Without a Flock William Flewelling, 2020-10-05 In the free church tradition the pastoral prayer has long assumed an important place in the worship of the congregation It is expected that the pastor will have a more or less extended prayer pertinent to the day and or to the run of the service in general Under the circumstances of normal practice these would involve awareness of a congregation or a flock for a pastor to tend After ending a normal pastorate and entering retirement and the far more occasional happenstance of entering a pulpit as a guest the regular preparation for a worship leading practice became desirable personally As a part of that preparation most often without entering the leadership of worship least of all as pastor the pastoral prayer was prepared This book collects eleven years worth of pastoral prayers linked to the preaching text of the day by way of the sermon prepared As there is no flock as reference point these are indeed Without A Flock
