God in the Shadows hidden from view hidden from the casual observer findable only by those whose hearts burn for Him He is tucked away in the clutter of our circumstances He whispers to us out of the overcasting details of everyday life as well as from the midst of those overwhelming crises that arise from time to time In each and out of each is the calling fragrance that there is more there is more here than what my senses can see He draws me us to come closer to come where He resides And as I approach nearer and nearer His shadow covers me the brilliance of His person overwhelms me and I see Him for who He is I am humbled by how little I know Him My Lord and my God I hardly know You God is lurking in the midst of life speaking to us in every possible situation and circumstance and He desires that we KNOW Him above all things We seem to think that He is primarily concerned in what we DO when He is most concerned in our KNOWING Him This short book has only one purpose and that is to provoke us to draw nearer to God with the eternal promise that He will in response draw nearer to us I pray you get that Above all else I pray you get that living God is to be in every part and aspect of life and this book relates stories of life's joys, sorrows, heartrending trials, triumphs and special times with God as well as the mundane and the funny happenings of living. There are also poems of God's hand in nature outside the author's backdoor. To proclaim God, you must also live God. This book presents not only His Word but also how His Word can be applied to real life situations and God's faithfulness throughout generations.

The World in the Shadow of God Ephraim Radner, 2010-06-01. In The World in the Shadow of God, Ephraim Radner argues for a vigorous Christian natural theology and insists that such a theology must of necessity be performed poetically. The peculiar character of such a theology is found in its disclosing of the natural limits that indicate indirectly the impinging and more fundamental reality of the divine life. Natural theology represents the encounter between created reality and the shadow of God's creative and revelatory grace. However, the encounter is a morally demanding task for the Christian church if it is to be held accountable to the truth on which its life is based. The first portion of the book offers an extended critical essay on the nature of this sort of natural theology while the second provides a developed set of examples through poems that display the natural world in light of the truths articulated in the Apostles' Creed. Those interested in the intersection of theology, literature, history and the natural world will be challenged by this attempt to renew a basic element of Christian knowledge and culture.

In God's Shadow Ann Conrad Lammers, 1994. For years, world-famous psychologist C. G. Jung and British theologian Victor Whitehead, author of God and the Unconscious, engaged in a lively correspondence. Now Anne Conrad Lammers examines the highly illuminating friendship and dialogue between these two men, providing particularly valuable insights into Jung's attitude toward theology.

In God's Shadow Michael Walzer, 2012-05-29. Examines the laws, histories, prophecies and wisdom of the ancient biblical writers and discusses their views on justice, hierarchy, war, the authority of kings and priests, and the experience of exile.

Resting in God's Shadow Jeffrey Lynn Brooks, 2021-02-06. Boot Camp: The starting point for everyone who joins the military. No one who signs up expects it to be easy. It's not supposed to be. But everyone at some point during boot camp comes to the end of their own strength. It is at that point where a little encouragement makes all the difference. Resting in God's Shadow offers encouragement specifically written for those in this especially challenging period of the military. Chaplain Major Jeffrey L. Brooks, U.S. Army Retired, knows what he's talking about with 22 years of active military service. During that time, he served as chaplain at Fort Leonard Wood, Missouri, encouraging the men and women in boot camp to never give up on themselves or their dreams, keep a positive mental attitude, and give it their best. Since then, he's had a passion to write these encouragements into a book. This book is a collection of twelve devotionals followed by a prayer book with spaces to record your thoughts. The devotionals in Part One correspond with the prayer book in Part Two. Concise and focused devotions fit into even the most rigorous training schedule. Whether you're active in the military or have a loved one headed to boot camp, this devotional is sure to provide just the right words of encouragement and Scripture.
