Gods Power Jesus Faith And World Mission:

God's Power, Jesus' Faith, and World Mission Steve Mosher, 2019-10-25 In writing to the Roman believers Paul emphasizes God's kingly power at work beginning with Jesus' faith. All who share that faith are to continue his mission. With new servant righteousness and God's power they challenge popular forms of piety that are comfortable with wealth domination and violence. The persecuted mission of Jesus brings together humble believers from diverse cultures under one Lord, the risen Jesus.

The Story of Romans A. Katherine Grieb, 2002-01-01 A. Katherine Grieb insightfully traces the argument of Paul's letter to the Romans and shows how it is grounded in the story of God's faithfulness to Israel. She draws together a number of crucial insights: the narrative character of Paul's thought, the apocalyptic message of his gospel, the depth of his engagement with Israel's Scripture, and the practical and political impact of his theology. She demonstrates the letter's relevance today and invites contemporary readers to locate their own stories within Paul's account of God's righteousness. Informed by recent Pauline scholarship, this book will be useful to scholars, students, and pastors.

The Faithfulness of Jesus the Messiah Walter D. Zorn, 2020-10-26 Strange how one little word, the Greek word pistis, can make a profound difference in understanding the Bible. Pistis is usually translated faith, but in different contexts of the New Testament the word can have several other meanings: such as faithfulness, trustworthiness, solemn promise or oath, proof or pledge, conviction, and doctrine of the Christian faith. This book will challenge the reader's understanding of Paul's expression pistis Christou, faith/faithfulness of Christ, and the use of the pistis word group (verb, noun, and adjective) throughout the New Testament. Given the Old Testament background to this word, one will learn how the apostle Paul utilized an obscure phrase from the prophet Habakkuk to refer to a coming Messiah who, in turn, lived in faithfulness to the Father's will, to die on a cross for the sins of the world. This book will reveal how the gospel is emphasized throughout the New Testament in terms of the faithfulness of Jesus, the Messiah. New and fresh interpretations of various texts will challenge traditional understandings of such texts. When a person comprehends pistis as God's faithfulness and the Messiah's faithfulness, the only human response is pistis itself, meaning faithfulness as described in Hebrews 11: God is faithful and Jesus is faithful. Will he find us faithful?

To the Jew First or to the Jew at Last Antoine XJ Fritz, 2014-09-25 Many missions to the Jewish people, such as Jews for Jesus, use Romans 1:16 as a proof text to encourage the evangelisation of the Jewish people as a priority to the Jew first, and then to the Greek. Jewish Missional Priority: Is this interpretation of the text legitimate? After considering when this priority first appeared, the author exposes and evaluates the arguments commonly used to promote it. His thorough exegesis of Romans 1:16-17 ultimately resolves the question. He takes the opportunity to explore some possible eschatological implications developed from Romans 9:11 and the parables of Jesus. Will the first also be the last?

Blessing the Curse? Ksenija Magda, 2020-09-30 The message of the kingdom of God, as brought to us by Christ, is a message that overturns hierarchies, sets free the enslaved, and breaks the power of the curse upon humanity. Yet when it comes to women, the church has chosen all too often to live according to the structures of sin and death offering them not the good news of Christ but the curse of Genesis as their inheritance In this powerful and challenging text Ksenija Magda traces the impact of the curse and the ever present temptation to choose the world and its power over the servant hearted humility of Christ on our families our church structures our nations and ultimately our gospel witness The question of how we view treat oppress or empower women is not Magda reminds us peripheral to the gospel but foundational She warns that if men and women will not partner together in building the kingdom of God they will find themselves partners in the work of upholding the world's structures of power and oppression Will we choose to bless the curse or to redeem it To live in the death that our foreparents chose in the garden or accept the life and freedom held out to us by Christ This is a question upon which human history and the hope of our restoration hangs

The Household of God Lesslie Newbigin, 2008-12-31 This book discusses the question that the author regards as central in the present ecumenical debate the nature of the Church itself He thus describes the plan of the book The First chapter sketches the present context of the discussion and touches on the Biblical meaning of the word Church The next three chapters examine the three answers to the central question which may be roughly categorized as Protestant Catholic Pentecostal The last two chapters argue that the Church is only to be understood in a perspective that is at once eschatological and missionary the perspective of the ends of the earth Bishop Newbigin's evaluations are provocative scholarly and filled with profound passion and insight He is concerned with the searching questions men today are asking Is there in truth a family of God on earth to which I can belong a place where all men can be truly at home If so where is it to be found and how is it that those who claim to be spokesmen of that holy fellowship are themselves at war with one another as to the fundamentals of its nature I think there is no more urgent theological task than to try to give plain and simple answers This he does drawing deeply upon biblical sources The Cape Town Commitment: A Call to Action LAUSANNE
