Doing Contextual Theology Angie Pears, 2009-09-18 Christian theology like all forms of knowledge thinking and practice arises from and is influenced by the context in which it is done In Doing Contextual Theology Angie Pears demonstrates the radically contextual nature of Christian theology by focusing on five forms of liberation theology Latin American Liberation Theologies Black Theologies Feminist Informed Theologies Sexual Theologies Body Theologies Pears analyses how each of these asserts a clear and persistent link to the Christian tradition through The Bible and Christology and discusses the implications of contextual and local theologies for understanding Christianity as a religion Moreover she considers whether fears are justified that a radically contextual reading of Christian theologies leads to a relativist understanding of the religion or whether these theologies share some form of common identity both despite and because of their contextual nature Doing Contextual Theology offers students a clear and up to date survey of the field of contemporary liberation theology and provides them with a sound understanding of how contextual theology works in practice

African Theology as Liberating Wisdom Mari-Anna Pöntinen, 2013-02-14 In African Theology as Liberating Wisdom Celebrating Life and Harmony in the Evangelical Lutheran Church in Botswana Mari Anna Pöntinen analyses contextual interpretations of the Christian faith in this church These interpretations draw from the Tswana tradition and liberation in Christ

Contextualizing Theology in the South Pacific Randall G. Prior, 2019-07-10 This book engages with a widespread contemporary dilemma how do we do theology in a context where the cultures of the people are oral and not literate The nations of the South Pacific from their missionary beginnings inherited an approach to theology that was dominated by Western cultural categories The global movement of contextualization began to impact upon Pacific churches in the 1960s and challenged this inherited approach. Significant changes have resulted but the dilemma has remained. The dominant approach is still one that is defined by and better suited to literate cultures. The consequence is that theology remains an alien enterprise distant from the life of the local churches and distant from the hearts and minds of the indigenous people. In facing the dilemma, this book exposes the fundamental differences between primary oral cultures and primary literate cultures and identifies the key factors that lie at the heart of the theological problem. By addressing each of these in turn, the author then paves the way ahead. He offers a methodology for theology that is rooted within the oral cultural context of the South Pacific and potentially in any context where oral cultures are the norm. The consequences for theology and for theological education are profound. Quakers, Ecology, and the Light Cherice Bock, Christy Randazzo, 2023-05-25 As the community of life on this planet experiences the anthropogenic climate crisis, what tools from faith traditions can help us meet the coming challenges? By expanding the metaphor of light within the Christian and Quaker traditions to include light's role in ecosystems, this project develops an ecotheology of light that aims to answer this question. Cherice Bock and Christy Randazzo draw on their contexts in the Religious Society of Friends, placing the Quaker Inward Light in dialogue with the Bible and light in Eastern Orthodox ecological and interdependence theologies. The Quaker ecotheology of light developed argues that Light is a vitally important and mutually translatable metaphor providing a common language that can aid humanity reinterpreting traditions to meet this moment with spiritual grounding to transition to a just and sustainable future for the Earth, our common home. Bock and Randazzo connect this ecotheology of light with implications for Friends' testimonies. Building Mennonite Belonging Hyung Jin (Pablo) Kim Sun, 2025-02-18 Hyung Jin Kim Sun is a Mennonite. He was born in Paraguay and raised by a Korean immigrant family before attending an evangelical seminary in the United States. There he joined a Mennonite church though he often returned from gatherings feeling uneasy. Most Mennonites he met were white with European heritage and their faith community was often their ethnic community as well. As a Korean Paraguayan, Kim Sun felt that he would never be Mennonite enough. This crisis of religious identity prompted him to work towards an intercultural Mennonite church where all people could experience full belonging. Building Mennonite Belonging explores the interplay between ethnicity, culture, race, and faith in Canada and other multicultural societies. Using three Mennonite theologies: messianic community, missional church, and shalom church, Kim Sun navigates the intersection of identity and belief to broaden the vision of Mennonite peoplehood. These theologies show that Mennonites aspire to engage with the world; dialogue with those from diverse backgrounds; seek peace and strive for reconciliation. The materials to build an intercultural church can be found within existing Mennonite teachings and traditions. Though centred on Mennonites, Kim Sun's insights resonate with any faith community grappling with ethnocultural and racial diversity. Envisioning new possibilities for faith communities in the twenty-first century, Building Mennonite Belonging advocates for a church that reflects and responds to the diverse society it inhabits. Kim Sun's work is not only a call to action but a guide to fostering a more inclusive church and society      Developing a New Christology for a Postmodern Culture Donald D. Phillips, 2024-11-05 In an increasingly secular contemporary postmodern culture many people have no understanding of Christianity or the importance and relevance of Jesus Christ As a result the Church's traditional liturgical texts as well as the church oriented language often used by Christians to explain the Gospel are not helpful or accessible to those outside the Church To respond to this challenge the author uses a semiotic method based on the work of Robert Schreier to engage and describe the nature of contemporary postmodern culture Using a narrative approach to the Gospels based on the work of the 20th century historical theologian Hans Frei the author derives a more modest open ended Christology which will converse with its cultural context and continue to be interpreted within contemporary Christian communities Using social values analysis from a particular contemporary culture the author then forms biblical statements about the person of Jesus Christ that are congruent with those values and uses them to construct a new Eucharistic Prayer The result is a liturgical prayer that is accessible and enables members of that local culture to be embraced by and to embrace the identity of Jesus Christ      Cultural Reflections in the Mirror of Philosophy and Faith

Social-Ethical Challenges of Digitalization in a Developing Country Valentine Ihim, The study is the result of a theological research and is based on current discussions on digitalization in Christian Social Ethics The book answers questions such as How can the Church use digitalization to advance her mission in the modern world Since digitalization has redefined the landscape of evangelization and is now very much favoured by young people how can the Church use digitalization to engage the young people in her mandate to evangelize the world This work also examines how digitalization could be used to combat corruption especially in the Nigerian public and private sectors It suggests various measures by which internet fraud and corruption could be reduced using digital tools It stresses however that these measures can only have a positive outcome if the government and its institutions are sincere and resolute in their determination to curb such corruption      Modern

Theology Rachel Muers, Mike Higton, 2015-06-11 This book offers a fresh and up to date introduction to modern Christian theology The long nineteenth century saw enormous transformations of theology and of thought about religion that shaped the way both Christianity and religion are understood today Muers and Higton provide a lucid guide to the development of theology since 1789 giving students a critical understanding of their own modern assumptions of the origins of the debates and the fields of study in which they are involved and of major modern thinkers Modern Theology introduces the context and work of a selection of major nineteenth century thinkers who decisively affected the shape of modern theology presents key debates and issues that have their roots in the nineteenth century but are also central to the study of twentieth and twenty first century theology includes exercises and study materials that explicitly focus on the development of core academic skills This valuable resource also contains a glossary timeline annotated bibliographies and illustrations

Eschatology as Imagining the End Sigurd Bergmann, 2018-06-14 As society becomes more concerned with the future of our planet the study of apocalypse and eschatology become increasingly pertinent Whether religious or not peoples views on this topic can have a profound effect on their attitudes to issues such as climate change and social justice and so it cannot be ignored This book investigates how different approaches in historical and contemporary Christian theology make sense in reflecting about the final things or the eschata and why it is so important to consider their multi faceted impact on our lives A team of Nordic scholars analyse historical and contemporary eschatological thinking in a broad range of sources from theology and other related disciplines such as moral philosophy art history and literature Specific social and environmental challenges such as the Norwegian Breivik massacre in 2011 climatic change narratives and the ambiguity of discourses about euthanasia are investigated in order to demonstrate the complexity and significance of modes of thinking about the end times This book addresses the theology of the end of the world in a more serious academic tone than it is usually afforded As such it will be of great interest to academics working in eschatology practical theology religious studies and the philosophy of religion

Concern for Church Mission and Spiritual Gifts Laura Schmidt Roberts, 2022-03-31 In the 1950s a conversation among a handful of American graduate students considering the place of Mennonites in the modern world blossomed into a published forum CONCERN A Pamphlet Series for Questions of Christian Renewal The CONCERN writings here consider the global missional experiential contextualized realities of such a place past and present The writings explore the role of culture and context in the church s mission lived faith and theological articulation through various avenues of approach the global church and the ecumenical movement Christendom s legacy of colonialism and cultural accommodation critique of rigid and outdated ecclesial structures and forms the complexities of the unavoidably enculturated nature of faith as proclaimed and lived Two contemporary responses offer postcolonial critique and development demonstrating that such topics continue to be of critical concern in today s globally interconnected yet fragmented and divided world

Theology in Built Environments Sigurd Bergmann, 2017-07-12 Built space is both a physical entity as well as a socially and historically constructed place It constantly interacts with human beings affecting their behavior thinking and feeling Doing religious work in a particular environment implies acknowledging the surroundings to be integral to theology itself The contributors to this volume view buildings scriptures conversations prayers preaching artifacts music and drama and built and natural surroundings as contributors to a contextual theology The view of the environment in which religion is practiced as integrated with theology represents not just a new theme but also a necessity if one is to understand religion s own depth Reflections about space and place and how they reflect and affect religious experience provide a challenge and an urgent necessity for theology This is particularly important if religious practitioners are to become aware of how theology is given expression in the existential spatiality of life Can space set theology free This is a challenging question one that the editor hopes can be answered at least in part in this volume The diversity of theoretical concepts in aesthetics cultural theory and architecture are not regarded as a problem to be solved by constructing one overarching dominant theory Instead this diversity is viewed in terms of its positive potential to inspire discourse about theology and aesthetics In this discourse theology does not need to become fully dependent on one or another theory but should always clearly present its criteria for choosing this or that theoretical framework This volume shows clearly how different modes of design in sacred spaces capture a sense of the religious

Postcolonial Resistance and Asian Theology Simon Kwan, 2013-11-07 Presenting a fundamental re thinking of Asian theology this book focuses on theological indigenization in Asia in light of the postcolonial theory of resistance advanced by Homi K Bhabha among others Two types of anti colonialist resistance within Asian theologies are identified and interrogated The first is nationalistic in kind operating from a theological language that is binaristic and oppositional The second is illustrated by that which was mounted by the three Chinese Christian thinkers whose indigenous theologies are analysed in this book as case studies This second kind postcolonial in its character is characterized by collaboration rather than antagonistic binarism In spite of much dissimilarity between these two kinds of resistance the book argues that they are similarly anti colonialist and both can be equally valid in resisting colonial forces Given that the binarism and antagonism imbedded in the Asian theological movement are historically contingent and that the sole reliance on this resistance has made the movement self ensnaring the book suggests that the Asian theological movement widen its choice of colonial resistant strategies Drawing attention to the otherwise subtle politics of the Asian theological indigenization discourse this book addresses the relationship between postcolonialism and Asia contextual theology and is of interest to students and scholars of Asian Religion and Philosophy

Embodied Cross Arata Miyamoto, 2010-07-01 The cross carries the polar memories of history One memory is the terrible violence imposed on Jesus and the other is the memory of faith in the midst of the deepest abyss in human history A theology of the cross contextualizes the dangerous combination of these memories in the present reality of life and death A theology of the cross is thoroughly preoccupied with the agency of God but not in a way that deals with the systematic apologetics of the knowledge of God It deals with the knowledge of God before it becomes knowledge It is the matter of the living and dying of our life This book explores theologians of the cross in a global flow and proposes an intercontextual perspective of theology

Handbook of Theological Education in World Christianity Dietrich Werner, David Esterline, Namsoon Kang, Joshva Raja, 2010-11-19 The Handbook of Theological Education in World Christianity is the first attempt to map and analyze developments in theological education on a global scale This volume with contributions from 98 leaders in theological education from around the world provides a comprehensive introduction to the major themes and contexts in the international discourse on theological

Theological Aesthetics after von Balthasar Dr James Fodor, Dr Oleg V Bychkov, 2013-05-28 This collection of essays by distinguished authors explores the present day field of theological aesthetics from von Balthasar s contribution and parallel developments to correctives and alternatives to his approach A tribute to von Balthasar s own project expands into a dialogue with ancient and medieval traditions in search of revelatory aesthetics The contributors outline challenges to his approach including Protestant perspectives and introduce new ways of viewing the field of theological aesthetics which ultimately opens up to the idea of concrete cultural contexts and practical human needs determining the use of the arts and aesthetic sensibilities in theology
