Seasons of a Finger Lakes Winery John C. Hartsock, 2011-04-15 In 1998 Gary and Rosemary Barletta purchased seven acres of land on the eastern shore of Cayuga Lake Descending to the west from the state route that runs along on the ridge overlooking the lake the land was fertile rich with shalestone and limestone bedrock and exposed to moderating air currents from the lake It was the perfect place to establish a vineyard and the Barlettas immediately began to plant their vines and build the winery about which they had dreamed for years The Barlettas story as John C Hartsock tells it is a window onto the world of contemporary craft winemaking from the harsh realities of business plans vineyard pests and brutal weather to the excitement of producing the first vintage greeting enthusiastic visitors on a vineyard tour and winning a gold medal from the American Wine Society for a Cabernet Franc Above all Seasons of a Finger Lakes Winery describes the connection forged among the vintner the vine and terroir This ancient bond when tended across the cycle of seasons results in excellent wines and the satisfaction on the part of the winemaker and the wine enthusiast of tasting a perfect harvest in a single glass Today Long Point Winery sits on seventy two acres eight of which are under cultivation with vinifera grapes and produces sixteen varieties of wine a number of which are estate wines made from grapes grown on their property With interest in winemaking continuing to grow the Barlettas experience of making award winning wines offers both practical advice for anyone running or thinking of running their own winery whether in the Finger Lakes or elsewhere as well as insights into the challenges and joys of pursuing a dream Rochester visual language from the sixth to the fourth centuries BC In the Twilight with God Benjamin W. Farley, 2014-11-19

Granted that God may exist how may God be defined in our time Addressing this issue Benjamin Farley explores a variety of belief systems Western and Eastern religious and skeptical Taking an approach that is both critical of religion as well as sympathetic Farley refuses to shy away from hard questions or to dismiss constructive answers that speak to the human condition He distinguishes human intellectual ascent towards God from humankind s innate and inner sense to know and relate to the living God demonstrating the efforts and rewards of both approaches in Christianity as well as in Hinduism Buddhism Taoism and Zen Alongside these more obviously religious approaches Farley reviews the methodologies and findings of today s greatest scientific minds including skeptics such as Hawking Dawkins and Wilson as well as their skeptical forerunners of the past He argues that belief in God can no more ignore the scientific truth about the universe than science can dismiss the spiritual yearnings and hunger of humanity for purpose meaning and its inescapable sense of the presence of God The University Wine Course Marian W.
