He Talk Like a White Boy Joseph C. Phillips, 2008-12-10 As a young student Joseph Phillips once overheard someone say of him He talk like a white boy The Denver native never thought that speaking correctly would cause others to question his authenticity as an African American Little did he know what lay in his future His choices in music politics faith and family have given rise to many accusations of his not being black enough As an actor Joseph has encountered even more pointing fingers this time for not being liberal enough for Hollywood With a frank voice and a loving heart this brilliant conservative and outspoken African American man presents a series of funny and thought provoking essays that speak to the simple fact that authenticity is far more complicated than one's choice of words or music Soledad O'Brien David Robson, 2015-02-03 For decades television news remained dominated by white male faces But over the last 20 years American broadcast journalism has increasingly reflected the diversity of the nation itself Soledad O'Brien biracial daughter of an Afro-Cuban mother and Australian father first found fame as one beautiful TV reporter among many But the Harvard graduate wanted to be taken seriously From her early career at NBC to her star-making turn on CNN's American Morning Soledad has exuded a sharp intelligence and a determination to ask the right questions and share the most intriguing stories of her generation Yet for all her professionalism and promise Soledad's career in the fickle world of TV news has sometimes met with tragedy and disappointment The death of colleague David Bloom in Iraq and later her sudden firing from CNN's American Morning put her career in a temporary tailspin Through it all she has remained a vital media force by taking on special projects that make a difference including Children of the Storm, Black in America and Black in America 2 This new biography offers an in-depth portrait of one of today's most valued TV journalists The Master of the Strong Hearts Elbridge Streeter Brooks, 1898
