Foucault, Christianity and Interfaith Dialogue Henrique Pinto, 2020-11-25 Foucault Christianity and Interfaith Dialogue develops a new model for interfaith dialogue using the work of the French historian of ideas Michel Foucault The author argues that it is the injustice done to the Other by Roman Catholic Protestant and other centred and unitary models of religious pluralism that allows the introduction of Foucault's de centring of transcendence and human reason as an alternative model for understanding religious diversity and the role it ought to play in the constitution of the self and the making of society This Foucaultian approach provides a new direction for interfaith dialogue in the modern world and leads to an ethical rather than a nihilistic position while fostering a non unitary theology of religious pluralism and an open textured process of self transformation The author's original and imaginative application and expansion of Foucault's concept of the More from The Archaeology of Knowledge 1969 makes important and original contributions to academic work on Foucault and contemporary theology

Gods in the Global Village Lester Kurtz, 1995-03-06 The multicultural interests of today's diverse student population are reflected in this book which treats classic issues in the sociology of religion in a variety of religious contexts and considers the global interconnections between beliefs and believers Kurtz thus helps students understand the interplay between social change and religion As provocative as it is informative this book will spark discussion and re examination of our conventional understandings of the role of religion in the postmodern and modern world Subject Guide to Books in Print , 1997
