Goddess Obscured Pamela C. Berger,1988-02-29 Recounts the story of the grain protectress an image that has persisted from the ancient Near East to the classical world and still survives in folksongs and village celebrations today

The Goddess Obscured Pamela C. Berger,1985 The Virgin Mary in the Perceptions of Women Joelle Mellon,2016-04-21 Once the Virgin Mary was a pivotal element of Christianity a holy figure at the heart of most Christians spiritual lives She was invoked at all major life passages baptisms weddings childbirths and funerals and images of the Virgin Mary could be found virtually anywhere from pub signs to sacred texts Medieval women especially looked to Mary to answer their prayers be their role model and serve as their advocate in heaven They prayed to her several times a day and sometimes devoted their entire lives to her service This book investigates perceptions of the Virgin Mary through several centuries of literature Focusing especially on the depictions of the Virgin Mary in medieval and Renaissance manuscripts the author rediscovers a time when the Divine Female was very much in evidence and good Christian women were taught to pray to a Holy Mother Topics include the cyclical popularity of Virgin Mary devotional objects such as Books of Hours rosaries and Marian gardens the mystical qualities attributed to the Virgin Mary through centuries of reported divine visions the historical relationships between the Virgin Mary and other religious figures including the Devil and Mary Magdalene as an alternative to the Virgin Mary as a feminine model Dark Mother Lucia Chiavola Birnbaum,2001 Bringing a feminist perspective to contemporary findings of geneticists and archeologists Lucia Chiavola Birnbaum cultural historian points out that the oldest veneration we know is of a dark mother of central and south Africa whose signs ochre red and the pubic V were taken by african migrants after 50 000 BCE to caves and cliffs of all continents The oldest sanctuary in the world was created in 40 000 BCE by african migrants in Har Karkom later called Mt Sinai foundation place of judaism christianity and islam Lucia documents the continuing memory of the dark mother and her values in prehistoric images of the dark mother in historic black madonnas and in other dark women divinities whose sanctuaries are on african paths She tracks the memory in rituals and stories of her sicilian grandmothers in persecution of dark others in patriarchal Europe and the United States in the rise of nonviolent dark others since the 1960s in the banners of the 1995 world conference of women at Beijing and in art She finds the dark mother s values justice with compassion equality and transformation in everyday and celebratory rituals of the world s subaltern cultures and suggests that the image and values are in the submerged memories of everyone

Shâmaran Dilsa Deniz,2024-04-30 Sh maran The Neolithic Eternal Mother Love and the Kurds covers one of the earliest ancient figures of Mother Earth Sh maran of the Zagros Mountains which is at the crossroads of Iran Anatolia and Mesopotamia and has historically been a melting pot of diverse groups contributing to the formation of the Kurdish nation This unique convergence has played a pivotal role in shaping the rich history culture language and the very essence of their homeland Kurdistan Sh maran is the significant religiocultural symbol serving as a poignant embodiment of this heritage The

Mindfulness Winnie Tamm, 2010-10-30 I see spirituality and social change to be integrally related to each other I believe that liberation efforts that are supported by spiritual experiences of integration promote human dignity as well as social equality Bodied Mindfulness combines spiritual social and analytical perspectives to explore topics central to women's development spirituality women's bodies cultural constructions of women's sexuality in language sexual ethics the sexual contract in politics and at work and the relation between nature and culture It is Tamm's deeply held conviction that women need to bring a vital spirituality to feminist social criticism in order to resolve these issues and increase their power to promote social justice and ecological balance Tamm embraces a vast store of knowledge from diverse sources including Buddhist shamanist and feminist resources In a move away from abstract theorizing she explicitly connects theory with realities lived by women Grounding theory in personal experience her own and others Tamm delivers a powerful and empowering account of women's spirituality The resulting ontological transformation allows women to live deeply in the body while strengthening their relation to human and non human matter and energy Bodied Mindfulness will be of great interest to feminist scholars in all disciplines but most particularly to those in Women's Studies and Religious Studies Holy Dogs and Asses Laura Hobgood-Oster, 2008 Recognizing animals in the Christian tradition Finding the Virgin Mary Judith M. Davis, 2024-12-18 Stories about the Virgin Mary began to appear in the second century a spring of tradition that branched off from the mainstream teaching of the canonical gospels This developed into a torrent of texts about Mary her relationship with God and her motherhood This book translates and interprets such stories about Mary from the beginnings of Christianity to modern times The narrative or story theology of these works shows her to be a partner with her son Jesus in the work of salvation Early stories depict Mary as chosen from childhood and she is shown at the Last Supper with other women Medieval tales recount the miracles she works to cure both physical and moral failings Stories of her appearances Our Lady of Guadalupe Mexico Our Lady of Lourdes France and Our Lady of Fatima Portugal have been told and retold across the centuries Today Mary is still seen as an icon of women's agency celebrated in song film and art of every kind This book uncovers her history and reveals her power through the life and message of this woman of faith People-Plant Relationships Raymond P Poincelot, Joel Flagler, 2018-05-04 Presenting the latest research on cross cultural people plant relationships this volume conveys the psychological physiological and social responses to plants and the significant role these responses play in improved physical and mental health With chapters written by field experts it identifies research priorities and methodologies and outlines the steps for developing a research agenda to aid horticulturalists in their work with social scientists to gain a better understanding of people plant relationships This resource covers a wide array of topics including home horticulture and Lyme disease indoor plants and pollution reduction and plants and therapy Equally in God's Image Julia Bolton Holloway, Constance S. Wright, Joan Bechtold, 1990 Equally in God's Image Women in the Middle Ages is a volume of essays presenting the argument that with the coming of the universities women were excluded in an apartheid of gender from education and power It discusses the resulting paradigm shift from Romanesque to Gothic describing the images which women had of themselves and which the dominant male society had of them We meet in the pages of this book medieval women in their roles as writers pilgrims wives anchoresses and nuns at court on pilgrimage in households and convents The volume as a Distant Mirror for ourselves today seeks to present ways in which women then fulfilled the roles society expected of them and the ways in which they also subverted through entering into textuality the expectations of the dominating culture in order to quest identity and equality

In Nature's Honor Patricia Montley, 2005 In Nature's Honor explores the eight solar holidays that mark the turning of the Wheel of the Year Each chapter begins with a history of the holiday the ways in which it has been celebrated from ancient to modern times its relationship to other religious and secular celebrations and its cultural and mythological foundations This history is followed by recommendations for specific activities to celebrate the season that individuals families or small groups can enjoy The chapters conclude with formal rituals suitable for use in larger faith communities These include scripted narration songs dramatic enactments litanies of seasonal blessings readings from poetry and mythology and suggestions for ceremonial food In Nature's Honor reconnects the modern spiritual seeker with the earth centered practices of our ancestors This work explores the seasonal rituals that celebrate the earth and our connection to it which is not just physical but profoundly spiritual

FROM THE AUTHOR From the Author In writing this book I discovered the most important theme running through the history of rituals related to the earth's seasons is renewal The wheel turns and the old season gives way to the new the old year to the new the old life to the new Each planting of seeds promises new possibilities Each harvest brings sustenance for yet another year Each fallow time regenerates the life of the soil The sun deities retreat and return The grain goddesses are lost and restored The vegetation gods die and rise again The cycle of life goes on and on birth after death after birth Perhaps what all the rituals celebrate is this ongoingness of life the miraculous natural world that makes it possible and our abiding connection to it For the ancients the interdependence was clear When the people fasted on the eve of a new season's beginning they purified not just their own bodies but the land itself The fires that encouraged the fecundity of the land also made its people fertile For us moderns distanced from the earth by technology the interdependence is not as clear And we are paying the price in polluted air and water in soil erosion in deforestation in global warming How different the condition of the planet might be if we allowed ourselves to be renewed at each turning of the wheel of the year if we took the time periodically to celebrate the beauty and bounty of nature

This Giving Birth Julie Ann Tharp, Susan MacCallum-Whitcomb, 2000 Compelling essays which underline the central place pregnancy and childbirth hold in women's writing Embracing three centuries of prose and poetry the anthology traces the evolution of American maternity literature exploring the difficulties mothers faced as they struggled to transform themselves from objects into maternal subjects Women as diverse as Anne Bradstreet Anne Sexton Sharon Olds Kate Chopin Toni Morrison and Louise Erdrich all labored to reclaim the birthing process by giving voice to experiences and emotions long devalued by a patriarchal culture Their voices resonate throughout this collection

Gender and Text in the Later Middle Ages Jane Chance, 2019-11-07 A volume of the first importance to the scholarship of medieval women writers An ambitious attempt to understand what gender and text might have meant in the Middle Ages from the perspective of the woman writer and reader rather than through the more usual androcentric lens The collection brings together for the first time in one place essays about a whole range of women writers from the twelfth to the sixteenth centuries and from places as distant as Spain and Sweden as well as the more well known French and English writers Laurie Finke Kenyon College Brings together under three main categories diverse methodologies from some of the foremost scholars and interpreters of each type of material and approach Nadia Margolis University of Massachusetts Amherst The women who spoke or wrote in the margins of the Middle Ages women who were oppressed and diminished by social and religious institutions often were not literate Or if they could read they did not know how to write Transforming or subverting Western and patristic traditions associated with the clergy they also turned to Eastern and North African traditions and to popular oral theater and focused in their choice of genre on lyric romance and confessional autobiography These essays analyze their texts and reconstruct a medieval feminine aesthetic that begins a rewriting of cultural and literary history Jane Chance is professor of English at Rice University She has written or edited 13 books on Old and Middle English literature mythology medieval women and modern medievalism including Medieval Mythography From Roman North Africa to the School of Chartres A.D. 433-1177 UPF 1994 Woman as Hero in Old English Literature the Mythographic Art Classical Fable and the Rise of the Vernacular in Early France and England UPF 1990 and Christine de Pizan The Letter of Othea to Hector Translated with Introduction and Interpretive Essay She is the editor of the Focus Library of Medieval Women

God Beyond Gender Gail Ramshaw, 1995 The debate about God language has two opposing extremes One side maintains that biblical language and masculine pronouns must be retained The other argues that female imagery for God is preferable Now Gail Ramshaw presents a third position urging the inclusion of many images for God the correction of others and the total avoidance of any pronouns

Ungendering Civilization K. Anne Pyburn, 2004 Nine papers examines a specific body of archaeological data from societies including Minoan Crete ancient Zimbabwe and the Maya in order to discuss the role of women in the evolution of states

Legends in Limestone Linda Seidel, 1999-10-15 Whereas twelfth century pilgrims flocked to the church of St Lazare in Autun to visit the relics of its patron saint present day pilgrims journey there to admire its superb sculpture said to have been created by the artist Gislebertus whose name is inscribed above one of the church doors These two cults of sculptor and of saint form points of departure and arrival for Linda Seidel's study Legends in Limestone reveals how Gislebertus sculptor was discovered and subsequently sanctified over the course of the last century Seidel makes a compelling case for the identification of the name with an ancestor of the local ducal family invoked for his role in the acquisition of the precious relics With the aid of evidence drawn from the richly carved decoration of the building she demonstrates how medieval visitors would have read a different holy narrative in the church fabric one that constructed before their eyes an account of their patron saint's life Legends in Limestone an absorbing study of one of France's most revered medieval monuments provides fresh insights into modern and medieval interpretive practices Blood, Bones and Spirit Heather McDonald, 2012-11-27 In this fascinating and beautifully written book Heather McDonald examines Aboriginal people's experiences of colonialism and post colonialism in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries Blood Bones and Spirit analyses how Aboriginal people have appropriated Biblical stories of land inheritance expansion and loss in order to make sense of their own dispossession It investigates the embodiment of Christianity by Aboriginal people through their appropriation of Christ's body his blood bones and spirit in order to replenish and heal their own colonised bodies Indeed this local study of Christianisation in a small East Kimberley town presents a challenge to the very history and philosophy of Western religion Heather McDonald spreads out before the reader various aspects of Aboriginal Christianity the way Aborigines have assimilated Christian stories to make sense of their history and their relationships with the dominant society their understanding of what it means to be Christian their church activities and their conflicting interpretations of the Christian way of life Aboriginal Christians are repossessing the land and reclaiming a traditional earth bound world immanent spirituality These Aboriginal understandings of colonisation including missionisation and Aboriginal ways of interpreting and understanding Christianity offer a unique contribution to the reconciliation process
