Ernest Alfred Wallis Budge,2016-10-11 Excerpt from The Gods of the Egyptians Vol 1 Or Studies in Egyptian Mythology Hundred gods are mentioned If to these be added the names of all the mythological beings which occur in the various Books of the Underworld we shall find that the number of the gods who were recognized by the theologians of the ninth Dynasty at Thebes was about twelve hundred If all the religious texts of this period from all the religious centres of Egypt were available for study we should certainly find that the names of hundreds of additional local gods goddesses and mythological beings could be collected from them With such a number of gods to consider it was impossible for confusion not to arise in the mind of the Egyptian when dealing with them and the texts prove that he found the gods as difficult to group and classify as the modern investigator The attributes of hundreds of them were vague and shadowy and the greater number of them were merely provincial gods to Whom circumstances had given some transient importance which resulted in their names being recorded in writing In fact the theologian of ancient Egypt found it impossible to form a system of gods which should be consistent in all its parts and should assign to earth gods water gods air gods village gods city gods nome gods national gods and foreign gods the exact position and attributes which were their due in it From one point of view the modern investigator is more fortunate than the Egyptian theologian for he has more materials upon which to work and as a rule he is better equipped for his inquiry The Egyptian knew nothing about the study of comparative religion and he was sadly hampered by his own methods About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more
