Christology in Dialogue with Muslims I. Mark Beaumont, 2011-09-01 This book analyzes Christian presentations of Christ for Muslims in the most creative period of Christian Muslim dialogue the first half of the ninth and the second half of the twentieth century In these two historical moments Christians made a serious effort to present their faith in Christ in terms that take into account Muslim perceptions of him with a view to bridging the gap between Muslim and Christian convictions produced by Muslim rejection of Christ's divine sonship and the death of Christ by crucifixion A comparative study is made of the contributions of three apologists from the early ninth century Abu Qurra Abu Ra'ita and Ammar al Basri and three twentieth century apologists Kenneth Cragg John Hick and Hans Kung in order to seek a model for dialogue on Christology between Christians and Muslims in the twenty first century The Way of Righteousness Paul D. Christian Identity amid Islam in Medieval Spain Charles L. Tieszen, 2013-05-30 In Christian Identity amid Islam in Medieval Spain Charles L Tieszen explores a small corpus of texts from medieval Spain in an effort to deduce how their authors defined their religious identity in light of Islam and in turn how they hoped their readers would distinguish themselves from the Muslims in their midst It is argued that the use of reflected self image as a tool for interpreting Christian anti Muslim polemic allows such texts to be read for the self image of their authors instead of the image of just those they attacked As such polemic becomes a set of borders authors offered to their communities helping them to successfully navigate inter religious living
