Beyond Agreement Scott Steinkerchner, 2011 Beyond Agreement addresses the thorny question of how to make interreligious dialogue productive when the religious differences are so large that finding common ground seems unlikely The book offers a way to think about interreligious dialogue that allows people to stay committed to their own truth as they have come to know it while being open to learning from other religions It then outlines a way for Christian theologians to enter into a profitable dialogue with the beliefs and traditions of other religions by presenting practical steps to follow in order to keep the dialogue productive and respectful of similarities and differences among religions

Minjung and Process Hiheon Kim, 2009 This book reconstructs the legacy of Korean minjung theology by reformulating its essential ideas in a dialogue with process thought In a minimal sense this study is a theological reinterpretation of the doctrine of the minjung messiah an idea which historically suffered from a misunderstanding that minjung theology created a messianic confusion while replacing christology and soteriology by a radical anthropology This erroneous conception occurred when the idea was placed within the philosophically dualistic framework of traditional doctrines in which the work of minjung is totally separated from the work of Christ In order to avoid such a dualistic understanding the author critically adopts process panentheism and makes minjung ideas more communicable and more comprehensive in current theological religious and philosophical debates Beyond defending the idea of the minjung messiah he also argues for an inclusive minjung hermeneutics that promotes the fundamental insight of minjung theology in philosophical clarity Through minjung hermeneutics minjung theology expands its practical concern and overcomes the theoretical nihilism in postmodern studies Jesus and Creativity Gordon D.

Kaufman,2006-07-17 The lively interest today in the historical figure of Jesus is rarely matched by theological advances in understanding his person and significance for our own time and worldview Gordon Kaufman takes up this challenge in this bold speculative work Despite the fabled difficulties of traditional Christological terms few theologians since Tillich and Teilhard have sought to re envision the symbol of Jesus within the contemporary scientific worldview Building on his notion of God as simply creativity Kaufman here locates the meaning of Jesus salvific story within an evolving universe and a threatened planet Outside the dualistic categories of the biblical worldview he finds the enormously creative and influential figure of the historic Jesus can have a vital role in the emergence and development of the cosmos and human history Within that role he argues Jesus his relation to God and his centrality to Christian faith become clearer and our own lives and actions take on a new meaning

The Divine Manifold Roland Faber, 2014-07-30 The Divine Manifold is a postmodern enquiry in intersecting themes of the concept and reality of multiplicity in a chaosmos that does not refuse a dimension of theopoetics but rather defines it in terms of divine polyphilia the love of multiplicity In an intricate play on Dante's Divine Comedy this book engages questions of religion and philosophy through the aporetic dynamics of love and power locating its discussions in the midst of and in between the spheres of a genuine philosophy of multiplicity This philosophy originates from the poststructuralist approach of Gilles Deleuze and the process philosophical inspirations of Alfred N Whitehead As their chaosmos invites questions of ultimate reality religious pluralism and multireligious engagement a theopoetics of love will find paradoxical dissociations and harmonizations with postmodern sensitivities of language power knowledge and embodiment At the intersection of poststructuralism's and process theology's insights in the liberating necessity of multiplicity for a postmodern cosmology the book realizes its central claim If there is a divine dimension of the chaosmos it will not be found in any identification with mundane forces or supernatural powers but on the contrary in the absolute difference of polyphilic love from creativity Yet the concurrent indifference of love and power its mystical undecidability in terms of any conceptualization will lead into existential questions of the insistence on multiplicity in a world of infinite becoming as inescapable background for its importance and creativeness formulating an ecological and ethical impulse for a mystagogy of becoming intermezzo

Louw, 1999 A Mature Faith is an attempt to develop an anthropology for pastoral care and counseling which deals with both Christian perspective and important data from the human sciences such as psychology This book presents an integrative approach which views spirituality and our human quest for meaning as central to a psycho pastoral approach A doctrine of persons is designed which deals with both the dimension of creation image of God and of salvation the new being in Christ This book argues for an understanding of human beings in terms of their human identity before God Coram Deo as well as the empowerment of persons by the gift and fruit of the Spirit Hence the importance of a pneumatological perspective on maturity and adulthood The interplay between God images and our human selfunderstanding is discussed In this regard the question about diagnosis in pastoral counseling and the technique of storytelling receive attention A pastoral hermeneutics which tries to understand our human predicament in terms of both the social and cultural context as well as our relationship with God is fundamental to the models presented in this book In spiritual direction the basic assumption is that God images and the implication of different perceptions of God on life issues should play a decisive role In terms of our human quest for meaning within a secularized society the following metaphor for God is proposed God as our Soul Friend The book is written for priests ministers and pastoral caregivers involved in counseling and spiritual direction Its main focus is on professional training within an academic setting It will also be useful for the training of lay members within a congregational setting

The Cosmic Breath Amos Yong, 2012-05-10 Recent thinking in the interfaith dialogue and in the theology science dialogue have taken a pneumatological turn The Cosmic Breath explores this pneumatological theology as unfolded in the Christian Buddhist dialogue alongside critical interaction with the theology and science conversation As an attempt in comparative and constructive Christian philosophical theology its central thesis is that a pneumatological approach to Buddhist traditions in further dialogue with modern science generates new philosophical resources that invigorate Christian thinking about the natural world and humanity's place in it The result is a transformation of the Buddhist Christian dialogue from insights generated in the theology and science interface and a contribution to the religion and science dialogue from a comparative theological and philosophical perspective

Molnar, 2017-02-23 Divine Freedom and the Doctrine of the Immanent Trinity is widely acclaimed by scholars in the field of Christian systematic theology Molnar's quest to place the doctrine of the immanent Trinity on the agenda of the Christian doctrine of God has proven to be a signal contribution to the debate in contemporary Christian theology The material in this second edition has been thoroughly updated it contains a new preface and a new introduction as well as a revised bibliography The book includes a brand new chapter titled Divine Freedom Revisited which addresses those questions that have arisen in connection with Molnar's

Bloesch Paul Maher,2007 Donald G Bloesch is among the most important American theologians of the 20th and early 21st centuries He calls himself a catholic evangelical and indeed his appeal is as wide as those terms imply His work has appeared in Catholic religious periodicals as well as many varieties of Protestant publications both mainstream and lesser known As a prolific author Bloesch s writing is scattered across a large number of journals many of which are difficult to access and reviews of his work appear in an even larger range of forums Donald G Bloesch A Research Bibliography collocates as many relevant resources on Bloesch s writing as possible The book provides a chronological listing and description of each work written by Bloesch as well as reviews of Bloesch s writing Each entry gives the title publication details and notes about the relationship of the item described to other publications Several indexes are also included giving a checklist of books by Bloesch a checklist of books to which Bloesch has contributed and a list of book reviews that Bloesch has written about other authors Finally there is an alphabetical index of titles names and periodicals cited in the bibliography making this the most comprehensive resource available on Bloesch A Korean Theology of Human Nature Jung Sun Oh,2005-01-31 This remarkable study articulates a Korean Confucian Christian theory of human nature theory of justification sanctification and salvation by means of a reformed concept of filial piety The book investigates in depth the theological anthropology of Robert C Neville and the inclusive humanism of Tu Wei ming Neville and Tu represent contemporary Christian and Confucian approaches to religious anthropology Furthermore they have engaged in an extended and productive dialogical encounter on the themes of comparative thought and religious renewal in Asia and North America This book argues that Neville s and Tu s insights into human nature have great relevance for a comparative contemporary Korean theology by focusing on the role of a reformed version of filial piety as a new component of Korean theology The articulation of filial piety as a potential key of contemporary Korean theology is an example of creative appropriation of a Confucian theme of the Christian praxis of sanctification and ultimately the soteriology of divine grace and transformation This study construes human nature to be such that any living theology will reflect the creative engagement of Christian theologians as public intellectuals in search of the articulation of the gospel
