God Wants To Go Home Or:

I Want to Go Home Forever Loren B Landau, Tanya Pampalone, 2018-08-01 Thirteen true stories about xenophobia and belonging in Johannesburg Generations of people from across Africa Europe and Asia have turned metal from the depths of the earth into Africa s wealthiest most dynamic and most diverse urban centre a mega city where post apartheid South Africa is being made Yet for newcomers as well as locals the golden possibilities of Gauteng are tinged with dangers and difficulties Chichi is a hairdresser from Nigeria who left for South Africa after a love affair went bad Azam arrived from Pakistan with a modest wad of cash and a dream Estiphanos trekked the continent escaping political persecution in Ethiopia only to become the target of the May 2008 xenophobic attacks Nombuyiselo is the mother of 14 year old Simphiwe Mahori shot dead in 2015 by a Somalian shopkeeper in Snake Park sparking a further wave of anti foreigner violence After fighting white oppression for decades Ntombi has turned her anger towards African foreigners who she says are taking jobs away from South Africans and fuelling crime Papi a freedom fighter and activist in Katlehong now dedicates his life to teaching the youth in his community that tolerance is the only way forward These are some of the thirteen stories that make up this collection They are the stories of South Africans some Gauteng born others from neighbouring provinces striving to realise the promises of democracy They are also the stories of newcomers from neighbouring countries and from as far afield as Pakistan and Rwanda seeking a secure future in those very promises The narratives collected by researchers journalists and writers reflect the many facets of South Africa s post apartheid decades Taken together they give voice to the emotions and relations emanating from a paradoxical place of outrage and hope violence and solidarity They speak of intersections between people and their pasts and of how in the making of selves and the other they are also shaping South Africa Underlying these accounts is a nostalgia for an imagined future that can never be realised These are stories of forever seeking a place called home

Get Right Church & Let's Go Home Cassandra J. Snyder, 2008-05-23 Get Right Church and Let s Go Home is a book birthed from the spirit of God Just imagine sitting at the foot of the throne with pen and paper and God telling you why He is concerned for the body of Christ Just imagine God allowing you to feel His emotions for His people If you can just picture the cross and the price that was paid and how the price has become so insignificant to the Church then you can understand what this book is designed to accomplish The things written in this book come straight from the word of God The only way to dispute it is to dispute the word the truth I often tell my children that the truth is the truth whether you choose to accept it or not You can analyze it You can show what you think is a better way You can even convince a nation that what you say is true but when Jesus Christ returns and declares the truth that will be it All issues will be settled all arguments will cease all those who are going to heaven will go and all those who are not will go to hell No it is not a damnation and hellfire book It is a book written out of love If God did not love us He would not bother to reach us He could just allow us to continue in this world s deception and end up where many of us are now separated from Him The words get right let us know that it is not too late

This book is just a warning to let the Church and the world know that time is not on our side Time is insignificant to God but it means everything to us When time ends it ends Everyone will go to heaven once some to be judged and some to be welcomed home This book is designed to help you get home *T.D. Fiorella,2003-12 On the eve of an interstellar war a team of soldier scientists sets out to investigate a newly discovered civilization that if advanced enough could be strategically important While investigating the newly discovered planet one man s suspicions are aroused Unlike his home planet which seems geologically dormant this one is alive with earthquakes and volcanoes Also unlike his home planet there is evidence of humanoid evolution yet the civilization seems less advanced despite the fact that humanoid history on the new planet is much longer An encounter with a more advanced race of beings that intervene in a destructive war that the visitors inadvertently start confirms his suspicions He is also informed that his entire society as well as that of their sworn enemies is part of an elaborate experiment This discovery shakes the very foundations of that society After the Kimians subdue their long time enemies the Haldeans they turn their military might toward the supposedly less advanced civilization only to find them a far more difficult adversary than they expected Maybe God Is Trying to Tell You Something Kimberly A.
