Healing Grief A Mothers Story:

Healing Grief Rosalie Deer Heart, 1998-12-01 Healing Grief tells the story of one woman whose journey takes her from tragedy to a new vision of her life's meaning and a reinvestment in joy. This book offers practical dynamics for coping with the sudden death of a child, wisdom from the inspired and fresh insights into each stage of grief. It is not only for parents who are actively grieving but for anyone who wonders about the meaning of dreams, inexplicable impressions, death and life itself.

Mending Hearts: Mothers' Stories of Loss, Coping, and Healing Donte Torres, In Mending Hearts Mothers' Stories of Loss, Coping and Healing, readers are invited to delve into the raw and emotional experiences of mothers who have had to navigate the overwhelming journey of losing a spouse or partner. Through intimate and honest accounts, these women share the challenges they faced, the emotions they felt, and the ways in which they coped with their grief. From the initial shock and devastation to the long process of healing, these stories showcase the resilience and strength of the human spirit in the face of unimaginable loss. The book also explores the experiences of mothers who have endured the heartbreaking loss of a child. Through their poignant narratives, readers gain insight into the depths of parental grief and the complexities of navigating life after such a profound loss. These mothers share their unique coping mechanisms, their struggles with guilt and anger, and the ways in which they eventually found solace and healing. Their stories serve as powerful testaments to the enduring bond between parent and child, even in the face of tragedy. Drawing upon the shared experiences of these courageous mothers, Mending Hearts offers a compassionate and supportive look at grief, loss, and the long journey to healing. Through moments of despair and moments of triumph, these women's stories are intertwined with themes of love, hope, and the unwavering strength of the maternal instinct. This poignant collection serves as a beacon of light for anyone facing their own journey through grief, offering comfort, understanding, and a sense of solidarity in the face of life's greatest challenges.

Journeys with My Mother's Ashes Hélène Jermolajew, 2020-10-27 Death and life beckoned her to travel the world to heal her grief. Journeys with My Mother's Ashes describes the trauma faced by a daughter who has to manoeuvre the pitfalls and traps after the death of her mother. She realises that the only way toward her healing is to leave the country of her birth and travel the world, taking her mother's ashes with her. Join her on her Grand Tour through life, death, drama, family, healing, and lots of travel. There are many moments of both darkness and light, fun and reflection, exploration and realisations, and most of all, a sense of direction to a brighter future through trusting her intuition. The journey has very few plans yet provides exactly what the author needs through trusting both a loving Universe and herself. So pack your bags and hop on board; you never know what this journey could bring.

Jones,2017-09-22 Many people lose loved ones daily due to various reasons And each loss proves to be extremely difficult for those left behind to grieve I express my dearest sympathy to you all Unfortunately many of those lost die due to senseless violence and this can add to the hurt and pain tied to the loss This is my story of how I lost both of my sons due to such senseless violence how I grieved and how I began to heal Join me on this journey as my story may connect with your story and we can continue the journey of healing together If not for you then bless someone else that you may know is mourning the loss of a child and may be in need of additional encouragement on this journey to healing Pediatric Hospital Medicine and Pediatric Palliative Care, An Issue of Pediatric Clinics Mary C. Ottolini,Christina K. Ullrich,2014-08-28 For the first time Pediatric Clinics is devoting one issue to two clinically focused topics Pediatric Palliative Care and Pediatric Hospital Medicine Dr Ottolini has organized her section to focus on a variety of issues of relevant to all pediatricians but which pose special challenge to the Pediatric Hospitalists As pediatric care has advanced children who would not have survived infancy are growing into young adults with complex chronic diseases and dependence upon technology They frequently require hospitalization to address exacerbation of underlying disease processes and procedures to improve their quality of life The articles are devoted to patient care challenges of troubleshooting malfunctioning technology co managing medically complex patients pre and post op with surgical colleagues and the Hospitalist s evolving role in performing procedures and sedation in this population of vulnerable patients Also discussed rare strategies to maximize communication with parents patients and primary care providers during hospitalization especially for medically complex patients Dr Ullrich and Dr Wolfe Pediatric have worked to bring relevant articles on palliative care to the pediatrician While life threatening conditions in childhood are rare children with LTC account for a high proportion of pediatric hospital care and about one half of such children die in the inpatient setting The number of hospital based pediatric palliative care programs has increased dramatically over the past decade to meet the palliative care needs of hospitalized children including symptom management facilitation of communication decision making and advance care planning support and coordination of care Given these considerations it is evident that the topics of pediatric palliative care and hospital medicine are fitting counterparts for this comprehensive issue
