Schwartz,Shimon Gesundheit,2015-01-01 The Biblical View of Man argues cogently that the Bible is more about human beings than about God and insists that in the biblical view what human beings need is not so much wisdom or grace but rather their own free will to fulfill the obligations that a loving God has bestowed upon them in order to allow them to prove and improve themselves According to Rabbi Leo Adler the exercise of such free will rather than implying a lack of need for God actually requires a firm commitment to God First published in German in 1965 this engaging interpretation of the Bible appears in English for the first time An Inquiry Into the Nature, Symptoms, and Effects of Religious Declension

Clark,Marcus Peter Johnson,2021-07-20 This book shows that theology is both integrally related to formation in Jesus Christ and shapes our understanding of the world. Christian formation is incomplete and impossible without theological formation because Christ transforms our hearts and minds attuning them to the reality of God. As the authors explore the deep connections between theology and the life of the Christian, they emphasize Christian formation as a defining feature of the church, arguing that theology must be integrally connected to the church's traditions and practices.
