, most notably economic and environmental obstacles and ongoing barriers to service delivery as well as their resilience and strengths. Intersections of health, social, structural and access disparities are shown affecting rural disabled populations such as women, racial and sexual minorities, youth and elders. In terms of responses a comprehensive array of healthcare and health policy solutions and recommendations is critiqued with regard to health employment and service effectiveness outcomes Included among the topics Healthcare initiatives strategies and challenges for people with disabilities in rural frontier and territory settings Challenges faced by veterans residing in rural communities The Asia and Pacific region rural urban impact on disability Challenges after natural disaster for rural residents with disabilities Meeting the needs of rural adults with mental illness and dual diagnoses Capacity building in rural communities through community based collaborative partnerships Disability and Vocational Rehabilitation in Rural Settings makes a worthy textbook for graduate students and upper level undergraduates in the fields of social work community and environmental psychology public health sociology education and geography Its professional audience also includes vocational rehabilitation counselors serving these dynamic populations

It's about Time Phyllis Moen, 2018-08-06 How do two career couples manage in a one career world It s about Time examines this mismatch between outdated scripts and the experiences of dual earner couples It broadens our understanding of occupational and family career strategies couples use in light of the widening gap between their real lives and the outdated work hour and career path roles rules and regulations they confront It s about Time draws on the data from the Cornell Couples and Careers Study to demonstrate that Regardless of income time is a scarce commodity in dual earner households With two jobs two commutes often long work hours high job demands business travel several cars children ailing relatives and or pets time is always an issue Time is built into jobs and career paths in ways that make continuous full time 40 or typically more hours a week paid work a fact of life in American society The multiple strands of life career family and personal unfold over time Spouses move through their life courses in tandem with early choices to have children or not to work long hours or not to switch jobs or not to relocate for his or her career or not all having long term consequences for life quality and for gender inequality The evidence from this book suggests that it is about time for the United States to confront the realities and needs of contemporary working couples and indeed all members of the new workforce To do so requires more than Band Aid short term and often short sighted policy remedies It s about Time argues that it is essential to re imagine and reconfigure work hours workweeks and occupational career paths in ways that address the widening gaps between the time needs and goals of workers and their families at all ages and stages of the life course
