Gods Standard For Moral Integrity:

Five Views on Law and Gospel Greg L. Bahnsen, Walter C. Kaiser, Jr., Douglas J. Moo, Wayne G. Strickland, Willem A. VanGemeren, 2010-09-21 An introduction to a complex theological issue that impacts our daily lives as believers in Christ What is the relevance of the Old Testament Law to our understanding of the Gospel and how it should be lived This book explores five major approaches to this important biblical topic as they ve developed in Protestant circles Non Theonomic Reformed View the law is the perfection of righteousness in Jesus Christ Theonomic Reformed View the goodness of the law is dependent on how it s used and does not offer a way to salvation Heavily focused on Paul s discussion of the Law Law as Gracious Guidance View emphasizes the contrasts between the Mosaic law and the Gospel of grace while still asserting the Law s value Dispensational View approaches the Law from a historical perspective to help us understand its presentation treatment and recipients Modified Lutheran View the Law of Christ as the fulfillment of the Law of Moses This book allows each contributor to not only present the case for his view but also to critique and respond to the critiques of the other contributors allowing you to compare their beliefs in an open forum setting to see where they overlap and where they differ The Counterpoints series presents a comparison and critique of scholarly views on topics important to Christians that are both fair minded and respectful of the biblical text Each volume is a one stop reference that allows readers to evaluate the different positions on a specific issue and form their own educated opinion The Evidence for God Paul K.

Moser, 2009-11-30 If God exists where can we find adequate evidence for God s existence In this book Paul Moser offers a perspective on the evidence for God that centers on a morally robust version of theism that is cognitively resilient The resulting evidence for God is not speculative abstract or casual Rather it is morally and existentially challenging to humans as they themselves responsively and willingly become evidence of God s reality in receiving and reflecting God s moral character for others Moser calls this personifying evidence of God because it requires the evidence to be personified in an intentional agent such as a human and thereby to be inherent evidence of an intentional agent Contrasting this approach with skepticism scientific naturalism fideism and natural theology Moser also grapples with the potential problems of divine hiddenness religious diversity and vast evil

The Severity of God Paul K. Moser, 2013-02-14 This book explores the role of divine severity in the character and wisdom of God and the flux and difficulties of human life in relation to divine salvation Much has been written on problems of evil but the matter of divine severity has received relatively little attention Paul K Moser discusses the function of philosophy evidence and miracles in approaching God He argues that if God s aim is to extend without coercion His lasting life to humans then commitment to that goal could manifest itself in making human life severe for the sake of encouraging humans to enter into that cooperative good life In this scenario divine agap is conferred as free gift but the human reception of it includes stress and struggle in the face of conflicting powers and priorities Moser s work will be of great interest to students of the philosophy of religion and theology The Wisdom of the Christian Faith

Paul Moser, Michael McFall, 2012-11-12 Although typically separated philosophy and New Testament theology are mutually beneficial for the understanding of the distinctive wisdom that guides Christian thought and life The Wisdom of the Christian Faith fills a major gap in the literature on the philosophy of religion It is the first book on the philosophy of religion to be authored entirely by philosophers while directly engaging themes of wisdom in the Christian tradition The book consists of all new essays with contributions from John Cottingham Paul Gooch Gordon Graham John Hare Michael T McFall Paul K Moser Andrew Pinsent Robert Roberts Charles Taliaferro William Wainwright Jerry Walls Sylvia Walsh Paul Weithman and Merold Westphal strips away centuries of doctrinal distortion to examine the apostle's inspired writings on their own terms. Rejecting philosophical overlays, speculative systems, and subjective interpretation, this work employs the historical grammatical method to uncover what Paul truly taught about salvation, the law, grace, the resurrection, the Holy Spirit, the human condition, and more. With clarity and conviction, Edward D. Andrews provides a systematic exegetical study that remains rooted in literal Bible chronology, covenant development, and textual precision. Each chapter upholds a high view of Scripture and rejects all modern theological constructs, whether Reformed, charismatic, sacramental, or critical, that obscure Paul's original message. This book is for those who want more than tradition; it's for those who want the truth straight from the text.

Belief and Unbelief since 1850 H. G. Wood, 2014-10-23. Originally published in 1955, this book presents an account of the increasing secularisation of Western culture.

belief and unbelief since 1850 , God's People Count Carl Barrett, 2023-10-17. We are undoubtedly living in a society and culture that is growing stranger by the day, creating more distance between others minute by minute. It seems that people are living in their own little bubbles and silos more than ever, with no interest in connecting with people effectively. And it is evident that the rise of the digital age is affecting people mentally and emotionally, leading to voidness and isolation and a sense of hopelessness and helplessness. Billions of people are connecting with an unproductive device in their hands when it should be the word of God. There is no spiritual value when we allow the things of this world to consume our lives more than God's divine nature. Do we really think anything will improve in our homes, communities, churches, schools, country, and globally if we're not grounded and connected in the Truths of his word? We must realize that connecting with humans physically, emotionally, and spiritually is how God designed us. Just like our Creator wants a relationship with you and me, he wants us to bond with others so they can also see the experience of his abundant blessings and goodness in our lives. We cannot afford to be on the sidelines because it's all about cultivating genuine care for God's creation and putting it into practice for the sake of ourselves and others now more than ever.
