He now contends that if people do not accept God s gifts his grace will turn to wrath The Evil Eye in the Bible and in Rabbinic Literature Rivka Ulmer, 1994 Jewish belief in the power of the evil eye aroused and energized by emotions such as jealousy and mean spiritedness has been a common concern in Jewish life from earliest times The everpresent fear of its malevolent power is expressed by the common Yiddish expression kein ahoro which means literally without an evil eye Kein ahoro is intended to ward off any potential evil eye when one speaks of one s favorable prospects Sephardic Jews have been concerned with it as well and like the Ashkenazim their Jewish ritual life has incorporated ways of protecting against it Dr Ulmer s book examines this idea in its many permutations in Rabbinic literature In particular she examines its origin in people s negative emotions and its effects on its victims in many phases of life in causing death and sickness for example or its role in sexual transgression etc The Angel of Death is depicted as having many eyes and early Jewish mystical literature depicts angels in general as covered with eyes On the other hand the good eye has many positive meanings and these are discussed as well Dr Ulmer s study provides the reader with a complete view of the numerous symbolic meanings which this most important sense organ has been given in Jewish culture Book Jacket Shakespeare and Michelangelo : the Style of

How do we handle all the trouble that life deals us Dedan Kimathi Black is a young educated Nigerian who can be destroyed but he will never be defeated Despised by his society because he doesnt fit in he flees to the West There he is befriended by a kindly priest and falls in love with Ollie a beautiful young nun who leaves the convent to be with him Together they believe they might conquer the world but their idyllic time is shattered when he suddenly loses her to another man Can he forge another brave new world for himself Dedan struggles to accept the cards that life has handed him Will poetry save him Or will Ay ii the mad Arab who takes him on a journey to the spirit world of Lokinanga turn out to be the one to help him find happiness It isnt until he goes to Paris and reconnects with Ollie that Dedan begins to think his life might have purpose after all But then another terrible turn of events leads him into shattering circumstances Can he recover Or will tragedy end up destroying him Philosophical spiritual and touched with tragic romance this is a brave bold work about a life of conflict and a search for fulfillment that will leave every reader the wiser Photography and History in Colonial Southern Africa Lorena Rizzo,2019-09-16

This book studies the relationship between photography and history in colonial Southern Africa using a series of encounters with Southern African photographic archives to reflect on photography as a distinct historical form Through use of private and public archives images produced by African itinerant photographers white settlers and colonial state institutions this book explores the relationship between photography and history in colonial Southern Africa Late nineteenth century Cape Colonial prison albums police photographs from German Southwest Africa African studio portraits identity documents travel permits and passports from the 1920s and 1930s visual studies of whiteness and blackness authored by settler photographers South African dompas photographs from the 1950s and 1960s and aerial photography from the Eastern Cape in the mid twentieth century are examined to highlight the ways in which photographic images cut across conventional institutional boundaries and complicate rigid distinctions between the private and the public the political and the aesthetic the colonial and the vernacular or the subject and the object Photography and History in Colonial Southern Africa argues that rather than understanding photographs as a means of preserving and recreating the past in the present we can value them for how they evoke at once the need for and the limits of historical reconstruction This book will be of interest to students and scholars of colonial history photographic history visual media and African studies
