You Are Loved A Heretic's Guide to Eternity Spencer Burke, Barry Taylor, 2007-06-15 Distinguishing between religion and spirituality Burke offers what he calls a new way of looking at God one centered on the idea of grace He emphasizes a God who is looking to save the world not a God who seems more intent on condemning certain practices For Burke God is to be questioned not simply obeyed His challenging thesis will appeal to many people today who have given up on organized religion but still seek some connection to spirituality The Goldenacre Philip Miller, 2022-06-28 A bitter journalist and troubled art expert risk their lives to find the connection between a legendary painting and a series of rash murders in this riveting brutal journey into the high stakes world of legacy art and inherited wealth Denise Mina author of Conviction Thomas Tallis inspector of provenance has just arrived in Edinburgh Scotland to authenticate The Goldenacre a masterpiece by iconic Scottish architect and painter Charles Rennie Mackintosh Still dealing with a miserable divorce and the fallout from a disastrous job in London Tallis is eager to sign off on the painting and leave It should be simple as the painting has been owned by one noble family since the 20s But then a horrifying parcel arrives on Tallis's desk and the threatening message is clear someone doesn't want him inspecting the painting Now that Tallis sees lives are in danger he has no choice but to stay until the investigation is complete Meanwhile gruesome murders are plaguing Edinburgh First a Scottish painter of great renown Next an Edinburgh City Counsellor Battle hardened newspaper reporter Shona Sandison is on the case even as her beloved industry shrinks around her Shona doesn't care who she steps on to get the best story and she soon uncovers a link between The Goldenacre and the murders As Tallis's personal crises reach a fever pitch Shona struggles to enlist his help in understanding how the painting is mixed up in all this violence before either one of them becomes the next victim Pensive lush and tragic The Goldenacre is a heartbroken love letter to Edinburgh and an unpredictable gorgeously plotted mystery to savor Home: The Foundations of Belonging Paul O'Connor, 2017-11-22 Questions of home and belonging have never been more topical Populist politicians in both Europe and America play on anxieties over globalisation by promising to reconstitute the national home through cutting immigration and taking back control Increasing numbers of young people are unable to afford home ownership a trend with implications for the future shape of families and communities The dominant conceptualisations of home in the twentieth century the nation state and the suburban nuclear household are in crisis yet they continue to shape our personal and political aspirations Home The Foundations of Belonging puts these issues into context by drawing on a range of disciplines to offer a deep anthropological and historical perspective on home Beginning with a vision of modernity as characterised by both spiralling liminality and an ongoing quest for belonging it plumbs the archaic roots of Western civilisation and assembles a wide body of comparative anthropological evidence to illuminate the foundations of a sense of home Home is theorised as a stable centre around which we organise both everyday routines and perspectives on reality bringing order to a chaotic world and overcoming liminality Constituted by a set of ongoing processes which concentrate and embody meaning in intimate relationships everyday rituals and familiar places a shared home becomes the foundation for community and society The Foundations of Belonging thus elevates home to the position of a foundational sociological and anthropological concept at a moment when the crisis of globalisation has opened the way to a revaluation of the local

The Good Enough Life Daniel Miller,2023-11-08 This book is a highly original exploration of what life could and should be It juxtaposes a philosophical enquiry into the nature of the good life with an ethnography of people living in a small Irish town Attending carefully to the everyday lives of these people the ethnographic chapters examine topics ranging from freedom and inequality to the creation of community and the purpose of life These chapters alternate with discussions of similar topics by a wide range of philosophers in the Western tradition from Socrates and the Stoics through Kant Hegel and Heidegger to Adorno Rawls MacIntyre and Nussbaum As an ethnography this book reveals just how much we can learn from a respectful acknowledgement of what ordinary modest people have achieved By creating community as a deliberate and social project that provides the foundation for a more fulfilling life where affluence has not led to an increase in individualism the people in this town have found a way to live the good enough life The book also shows how anthropology and philosophy can complement and enrich one another in an enquiry into what we might accomplish in our lives
