American Monroe S. Paige Baty, 1995-08-15 A highly original work that is extremely important to the study of both culture and politics Demonstrating how the cultural icon of Marilyn Monroe provides the body politic in American mass mediated society Baty not only offers a provocative reading of the iconographic biographic cartographic and hagiographic modes in which Marilyn has been written by others but also gives us a novel theorization of how popular culture translates transforms and embodies the political sphere Vivian Sobchack author of The Address of the Eye Reborn on coffee cups T shirts and film footage in conspiracy theory biography and necrophilia the remembered fragments of Marilyn Monroe so Paige Baty shows make up cult objects of our imagined community American Monroe is endlessly revelatory not only about the meanings of Marilyn but also about the nature of the common culture of the United States Mike Rogin author of Ronald Reagan The Movie In this original imaginative and innovative book Paige Baty asks and answers important questions about U S political culture by examining many mass mediated memories of Marilyn Monroe Baty uses our continuing national obsession with Monroe s life and death as a means of exploring the ways in which languages of belonging dominate our mass mediated political landscape She explores how iconic representations personal biographies conspiracy theories and anxieties about death shape the symbolic economy of American politics into what she calls the post mortem condition This important inquiry about collective memory mass media and political culture starts with the life and the mass mediated memory of one celebrity but it builds into a fascinating and persuasive general discussion about the nature of knowledge and the social production of the individual self in a world where mass mediated images and icons form the core of our collective consciousness George Lipsitz author of Dangerous Crossroads Popular Music Postmodernism and the Poetics of Place If U S culture cannot forget Marilyn Monroe readers of American Monroe will not be able to forget Professor Baty s elegant and provocative arguments Elvis Presley and Marilyn Monroe are both representative figures in U S cultural politics While his death is repetitively denied Elvis s living clones endlessly populate hotel conventions and tabloids But it is Marilyn s dissected body and haunting story of suicide that proliferate in the undead spaces of U S mass mediated culture In American Monroe Baty writes a haunting kind of political holds a secret vital to mankind's survival on Roshar. The Parshendi take a dangerous step to strengthen themselves for the human challenge, risking the return of the fearsome Voidbringers of old. To deal with it all, Kaladin must learn how to fulfill his new role as leader of the restored Knights Radiant while mastering the powers of a Windrunner. With this second book, the Stormlight Archive grows even more richly immersive and compelling. Sanderson's fans old and new are likely to lift it at least as high on the bestseller lists as its predecessor.

The Flight of Events German ARCE ROSS, 2024-05-31

The Flight of Events the second book of a Psychopathology of Melancholia Series after Manie m lancolie et facteurs blancs Beauchesne Paris 2009 is a work on altruistic anguishes in manic depressive suicides. In this book German Arce Ross has chosen to focus on the psychological processes that occur prior to the act of suicide rather than on the act itself. We can detect these processes in a subject during the period between the decision to commit suicide and the passage to the act. In the consideration of certain moments preceding a suicidal or criminal act in the case of critical episodes that are non-delusional, non-hallucinated and non-acted but sometimes assimilated to psychotic or twilight moments where we locate in particular a discontinuity or a radical rupture, albeit momentary with the Other, we can observe that there are things, facts or events that happen to the subject without any form of control over them whatsoever. In these uncontrolled intersubjective events, what the subject suffers from is a tendency to undergo the acts that he himself makes others perform. During this flight of events, it is not entirely true that the subject flees the events of his life; it is rather the events that flee.

Matrix for Assassination Richard Gilbride, 2009

A phantom haunts America: the ghost of Dealey Plaza where President John F. Kennedy was shot on November 22, 1963. In Matrix for Assassination, author Richard Gilbride, a schoolboy in 1963 who became fascinated with the facts, condenses much of the research conducted in recent years after a mountain of new data became available from classified files with the passing of the John F. Kennedy Assassination Records Collection Act of 1992. Matrix for Assassination names the names. It offers simple and defensible solutions to many of the crime's lasting enigmas: Who were the shooters? Who forced Ruby to kill Oswald? Who orchestrated Kennedy's autopsy cover-up? What actually happened in the book depository? Were the Dallas police in on the plot? The Pentagon, LBJ, The CIA. Thoroughly referenced with 300 accompanying photographs, Matrix for Assassination is bookended by two events which draw it through the tabloids and into the X-Files: Marilyn Monroe's strange death and JFK's clash with an above-top-secret UFO cabal. Her murder was a prelude to Dallas at the heart of the military-industrial complex, dwelt a sinister darkness that originated in Nazi Germany.

Conspiracy in Camelot Jerome A. Kroth, 2003

This complete and up-to-date synopsis of the assassination of JFK, the actors, witnesses, and investigators weighs the different theories and looks at the drama as both a detective story and a defining moment in American mass psychology.

Ask Not Maureen Callahan, 2024-07-02

From New York Times bestseller Maureen Callahan, a harrowing incendiary exposé of the real Kennedy Curse: the family's generations-long legacy of misogyny, murder, and mayhem. Karen Abbott, The must-read book of the summer. Megyn Kelly: The Kennedy name has long been synonymous with wealth, power, glamor, and above all else integrity But this carefully constructed veneer hides a dark truth the pattern of Kennedy men physically and psychologically abusing women and girls leaving a trail of ruin and death in each generation's wake Through decades of scandal after scandal from sexual assaults to reputational slander suicides to manslaughter the family and their defenders have kept the Kennedy brand intact Now in Ask Not bestselling author and journalist Maureen Callahan reveals the Kennedys' hidden history of violence and exploitation laying bare their unrepentant sexism and rampant depravity while also restoring these women and girls to their rightful place at the center of the dynasty's story from Jacqueline Onassis and Marilyn Monroe to Carolyn Bessette Martha Moxley Mary Jo Kopechne Rosemary Kennedy and many others whose names aren't nearly as well known but should be Drawing on years of explosive reportage and written in electric prose Ask Not is a long overdue reckoning with this fabled family and a consequential part of American history that is still very much with us At long last Callahan redirects the spotlight to the women in the Kennedys' orbit paying homage to those who freed themselves and giving voice to those who through no fault of their own could not One of Town Country's Must Read Books of Summer 2024

The Extension of Life R. A. York, 2003 Studies ten American novels from the later twentieth century in the light of theories of narration and of the recent debate on the nature of fiction After an introduction to the theoretical background it analyzes works by Malamud Bellow Capote Barth Doctorow Morrison Oates Ford Smiley and Kingsolver emphasizing the complementary tendencies in American fiction to documentation of historical conditions and to the free play of the creative writer to factual record and to self-conscious fabulation It argues that the tension between these two tendencies expresses an acute concern with the limitations of modern life with the writer's drive to constitute a realm of freedom and with the challenges of reconciling the two
