The Preview and Other Stories Sŏn-jak Cho,2003 Cho Sun Jak is a prolific South Korean writer of many novels and short stories Many of his works have been adapted successfully as TV dramas and films but very few of his works have been available in English till now He presents an honest and frank view of the reality behind the successful development of modern Korea with humor and sensitivity The well known novella The Preview depicts the Korean War through the eyes of a young boy and the other stories in this collection reflect the aftermath of the war the desperate lives of the poor the corruption of moral values and the pathos of the lives of good hearted prostitutes The translations capture well the atmosphere and values of the period in which the stories were written Detailed notes clarify linguistic points and the social and cultural context

Papers from the Headmaster Richard A. Hawley, 1996 This timely collection of reflections asks some hard questions parents the education establishment and the larger society have avoided for too long What are the consequences Richard Hawley asks of having created a commercial and public culture that is demonstrably toxic to children Hawley challenges readers to consider in light of what is known about healthy child development the implications of imposing adult sexuality on children in amounts and in forms that can only overwhelm and terrify them Drawing on vivid personally observed examples and incidents he carefully examines what children actually learn from popular culture in which public and private leaders are exposed as philanderers and frauds in which athletes and entertainment stars are revealed as addicts and child molesters and murderers The greatest dangers to this era s children Hawley says lie where the remedy ought to be in the ways we tell our collective stories and in the conveyance of our common history Our children are in danger of being educated to believe there are no healing true stories that history is the invention of the teller that nothing finally is verifiable knowable safe or right In such a world all preferences and all claims become morally equivalent and thus meaningless

Into the River Ted Dawe, 2013-10-18 A gripping gritty and award winning coming of age novel for young adult readers When Te Arepa Santos is dragged into the river by a giant eel something happens that will change the course of his whole life The boy who struggles to the bank is not the same one who plunged in moments earlier He has brushed against the spirit world and there is a price to be paid an utu revenge to be exacted Years later far from the protection of whanau family and ancestral land he finds new enemies This time with no one to save him there is a decision to be made he can wait on the bank or leap forward into the river At the 2013 NZ Post Childrens Book Awards Into the River was judged the Margaret Mahy Book of the Year It also won the Young Adult Fiction category of the awards An engaging coming of age novel it follows its main protagonist from his childhood in small town rural New Zealand to an elite Auckland boarding school where he must forge his own way including battling with his cultural identity This prequel to Ted Dawe s award winning novel Thunder Road is gritty provocative at times shocking but always real and true The awards chief judge Bernard Beckett described a character caught between two worlds the explicit content was presented as the danger of people being left adrift by society And within that context hard hitting material is crucial it is what makes the book authentic real and important The Deputy Chief Censor of Film and Literature ruled that the book is not offensive The book deals with some stronger content There are sexual relationships between teenagers encounters with possible child sexual exploitation the use of illegal drugs and other criminal activities violent assault and a moderate level of highly offensive language These are well contextualised within an exciting fast moving narrative that has as its protagonist a young teenage Maori boy from a rural community who is finding his way through the strange uncomfortable environment of a boys boarding school and unfamiliar social mores The story captures the raw and real extremes of adolescence in teenage boys along with their yearnings and obsessions The book is notable for being one of the first in the New Zealand which specifically targets teenage boys and younger men a genre that does not have great representation The genre character is therefore significant The content immerses the reader in action wit and intrigue as well as a level of social realism all likely to engage teen and young adult readers and with particular appeal for older boys and young men      Palmers' Index to the Times Newspaper ,1901
