God Reigns In China:

God Reigns in China Leslie Theodore Lyall, 1985 Fujian Paul Hattaway, 2025-03-31 Many people are aware of the extraordinary explosion of Christianity throughout China in recent decades but few know how it has occurred In The China Chronicles Paul Hattaway draws on 35 years of experience in China and numerous first hand interviews with church leaders to provide insight into how the Living God has brought about the largest revival in the history of Christianity Presented in a style that is exciting relevant and transformative Hattaway documents the acts of the Holy Spirit throughout China preferring to focus on the wonderful things God has done for men rather than on what men have done for God Fujian a province in southeast China with more than 40 million people was considered an obscure region in the past but the gospel has blazed such a pathway that by the 1920s Fujian contained more Christians than any other province of China The home of key Chinese church leaders including John Sung Watchman Nee and Leland Wang the church in Fujian has impacted millions of people in Southeast Asia and throughout the world Shaanxi Paul Hattaway, 2025-03-31 This book is the seventh in Paul Hattaway's series The China Chronicles In the series he draws on more than thirty five years of experience in China and numerous interviews with church leaders to provide insight into the extraordinary explosion of Christianity throughout China in recent decades the largest revival in the history of Christianity Shaanxi is the cradle of Chinese civilization where the compass paper printing and gunpowder were invented It was the southern terminus of the ancient Silk Road and the first place in China to receive the gospel Hattaway shows that Christians were in China centuries before the assumed earliest date of AD 635 During the missionary era there was slow growth but today Shaanxi is home to more than three million followers of Christ As storm clouds of persecution gather worldwide believers can find encouragement in these bold testimonies of standing up for Christ in the face of severe hardship Hattaway here delights in the wonderful things God has done for often unlikely people and the dedication that flowed from their transformed lives Handbook on Religion in China Stephan Feuchtwang, 2020-02-28 Informative and eye opening the Handbook on Religion in China provides a uniquely broad insight into the contemporary Chinese variations of Buddhism Islam and Christianity In turn China's own religions and transmissions of rites and systems of divination have spread beyond China a progression that is explored in detail across 19 chapters written by leading experts in the field China's Millions, 1875 Zhejiang Paul Hattaway, 2025-01-14 Zhejiang a prosperous eastern province is home to the highest percentage of Christians in China This volume describes how God established His kingdom there The region contains so many churches that it has earned the nickname the Jerusalem of China The Church in Zhejiang made great sacrifices during the Cultural Revolution From just one city 48 church leaders died for their faith The Communists earmarked Zhejiang as a religion free zone yet Jesus Christ is worshipped today by more than thirteen million people throughout the province This is the third volume in The China Chronicles which tells the modern history of the Church in China The series is designed to inform the wider world of the astonishing work of the Holy Spirit in the world's most populous country The Changing Role of the British Protestant Missionaries in China, 1945-1952 Oi Ki Ling, 1999 This book focuses on the British Protestant missionaries in China in the period from 1945 to 1952 It captures the complexity and contradictions between the missionaries own perception of their role and Chinese reality It also examines the missionaries perception of the nature of Communism and their evaluation of the future prospects under Communist rule This study offers a stimulating reflection on the missionaries strategies for propagating the Christian faith their priorities and theological as well as cultural assumptions with regard to mission and politics mission and culture and mission church relations during the transition from Guomindang to Communist rule In general terms it provides an insight into the idealism and frustrations of missionaries as they wrestled with the changing political context in China Henan Paul Hattaway, 2025-03-31 In The China Chronicles Paul Hattaway draws on more than 30 years experience in China and numerous interviews with church leaders to provide insight into how the Living God brought about the largest revival in the history of Christianity With more than 18 million believers the largest number in any province in China Henan has emerged as the Christian heart and soul of the world's most populated country In this book the fifth in the series Hattaway records the many attempts to reach the people of Henan with the gospel Hainan Paul Hattaway, 2025-03-31 This book is the eighth in Paul Hattaway's series The China Chronicles In the series he draws on more than thirty five years of experience in China and numerous interviews with church leaders to provide insight into the extraordinary explosion of Christianity throughout China in recent decades the largest revival in the history of Christianity The southernmost Chinese province of Hainan was once nicknamed the gateway to hell because of its harsh disease ridden climate God has transformed the island with a powerful revival that began in the 1990s which has swept hundreds of thousands of people into the kingdom of God Driven Out Jean Pfaelzer, 2008-08 This sweeping and groundbreaking work presents the shocking and violent history of ethnic cleansing against Chinese Americans from the Gold Rush era to the turn of the century China's Christianity, 2017-04-24 Among the assumptions interrogated in this volume edited by Anthony E Clark is if Christianity should most accurately be identified as Chinese when it displays vestiges of Chinese cultural aesthetics or whether Chinese Christianity is more indigenous when it is allowed to form its own theological framework In other words can theological uniqueness also function as a legitimate Chinese Christian cultural expression in the formation of its own ecclesial identity Also central to what is explored in this book is how missionary influences consciously or unconsciously introduced seeds of independence into the cultural ethos of China's Christian community Chinese girls who pushed the limits of proper behaviour for example added to the larger sense of confidence as China's Christians began to resist the model of Christianity they had inherited from foreign missionaries Contributors are Robert E Carbonneau CP Christie Chui Shan Chow Amanda C R Clark Lydia Gerber Joseph W Ho Joseph Tse hei Lee Audrey Seah Jean Paul Wiest and Xiaoxin Wu What Has Jerusalem to Do with Beijing? K. K. Yeo, 2018-08-24 The rise of China as a superpower and of Chinese Christians as vital members of the global church mean that world Christianity would be a dynamic transformation and bountiful blessing to the world by engaging with Chinese biblical interpretations among global theologies This book a twentieth anniversary revised and expanded edition includes studies that range from exploration of the philosophical structure of Eastern culture to present day sociopolitical realities in Malaysia and China all in support of cross cultural methods of reading the Bible culturally and reading the cultures biblically Shandong Paul Hattaway,2025-01-14 Many have heard of the extraordinary explosion of Christianity throughout China in recent decades Few however know how it occurred Paul Hattaway draws on thirty years experience in China and numerous interviews with church leaders to provide insights into how the living God brought about the largest revival in the history of Christianity In a narrative full of jaw dropping stories The China Chronicles documents the acts of the Holy Spirit throughout China where phenomenal growth has occurred in the furnace of intense persecution Hattaway starts his account with Shandong Province which is home to almost one hundred million people On multiple occasions God has revived his Church in Shandong by pouring out his Spirit with great power and grace As a result Shandong today could be rightfully called China s Revival Province Christian Advocate and Journal and Zion's Herald ,1901 The Christian Advocate ,1901 The Renewal of All Things Waldron Byron Scott,2009-09-01 Universal Salvation is a hotly debated doctrine today among Christians In The Renewal of All Things Waldron Scott argues that it provides a more relevant and more effective basis for Christian mission in a globalized pluralistic and postmodern world than does the contemporary model A Protestant Church in Communist China John Craig William Keating,2012-02-16 Freedom of religious belief is guaranteed under the constitution of the People s Republic of China but the degree to which this freedom is able to be exercised remains a highly controversial issue Much scholarly attention has been given to persecuted underground groups such as Falun but one area that remains largely unexplored is the relationship between officially registered churches and the communist government This study investigates the history of one such official church Moore Memorial Church in Shanghai This church was founded by American Methodist missionaries By the time of the 1949 revolution it was the largest Protestant church in East Asia running seven day a week programs As a case study of one individual church operating from an historical rather than theological perspective this study examines the experience of people at this church against the backdrop of the turbulent politics of the Mao and Deng eras It asks and seeks to answer questions such as were the people at the church pleased to see the foreign missionaries leave Were people forced to sign the so called Christian manifesto Once the church doors were closed in 1966 did worshipers go underground Why was this particular church especially chosen to be the first re opened in Shanghai in 1979 What explanations are there for its phenomenal growth since then A considerable proportion of the data for this study is drawn from Chinese language sources including interviews personal correspondence statistics internal church documents and archives many of which have never previously been published or accessed by foreign researchers The main focus of this study is on the period from 1949 to 1989 a period in which the church experienced many ups and downs restrictions and limitations The Mao era in particular remains one of the least understood and seldom written about periods in the history of Christianity in China This study therefore makes a significant contribution to our evolving understanding of the delicate balancing act between compromise co operation and compliance that categorizes church state relations in modern China

The Church in China Michael D. Suman,2006 This book addresses the emergence and development of the Chinese church as the body of Christ in China through the historical and sociopolitical context of that nation The focus on the last half of the 20th century is supported by a concise overview of the political history of China from its dynastic era and international influence on its church history

Xinjiang Paul Hattaway,2025-03-31 In The China Chronicles Paul Hattaway draws on more than 30 years experience in China and numerous interviews with church leaders to provide insight into how the Living God brought about the largest revival in the history of Christianity Xinjiang a vast region in northwest China has been much in the news in recent years because of the plight of more than one million Muslim Uyghur people there But Xinjiang also has a long Christian history Today there are nearly one million believers mostly among the Han Chinese who have migrated into the region in recent decades In this book the sixth in the series Hattaway focuses on the heroic efforts to reach the Uyghurs and other Muslim groups who remain largely untouched by the gospel

Following Christ and Confucius Christopher Payk,2024-03-15 The first full length critical biography and theological analysis of Wang Mingdao the spiritual father of China s House Church Movement One of the most influential figures in Chinese Christianity church leader and evangelist Wang Mingdao rejected state control of religion in favor of the religious freedom of the unregistered House Churches a choice that made him a frequent target of government persecution In this thorough new biography scholar Christopher Payk traces Wang s life and Christian development through the sociopolitical tumult of twentieth century China Drawing on unpublished sermons journals and additional sources in English and Chinese Payk argues persuasively that Wang s theology while largely based on Christian scripture was shaped by Confucian tradition reason and personal experience Following Christ and Confucius brings new clarity to Wang s uncompromising faith and lasting impact
