Catholic to the Core! Kathy Husak-Tarnacki, 2022-02-17 Catholic to the Core was born out of a restlessness in the heart of the author Since the early 1990s Kathy Husak Tarnacki felt a very distinct call from God to focus her skills and passions regarding education in a way that honored Christ in every way possible The call was so clear to her that she approached her pastor at the time and asked for permission to open a school within the church She had never been a principal and had never taken formal classes regarding administration but she knew that when God calls he equips And that he did The years that followed were filled with unexpected twists and turns in her professional career and her journey of faith from Catholicism to a non denominational setting then back to the Catholic Church Each step exposed her to new aspects of the possibilities and challenges present when you pursue Christ wholeheartedly as well as highlighting how far schools have fallen from fulfilling their God given purpose These experiences filled her heart and mind with thoughts questions concerns and possible solutions for the lukewarm atmospheres of many of our Catholic schools In 2014 she felt a tugging to begin to write her thoughts down on paper not sure exactly what the purpose would be Now in 2022 she is blessed with the opportunity to publish what she wrote and share it with the hope that it will encourage conversation reflection and determined action

This Place of Wrath and Tears Clyde V. Collard, 2009-01-24 What appears to be a tale of progressive development and reversal of a life path in the portrayal of a single individual is in reality a quest for answers and a declaration of opinion concerning the questions we ponder In describing the 78 years of his own chronological development Dr Clyde v Collard has painted a vivid picture of the human condition and the forces explicit in shaping the biological and social existence of each of us In the generic sense that which applies to one human applies to all humans John Donne expressed that sentiment when he wrote And therefore never send to know for whom the bell tolls it tolls for thee The author here states Look then into the glass perceive yourself And now choose Listening to The Echo Tom Sherwood, 2016-09-01 Why do so few young people attend church Why are Jewish and Muslim millennials so disenchanted with religion Why are young adult Catholics so angry How can parents grandparents and religious leaders understand the younger generation s widespread rejection of institutional religion Tom Sherwood was commissioned by the United Church of Canada to find a way to hear the voice of thoughtful spiritual ethical young adults who reject the religious institutions of their families They are the Echo Generation the children of Baby Boomers the Echo from the Boom But they do not echo their parents opinions or values Sherwood conducted a national research project in which 722 young adults from across Canada offered their perspectives on such topics as religion spirituality sexuality the environmental crisis family God gods suffering and the sacred Listening to The Echo reports the responses of the participants in their own words Young adults speak vividly and insightfully about the beliefs and practices that give meaning to their lives and the world as they see it In the diverse voices of this thought provoking work Sherwood finds the common threads of experience and perspective that bind the members of this distinctive generation together despite their innovative individual spiritualities Anyone interested in the contemporary dynamics of religion and social change or a deeper understanding of how millennials see their world will appreciate Listening to the Echo Sherwood has truly listened and the message is positive the kids are alright The Hidden Spirituality of Men Matthew Fox,2010-09-24 It is no secret that men are in trouble today From war to ecological collapse most of the world s critical problems stem from a distorted masculinity out of control Yet our culture rewards the very dysfunctions responsible for those problems To Matthew Fox our crucial task is to open our minds to a deeper understanding of the healthy masculine than we receive from our media culture and religions Popular religion forces the punitive imagery of fundamentalism on us pushing most men away from their natural yearning for spirituality and toward intolerance and domination Meanwhile many men particularly young men are looking for images of healthy masculinity to emulate and finding nothing To awaken what Fox calls the sacred masculine he unearths ten metaphors or archetypes ranging from the Green Man an ancient pagan symbol of our fundamental relationship with nature to the Grandfatherly Heart to the Spiritual Warrior He explores archetypes of sacred marriage showing how partnership becomes the ultimate expression of healthy masculinity By stirring our natural yearning for healthy spirituality Fox argues these timeless archetypes can inspire men to pursue their higher calling to reinvent the world Receiving Jesus Mariann Edgar Budde,2019-09-17 So often we think of the Christian faith as an obligation or as a set of beliefs that we must hold With this outlook we can lose sight of what is most important the invitation to experience a loving personal relationship with God It s a relationship we can trust where we can find refuge and solid ground upon which to stand The Way of Love set forth by the Episcopal Church s Presiding Bishop Michael Bruce Curry is the journey of a lifetime It s a way of knowing God receiving and sharing Jesus love and being a blessing to the world Mariann Edgar Budde shares her thoughts on how the reader can come to know to receive Jesus more deeply in practicing the Way of Love Through the seven practices that have been put before us to turn to learn to pray and to worship to bless to go and to rest she will share biblical stories wisdom from the Christian tradition and her own personal stories of spiritual growth
