God Promised:

The Promises of God Kevin P. Conway, 2014-10-29 This study is the first to investigate why Paul makes exclusive use of epangelia for the divine pledge when referring to the Abrahamic covenant a usage of the term never found in the OT LXX After examining Jewish writings and Greek literature of the classical and Hellenistic periods this study demonstrates that Paul is rather unique in his exclusive use of the epangelia word group for the divine pledge and for using the term predominantly in reference to the Abrahamic promises This exclusive usage is further deemed unexpected in that the horkos and omnyimi lexemes are by far the terms most commonly associated with God's promises to Abraham in the OT the literature with which Paul was most familiar The study then moves to explain why Paul has chosen this path of discontinuity where it is argued that Paul's exclusive choice of epangelia for the divine promise is driven by its conceptual and linguistic correspondence with the euangelion one of the terms Paul adopted from the early church that forms the core of his ministry This conceptual word study of the divine promise will benefit Pauline scholars interested in Paul's use of the OT as well as his association of the euangelion and epangelia word groups God's Big Promises Bible Story Prayers Carl

Laferton, 2024-08-01 Teach little kids to pray in response to God's word Pray with your children in response to Bible truths using this beautifully illustrated book of prayers Each page begins with a Bible story summary and a verse from the Bible followed by a responsive prayer Children will learn to say wow thank you sorry and please as they get to know God better There are even actions to go with each response GOD'S ENDURING PROMISES - FAITHFUL PROMISES FOR EVERYDAY LIVING S. King Livingston, 2011-07-12 The bible says that we should not make idols or set up an image or a sacred stone for ourselves God is a Jealous God and He delights in the praises and worship of His children He promised that if we worship Him and Him only that He will make us rejoice over our enemies that your light will break forth like the dawn and your healing will quickly appear That your righteousness will go before you and the glory of the Lord will be your rear guard Then you will call and the Lord will answer and you will cry for help and he will say Here I am Isaiah 58:8 When we talk about idols we tend to think of graven images but not so An idol is anything that we place before God it can be a spouse a friend money power drugs sex or anything that interfere or takes time away from our worship with God Whatever you find yourself spending time with more than your time of worship with God is your idol We may not think of these things as idols but consider the amount of time we spend stressing or concentrating our focus on the things of the world that ultimately will be the cause of our losing our way to salvation Sometimes we forget to honor the Lord who makes all things available to us only because one of our personal idols require more of our time so we place God aside and focus our attention on wandering further away from Him not knowing that He grieves at our disobedience But it is not too late the bible says that the arms of God are not short His ears are not deafened to our cries I know sometimes we may feel that God will not answer or forgive us because we keep going back to the very idol we confessed to have left but God wants to forgive us for that reason He sent

His only son to die for our sins so that the world through Him might be saved God knows how weak and sinful we are No matter how holy and righteous we may think we are ultimately we are powerless and wretched at best Paul in II Corinthians says this of the flesh I was given a thorn in my flesh a messenger of Satan to torment me Three times I pleaded with the Lord to take it away from me But he said to me My grace is sufficient for you for my power is made perfect in weakness Paul also says that he tried to do good deeds but often ends up doing what he swore he would not do We are just like Paul we are weak and impressionable and prone to sin That is why we need to have the Holy Spirit lead and guide our daily walk We need to prostrate ourselves lay our souls bare in front of He who pours out grace and forgiveness abundantly In Christ we are not of this world but if we continue along the path of destruction we will find ourselves standing outside the gates of heaven asking Lord where did I go wrong Genesis 28 12 I am with you and will watch over you wherever you go and I will bring you back to this land I will not leave you until I have done what I have promised you Let us ask God now to forgive us our sins so that we can fully partake of His bountiful promises The Rainbow's Promise: A Sign of God's Covenant Ahmed Musa,2024-12-11 Experience the beauty and hope of God s faithfulness in The Rainbow s Promise A Sign of God s Covenant This heartfelt retelling recounts the aftermath of the great flood as Noah and his family emerge from the ark to a transformed world and a divine assurance of mercy and love Witness the profound moment when God places a radiant rainbow in the sky promising never again to destroy the earth by flood This covenant symbolizes His enduring commitment to creation and serves as a timeless reminder of hope renewal and grace Perfect for readers of all ages The Rainbow s Promise is a story of restoration and divine love that resonates with anyone seeking assurance of God s presence in the storms of life A touching reminder that even in times of trial God s promises shine bright God's Promises for Every Day A. John E. Hollywell,2015-10-28 Many years of biblical study have showed John E Hollywell that most people have never had an accurate explanation of biblical truths and do not know what an amazing inheritance the Bible says they may have once they make Jesus their Lord and Saviour The chaos the world suffers was foretold in the Bible Scientists offer explanations but governments politicians and educators have no answers as to why there is such poverty crime war disease mental health problems and other forms of misery in the world today Are there solutions to all of these issues Emphatically the author says Yes Hosea 4 6 says that Gods people are destroyed through lack of knowledge This book provides some such knowledge in a simple readable format The Answer God s Covenants of Promise will have achieved its purpose if it can open a readers eyes to see the Word of God as it was meant to be understood why seemingly good people worldwide are so hostile and inhumane to each other and who Jesus is and what was His true purpose for coming The Answer God s Covenants of Promise was written for everyone who might seek to know where humanity came from why we are here and where we go in the future into eternity The Answer God s Covenants of Promise seeks to answer such scientific evolutionary and spiritual questions as What is faith in God to be found through Jesus of Nazareth Gods son The Promised One (A 10-week Bible Study)

Caleb's Eye: a Spy's Journey Through Genesis Carroll W. Boswell, 2011-07-19 This book is a commentary in the form of a journal It is meant to be something like a diary kept by a tourist or a spy of his travels in a strange land recording questions and observations and opinions on everything he sees for other travelers on the same road It could be also called a dialogue because the author records the conversation that he has with Genesis as he moves along and the conversation he has with himself in the privacy of his motel room In both ways it is the account of a journey with the idea that it may be of some use to others traveling the same road The author is writing as an amateur to other amateurs He is not a professional theologian nor a biblical scholar and while his intent is to think as deeply and truly as he can he is not doing so as a professional There are several advantages that an amateur may have over a professional in a case like this First the amateur can be much bolder in what he questions and in the answers he considers The professional always has something on the line always something at risk namely his reputation He cannot venture far off the beaten path without being in some danger of losing his respectability The amateur on the other hand has little respectability to lose and little reputation to risk What Dr Boswell would not be able to risk in mathematical writing he can be quite at liberty to risk in this project It can be exhilarating Secondly the amateur has a much friendlier connection with the average reader The amateur is something of an equal with the average reader though presumably with something to say worth the hearing Since they are introduced as equals the reader can feel safer less threatened more entitled to join in the conversation that the author is trying to create With a professional author there is always the sense of obligation that one should not argue back with the scholar only another scholar has the credentials to join in their conversation and the rest of us must sort it all out as best we can But with this book there is no need of restraint anyone can be drawn in to the discussion anyone can feel entitled to disagree with impunity It can be exhilarating This book is not meant to be a Bible made simple book It is written by someone who loves to think and is written for others who love to think It is written by someone who is not timid about difficult questions and is written for others who have no fear of such things But most of all it is a book written for the pure joy of the thing and for those who might share that joy

Possession and Persuasion Robert Hach, 2001-11-12 Possession and Persuasion The Rhetoric of Christian Faith is a rhetorical analysis of Christian history and theology initially prompted by my experience in a fundamentalist Christian sect The story of this experience is briefly told in the prologue The Rhetoric of Surrender which describes the surrender of my life to God through a commitment to an authoritarian Christian sect in Gainesville Florida in 1972 when I was a freshman at the University of Florida I spent the following fifteen years first as a student recruit trainee and then leader in the founding church in Gainesville and then as a recruiter and trainer in other parts of the U S until I finally left the movement now called the International Churches of Christ in 1987 I subsequently combined graduate study in rhetoric with a continuing interest in biblical and historical scholarship in an effort to understand how my religious experience fit into the broader context of Christian history and theology I concluded that the New Testament language of faith originally formulated to persuade hearers of the Christian message by means of understanding had been radically redefined and its effects rhetorically reengineered by the ecclesiastical Christianity which had gradually emerged after the first century this process of rhetorical reinvention produced a language of faith that possessed its hearers by means of a mystical form of indoctrination in the interest of building a religious empire The degree to which ecclesiastical Christianity throughout its history has taken its faith language seriously my experience having been produced by a movement that took this language to its logical conclusion is the degree to which its adherents experience a religious bondage that amounts to the antithesis of the spiritual freedom and social equality of the original experience of Christian faith Part I Faith as Possession addresses critical changes made by post apostolic theologians in the apostolic discourse of the New Testament about the message of Jesus specifically with reference to the rhetorics of authority Chapter One knowledge Chapter Two and justice Chapter Three This rhetorical reengineering of apostolic language facilitated the rise of the institutional Church which rapidly replaced the apostolic message as the authorized mediator between God and humanity in general and between God and the community of faith in particular That is the dynamic of persuasion by an eschatological message was rapidly replaced by the dynamic of possession by an ecclesiastical system The redefinition and reconceptualization of these apostolic terms amounted to the rhetorical invention of Christianity a form of Greco Roman mythology which has little in common with the faith of Jesus as it is revealed in the New Testament The faith of Christianity became and continues to be to varying degrees a form of possession insofar as it consists of in both a mystical and an institutional sense belonging to the Church which relieves its members of their responsibility for their own identity and destiny Part II Faith as Persuasion explores the rhetoric of three apostolic ideals which have generally received little more than lip service by post apostolic Christianity understanding Chapter Four anticipation Chapter Five and freedom Chapter Six These concepts are integral to persuasion as the modus operandi of the apostolic Christian faith Understanding is a prerequisite to authentic persuasion in that persuasion or belief without understanding is the essence of possession In that the meaning and power of the Christian message are a matter of the hope of resurrection to life in the coming kingdom of God anticipation is the logical response to being understandingly persuaded of the truth of the message And insofar as internal bondage characterizes life without hope Morning Will Come Sid Huggins, 2006-11 Morning Will Come addresses man s deepest struggles and inspires hope The author an experienced pastor
