Health Care Matters:

Health Care Matters Richard D. Miller (Jr.), H. E. Frech, 2004 This book shows that it is time to rethink conventional wisdom regarding consumption of pharmaceuticals Why Healthcare Matters Frank Hone, 2008 Why Healthcare Matters is a practical guide to help influential business executives and leaders address a major crisis of our time healthcare Frank Hone a healthcare consumerism advocate and practitioner takes a big picture look at what's wrong with healthcare in the U S and provides a set of practical market based strategies and solutions The core idea of Why Healthcare Matters is that the solution lies in personal responsibility and employer engagement And the heart of the book is a seven step plan of action to drive substantial change in healthcare in your company Theology in Health Care Matters Hilary Regan, 2024-03-01 This volume of essays aims to unpack theologically the issues behind what is undertaken in Christian based health care

Mental Healthcare Matters In Primary Care Ruth Chambers, Elizabeth Boath, Gill Wakley, 2018-12-14 The National Service Framework for mental health aims to provide uniformly good systems so that mental health problems are detected and therefore treated early This book sets out how learning more about mental health and reviewing current practice can be incorporated into a personal development plan or practice learning plan It shows how to integrate quality improvements into everyday work and bridges the gap between theory and practice Doctors nurses and practice managers can build up a personal development plan or a practice professional development plan through completing the exercises at the end of each chapter and it demonstrates how to include clinical governance in the mental healthcare services they offer Care matters Great Britain. Department for Education and Skills, 2006 Although outcomes for children in care have improved in recent years there remains a significant and widening gap between these and the outcomes for all children The childhood and adolescence of many of the 60 000 children in care at any one time is often characterised by insecurity ill health and lack of fulfilment resulting in the fact that they are over represented in a range of vulnerable groups including the homeless teenage parents young offenders and prisoners those not in post 16 education employment or training and drug users This Green Paper from the Department for Education and Skills sets out a series of proposals which seek to address this situation by reforming both the way the care system works for children and the quality of experience they receive Proposals include an improved placements system with the focus on expanding the number and quality of foster carers powers for local authorities to direct schools to admit children in care even where the school is fully subscribed pilot schemes to allow young people to continue to live with foster carers up to the age of 21 years introduction of a national bursary for young people in care going to university regular Ofsted inspections of how each local authority is meeting the educational needs of children in care better support to prevent exclusions of children in care and enhanced entitlement to free school transport to ensure children do not have to change school when they change placement The closing date for responses to this consultation document is 15 January 2007 either sent by email to carematters.consultation@dfes.gsi.gov.uk or by post to Consultation Unit Area 1A Castle

View House East Lane Runcorn Cheshire WA7 2GJ A series of focus groups and workshops will be held throughout the consultation period to consider views on the Green Paper and four working groups of interested stakeholders are being set up in order to explore issues in more detail under the headings of the future of the care population social care practices placement reform and best practice in schools which will report to the DfES in Spring 2007
