Storytelling in Participatory Arts with Young People Catherine Heinemeyer, 2020-06-30 This book draws on the author's experience as a storyteller drama practitioner and researcher to articulate an emerging dialogic approach to storytelling in participatory arts educational mental health youth theatre and youth work contexts It argues that oral storytelling offers a rich and much needed channel for intergenerational dialogue with young people The book keeps theory firmly tethered to practice Section 1 Storyknowing traces the history of oral storytelling practice with adolescents across diverse contexts and brings into clear focus the particular nature of the storytelling exchange and narrative knowledge Section 2 Telling Stories introduces readers to some of the key challenges and possibilities of dialogic storytelling by reflecting on stories from the author's own arts based practice research with adolescents illustrating these with young people's artistic responses to stories Finally section 3 Story Gaps conceptualises dialogic storytelling by exploring three different gaps the gap between storyteller and listener the gaps in the story and the gaps which storytellers can open up within institutions The book includes chapters taking a special focus on storytelling in schools and in mental health settings as well as guided reflections for readers to relate the issues raised to their own practice

In the Presence of Each Other Johanna C. Kuyvenhoven, 2009-05-23 There can be little doubt that pedagogical practices have increasingly become focused on reading and writing in childhood education In the Presence of Each Other is a brilliant ethnography that examines the educational benefits of the use of oral storytelling in the classroom and the ways in which non print literacy enhances children's overall language and communication capacities Presenting a strong argument based on compelling evidence for the incorporation of oral practices in the classroom Johanna Kuyvenhoven follows a group of children in grades four and five

as they forge an inclusive learning environment that respects linguistic social and ethnic diversity by sharing stories out loud She traces the positive effects that oral storytelling has on children s vocabularies writing skills as well as for problem solving abilities and empathetic responses that are essential to learning across the disciplines In the Presence of Each Other is a ground breaking work not only for educators but also for anyone interested in the practice of storytelling

Philosophies and Practices of Emancipatory Nursing Paula N. Kagan,Marlaine C. Smith,Peggy L. Chinn,2014-07-17

Awarded First Place in the 2015 AJN Book of the Year Award in two categories History and Public Policy and Professional Issues This anthology presents the philosophical and practice perspectives of nurse scholars whose works center on promoting nursing research practice and education within frameworks of social justice and critical theories Social justice nursing is defined by the editors as nursing practice that is emancipatory and rests on the principle of praxis which is practice aimed at attaining social justice goals and outcomes that improve health experiences and conditions of individuals their communities and society There is a lack in the nursing discipline of resources that contain praxis approaches and there is a need for new concepts models and theories that could encompass scholarship and practice aimed at purposive reformation of nursing other health professions and health care systems Chapters bridge critical theoretical frameworks and nursing science in ways that are understandable and useful for practicing nurses and other health professionals in clinical settings in academia and in research In this book nurses ideas and knowledge development efforts are not limited to problems and solutions emerging from the dominant discourse or traditions The authors offer innovative ways to work towards establishing alternative forms of knowledge capable of capturing both the roots and complexity of contemporary problems as distributed across a diversity of people and communities It fills a significant gap in the literature and makes an exceptional contribution as a collection of new writings from some of the foremost nursing scholars whose works are informed by critical frameworks
