Godhead Thomas Kinsella, 1999 This is a set of poems which meditate on the nature of the Holy Trinity in the modern age Thomas Kinsella's series offers a sustained attempt to come to terms with the self and other divide through a disciplined reflective form of poetry which offers quiet epiphanies Thomas Kinsella Derval Tubridy, 2001 Traces the history of the Peppercanister Press and illuminates the evolving development of Kinsella's ambitious poetic project The poems are discussed chronologically and the clear interpretations are accompanied by drawings and reproductions of covers from the original publications The Sea of Disappointment Andrew Fitzsimons, 2008 Considered to be one of the most inventive of the contemporary Irish poets Thomas Kinsella is credited with bringing modernism to Irish verse Kinsella uses sensitive language to deal with primal aspects of the human experience His early writing Poems 1956 and Another September 1958 established him as a new voice in Irish poetry The peak of Kinsella's success came with the founding of the Peppercanister Press and the publication of Butcher's Dozen in 1972 Despite such early successes however Kinsella seems to have faded into the background of the Irish poetic stage In The Sea of Disappointment Andrew Fitzsimons offers us a chronological journey through the structural and thematic development of Kinsella's poetic writing Fitzsimons demonstrates that Kinsella has had a career that has risen to a high public profile where he followed conventional stanzaic forms to a position where he began to reject inherited forms and thus began a gradual critical disengagement from his work We see in the early chapters that isolation quintessentially part of the modern condition is a theme that is regularly touched upon by the poet and further developed in relation to the Irish condition Disappointment also pervades Kinsella's poetry Although Fitzsimons emphasises the importance of the context of Kinsella's dismal upbringing in 1940s 50s Ireland he avoids reducing his poetry down to a mere response to the poet's social and historical background and thus he manages to maintain a sense of the irreducible integrity of his poetry This well researched and comprehensive book draws on illuminating manuscript sources and previously unpublished material as well as on Kinsella's own assistance Considering Kinsella's work from its beginnings until his most recent publications Fitzsimons shows that his poetry is driven despite the apparent rift between its early and late styles by a consistent impulse and deliberate aesthetic of growth The Sea of Disappointment will offer a fresh insight into the poetic work of one of the most innovative poets of contemporary Ireland Thomas Kinsella Maurice Harmon, 2008 This comprehensive study interprets Thomas Kinsella's extraordinary progress from lyric poems and meditations about fragility and impermanence to complex assessments of individual isolation and helplessness in the modern world His work which has been knitted to Dublin city expresses his engagement with Irish life and culture in Nightwalker Poems from Centre City Personal Places and The Pen Shop His involvement with Irish history evident in his absorption with the past and his creative interpretation of the arrival and settling in of prehistoric people is demonstrated in his extensive translations from Irish literature He is also a universal poet who has explored Jungian archetypes in New Poems psychological stress in the Wormwood sequence and the notion of meaninglessness in Her Vertical Smile and of living on the edge in Marginal Economy In his persistent search for understanding he has examined the effects of evil whether expressed in man's proclivity for destruction the direct concern of Man of War or the reality of death in the elegies for Se n Riada John F Kennedy and his own father Deprived of a community of shared values and the reassurances of philosophy or religion he has conducted a systematic investigation of the question of causality and responsibility in the human and divine spheres whether articulated by artists like Gustav Mahler or Se n Riada or thinkers like St Augustine Eriugena or Aurelius and has verified the role of the artist as measured and exact recorder His poems dramatise issues through narrative elegy allegory and myth and commemorate love ceremony natural beauty and creativity itself Books Ireland ,2001 Irish University Review ,2009 A journal of Irish studies American Book Publishing Record R.R.
