Health Care For An Aging Society Costconscious Community Care And Selfcare Approaches:

Health Care for an Aging Society David Haber, 2014-01-02 First published in 1989 In an aging society however the challenge broadens to include health care and social support at home and in the community The major premise of this book is that cost conscious community care and self care will become increasingly important as the era of cost containment intensifies

Medical Ethics in Practice Terry R. Bard, 1990 Interdisciplinary group of clinicians at Beth Israel Hospital convened to review ethical issues

African American Grief Paul C. Rosenblatt, Beverly R. Wallace, 2013-08-21 African American Grief is a unique contribution to the field both as a professional resource for counselors therapists social workers clergy and nurses and as a reference volume for thanatologists academics and researchers This work considers the potential effects of slavery racism and white ignorance and oppression on the African American experience and conception of death and grief in America Based on interviews with 26 African Americans who have faced the death of a significant person in their lives the authors document describe and analyze key phenomena of the unique African American experience of grief The book combines moving narratives from the interviewees with sound research analysis and theoretical discussion of important issues in thanatology as well as topics such as the influence of the African American church gospel music family grief medical racism as a cause of death and discrimination during life and after death

Clean, 2008-07-24 Why do we still have nits What exactly are purity rules And why have baths scarcely changed in 200 years The long history of personal hygiene and purity is a fascinating subject that reveals how closely we are linked to our deeper past In this pioneering book Virginia Smith covers the global history of human body care from the Neolithic to the present using first hand accounts and sources From pre historic grooming rituals to New Age medicine from ascetics to cosmetics Smith looks at how different cultures have interpreted and striven for personal cleanliness and shows how throughout history this striving for purity has brought great social benefits as well as great tragedies It is probably safe to say that no one who reads this book will look at his or her body or bathroom in quite the same way again

The Art of Grief J. Earl Rogers, 2011-02-10 Art and other expressive therapies are increasingly used in grief counseling not only among children and adolescents but throughout the developmental spectrum Creative activities are commonly used in group and individual psychotherapy programs but it is only relatively recently that these expressive modalities have been employed within the context of clinical grief work in structured settings These forms of nonverbal communication are often more natural ways to express thoughts and feelings that are difficult to discuss particularly when it comes to issues surrounding grief and loss Packed with pictures and instructional detail this book includes an eight session curriculum for use with grief support groups as well as alternative modalities of grief art therapy

AIDS, Fear and Society Kenneth J. Doka, 2014-05-01 Historically AIDS is just one of a series of dreaded diseases that have aroused both great fear and irrational actions The previous diseases including bubonic plague syphilis tuberculosis leprosy and cancer have evoked such a sense of dread that rational moves to halt the disease have become compromised This text examines the deep sense of fear that AIDS evokes stigmatizing those who suffer from the disease as well as their families and caregivers Until AIDS can be seen for what it actually is a life threatening disease policies providing for humane treatment will not evolve The book also emphasizes that diseases are more than biological phenomena or individual catastrophes they are profoundly social events The ways in which diseases are spread and treated are strongly influenced by larger sociological considerations and they may have the capacity to change social institutions or society

Rooting Aids In The History Of Diseases The First Part Of The book reviews the nature history and responses of earlier dreaded diseases The next section examines AIDS itself proposed as the archetypal dreaded disease Already creating a sense of panic AIDS is also shown to be a social disease likely to have significant effects on the social order Thus only by containing the epidemic of fear and controlling the resulting irrationality can the AIDS epidemic be halted

Horrendous Death and Health Daniel Leviton,1991 Some kinds of death are caused by people deliberately or accidentally This work argues that horrendous death by war homicide poverty and other man made means is the greatest public health problem of our time and can only be defeated by strong co operative action

Horrendous Death, Health, and Well-being Daniel Leviton,1991 A treatment of the incidence of horrendous death both inadvertent and deliberate which views the phenomenon as the greatest public health problem of modern times The author argues that as man causes such deaths he can also learn to eliminate them by collective action

Widow to Widow Phyllis R. Silverman,2004-11-23 Widow to Widow shares the experiences of widows who have found comfort and continuity in mutual help and community support programs In the second edition of her pioneering text Phyllis Silverman brings the success of the original widow to widow program into the 21st century preparing a new generation of community leaders clergy counselors hospice staff social workers and the widowed themselves to organize and implement mutual help programs

Perspectives On Loss John H. Harvey,2014-01-14 Losses are integral to the human experience but they sometimes unfold in subtle ways Loss is not just about death but can encompass a number of situations such as those gradual losses experienced by the elderly loss of vision mental capacity or hope Intended to stimulate ideas and research in the new area of psychological aspects of loss this sourcebook collects the writing of a set of distinguished scholars representing psychology and related fields The author presents a case for a broadly construed field of loss both personal and interpersonal that would complement other fields such as death and dying traumatology and stress and coping No other volume is as comprehensive in its treatment of this intriguing subject The book begins with an introduction to the concept of loss and discusses the definition of the term and the salience of the topic in the general public in the 1990s Contributors were chosen to represent some of the most interesting current work on different types of loss and adaptation in the whole of the social and behavioral sciences Contents cover such diverse subjects as loss in intimate relationships disability chronic illness genocide sports unemployment and homelessness The book concludes with a commentary section on loss theory and research

Multiple AIDS-related Loss David Nord,1997 The aim of this book is to legitimize the pain experienced by many of the survivors of AIDS by normalizing the abnormal experience of survivors It argues that multiple AIDS related loss means not only losing one loved one to AIDS but also has Techniques of Grief Therapy Robert A. Neimeyer, 2015-09-25 Techniques of Grief Therapy Assessment and Intervention continues where the acclaimed Techniques of Grief Therapy Creative Practices for Counseling the Bereaved left off offering a whole new set of innovative approaches to grief therapy to address the needs of the bereaved This new volume includes a variety of specific and practical therapeutic techniques each conveyed in concrete detail and anchored in an illustrative case study Techniques of Grief Therapy Assessment and Intervention also features an entire new section on assessment of various challenges in coping with loss with inclusion of the actual scales and scoring keys to facilitate their use by practitioners and researchers Providing both an orientation to bereavement work and an indispensable toolkit for counseling survivors of losses of many kinds this book belongs on the shelf of both experienced clinicians and those just beginning to delve into the field of grief therapy

Parent Grief Paul C. Rosenblatt, 2016-02-04 Explores what couple and individual stories say and do not say about the child's dying and death and about parent grief The author uses narratives as his tool for the introduction and exploration of the many facets of parental grief Men Don't Cry, Women Do Kenneth J. Doka, Terry L. Martin, 2014-03-05 Do men and women grieve differently This text while emphasizing that there are many ways to cope with grief offers a refreshing change from the popular gender stereotypes of grief Two patterns of grieving are described an intuitive pattern where individuals experience and express grief in an affective way stereotyped as female and an instrumental pattern where grief is expressed physically or cognitively stereotyped as male A third pattern representing a blending of these two is also introduced Of critical importance is that such patterns are related to but not determined by gender and each has distinct strengths and weaknesses Organized into three main parts this topical new text begins by defining terms introducing and delineating the grief patterns and rooting the book's concept in contemporary theories of grief The second part speculates on factors that may influence individuals patterns of coping with loss e.g. personality gender culture etc The final part considers implications and therapeutic interventions likely to be effective with different types of grievers Lives and Deaths Antoon A. Leenaars, 2023-01-06 Edwin S. Shneidman is recognized as the central figure in the field of suicidology His writings have taught countless psychologists and other health professionals about the complexity of suicide death and bereavement This collection of his writings spans the entirety of his career and offers a unique insight into the development of his thinking The material is broken down into five parts Psychological Assessment Logic Melville and Murray Suicide and Death and each section includes an introduction by the editor Lives and Deaths is a vital resource for those in suicidology and related fields allowing the reader to sample a variety of selections from Shneidman's work in one compact volume The book is ideal for classroom use by upper level undergraduates and graduate students in the history of suicidology or as a supplemental text in a general suicidology course It is also of interest to clinicians treating high risk patients as well as a more general audience including psychologists social workers crisis counselors and suicide prevention specialists Chronic Sorrow Susan Roos,2014-01-14 Grief and loss are burgeoning concerns for professional disciplines such as nursing social work family therapy psychology psychiatry law religion and medicine Although understanding has increased in virtually all other areas of grief and loss chronic sorrow has received scant attention Chronic sorrow is a natural grief reaction to losses that are not final but continue to be present in the life of the griever This book views chronic sorrow in a life span perspective and reveals the effect on the griever and the people close to them This book fills a void in the literature and attempts to develop a comprehensive analysis of chronic sorrow that will secure its position within the field of grief and loss Shadows in the Sun Betty Davies,2015-12-22 Shadows in the Sun covers the immediate short and long term responses and subsequent generational effects of sibling bereavement and discusses sibling responses in the context of the variables which influence them The final chapter synthesizes all that has gone before into a comprehensive model of sibling bereavement Practical guidelines are offered for those who seek to help grieving siblings children and families The Spiritual Lives of Bereaved Parents Dennis Klass,2013-11-12 This book describes how parents lose find or relocate spiritual anchors after the death of their child It describes how ordinary people reconstruct their lives after their foundations have shifted and how they make sense of their world after one of their centers of meaning has been removed Klass grounds his descriptions of spirituality in his scholarly study of comparative religions and in his two decades studying the lives of bereaved parents He argues that continuing bonds with their dead children can give parents a new transcendent reality Deceased children like saints or bodhisattvas can offer a bridge between the profane and sacred worlds support parents as they find meaning in a world made forever poorer and bind together a community adequate to parents grief The book reports Klass s clinical practice and his work as advisor to a bereaved parents self help support group Voices of Bereavement Joan Beder,2013-01-11 Voices of Bereavement presents counselors with specific sometimes unusual bereavement situations and their subsequent treatment Joan Beder blends theoretical content with suggestions for intervention helping the reader appreciate how theory informs practice In addition a section on counselor struggles focuses on what feelings were provoked in the counselor during each case and how these feelings were managed Suicide Prevention David Lester,2013-08-21 This study presents an evaluation of the past present and future of suicidal behaviour and efforts to prevent or facilitate suicide Authors from the varying disciplines of psychology sociology and psychiatry analyze suicide in the opening chapters Through the exploration of the roles of these disciplines the roles of primary physicians and the impact of suicide prevention education in schools the contributors describe the history of suicidology and the changes necessary for improvement The book concludes with a section detailing the goals and activities of organizations designed to prevent or facilitate suicide
