Murphy, 2013-07-04 Life's Greatest Treasures are Found in Things to Forgive What a Rich Man I Have Found Myself to Be Such is the realized Joy of the author as he has chosen to look back at an often troubled life from early childhood through late adulthood He chose to try to look at his life through Eyes of Compassion Forgiveness and Love believing such eyes could see his life framed only within those qualities Secure in his sense that all persons experiences and circumstances could and would be forgiven and embraced with love he surrendered to letting his entire life flow into his conscious awareness bad times as well as good ones The author began to see Things to Forgive as treasures filling a wondrous Forgiveness Treasure Chest Even the most severe of early life difficulties were allowed to flow into that chest to be embraced with forgiveness and love The author found his own self in that Forgiveness Treasure Chest the greatest treasure of all to be embraced with forgiveness and love God Never Meant for Us to Die Pierre Gilbert, 2020-04-21 The most incisive indictment against Christianity resides in the notion of a God who created a world in which there is untold suffering and death Is this the best God could do In response most Christians will mutter something about free will or the necessity of evil to bring about God's plan for humanity Theologians often reply by challenging the very legitimacy of the question God only requires that we persevere Biblical scholars who might otherwise be expected to offer a scriptural perspective nervously denounce any suggestion that the presence of evil may have had something to do with a primordial couple and a fruit tree Is it any wonder that most people believe that evil must surely be an intractable component of human existence introduced perhaps by the very God Jews and Christians worship This book is a response to the problem of evil that unconditionally affirms the goodness and power of God Based on a new assessment of the Genesis creation story one of the greatest texts

ever to have emerged in human history the author contends that God never intended for humanity to experience suffering and death
