Healing Power Paperback By Gunstone John:

Healing Power John Gunstone,1987 The Church Militant Graham R. Smith,2016-11-08 A worldview of spiritual warfare is widely held among charismatics and Pentecostals but it has been criticized for producing paranoia and denying personal responsibility It is less well known that the term was first used in print around 1970 by Anglican charismatics What did it mean to them then and what are the practical effects of their worldview Should we now be adopting a more sophisticated ontology of evil such as Nigel Wright's non ontological realist view or Amos Yong's apophatic theology of the demonic rather than the traditional one that Satan and demons are real ontological entities This practical theological study begins with a study of Anglican charismatic pioneers and an in depth case study of a charismatic Anglican congregation before grappling with the ontological question in dialogue with Wright together with Barth and Walter Wink Yong and Gregory Boyd A fresh engagement with the biblical texts then argues for a positive realist ontology for rebellious demonic powers and presents a Trinitarian model of spiritual warfare praxis that emphasizes personal responsibility and promotes freedom from fear Forthcoming Books Rose Army,1997-04 Word and Power Gareth W. D. Stewart,2015-02-16

Historically the Reformed and Charismatic streams have seemed to be almost mutually exclusive In recent years this exclusivity has been being challenged by a new generation of Reformed thinkers This work aims at considering the contribution of John Wimber the late leader of the Vineyard Churches to contemporary theological reflection within the Reformed tradition Taking into account John Wimber's unique theology of the radical middle which is somewhere between Pentecostal and Evangelical this book asks whether Wimber may be a possible alternative source for the contemporary Reformed Churches as they approach ministry and mission in the twenty first century Written from a confessional Presbyterian context in Northern Ireland Word and Power places Wimber in his theological context and asks whether Wimber's view of power evangelism discipleship formation and ministry training might be a model that Reformed Churches and Presbyterians in particular could adopt for their ecclesiology today The Third World, Taiwan Eugene Willard
