America's Four Gods Paul Froese,Christopher Bader,2010-10-07 Despite all the hype surrounding the New Atheism the United States remains one of the most religious nations on Earth In fact 95% of Americans believe in God a level of agreement rarely seen in American life The greatest divisions in America are not between atheists and believers or even between people of different faiths What divides us this groundbreaking book shows is how we conceive of God and the role

He plays in our daily lives America's Four Gods draws on the most wide ranging comprehensive and illuminating survey of American's religious beliefs ever conducted to offer a systematic exploration of how Americans view God Paul Froese and Christopher Bader argue that many of America's most intractable social and political divisions emerge from religious convictions that are deeply held but rarely openly discussed Drawing upon original survey data from thousands of Americans and a wealth of in depth interviews from all parts of the country Froese and Bader trace America's cultural and political diversity to its ultimate source differing opinions about God They show that regardless of our religious tradition or lack thereof Americans worship four distinct types of God The Authoritative God who is both engaged in the world and judgmental The Benevolent God who loves and helps us in spite of our failings The Critical God who catalogs our sins but does not punish them at least not in this life and The Distant God who stands apart from the world He created The authors show that these four conceptions of God form the basis of our worldviews and are among the most powerful predictors of how we feel about the most contentious issues in American life Accessible insightful and filled with the voices of ordinary Americans discussing their most personal religious beliefs America's Four Gods provides an invaluable portrait of how we view God and therefore how we view virtually everything else

THINK ON THESE THINGS Terry

Hayward,2015-03-02 People have asked me about how to meditate so I wrote quite extensively about that in my book Coffee with God Then they came to me and asked what they should meditate on and hence this book which gives suggestions for each day of the year I believe that as Christians we should always ground our meditating in the Scriptures and so for all the thoughts I've suggested and all of which are designed to remind us of God's constant Presence with us I have also given a couple of Bible readings relevant to the suggestion There has also been added for each day a place for you to make notes of what appeared to be important in your time with God This can also be used in following years after you finish your meditation to look back on and see if maybe God is saying something new to you through those same readings
