God in the Hands of Angry Sinners Wm. G. Justice,William G. Justice,2004-06-01 God in the Hands of Angry Sinners is the outgrowth of forty five years of ministry to men and women suffering from loss Some had lost their health others their wealth and others had lost a significant relationship by death or interpersonal conflict Amidst their pain many had become bitter and angry In a kangaroo court people demand Why God Intelligent minds seek answers to mysteries in their lives Is it OK even to ask Why Behind the inquiry is usually an assumption that God is the cause When the question is simply a search for truth someone or something other than God may be found as the cause. Some may have to accept responsibility for their own pain. Under question when God seems to open not His mouth. He is judged guilty of having been the cause of the pain. An inner judge screams. He did it. Make Him pay. In a real sense people take God in hand and try to retaliate. In the process they harm themselves and others. This work explores the reasons, the responses, and the cure for the disease of anger against the Almighty.
