The Care of the Self in Early Christian Texts Deborah Niederer Saxon,2017-10-05 This book presents the first three Christian centuries through the lens of what Foucault called the care of the self This lens reveals a rich variation among early Christ movements by illuminating their practices instead of focusing on what we anachronistically assume to have been their beliefs A deep analysis of the discourse of martyrdom demonstrates how writers like Clement Ignatius and Polycarp represented self care Deborah Niederer Saxon brings to light an entire spectrum of alternative views represented in newly discovered texts from Nag Hammadi and elsewhere This insightful analysis has implications for feminist scholarship and exposes the false binary of thinking in terms of orthodoxy versus heresy Gnosticism

God, Sexuality, and the Self Sarah Coakley,2013-08-29 A creative new venture in systematic theology which tackles the intrinsic relation of God and sexuality This Is Our Story Janet Wootton,2013-01-07 The story of women s ministry is longer and far more varied than most people imagine This book tells the story of women s ministry in the Free Churches and looks at its impact on the ways we worship and live out our Christian lives Women have ministered in garrets and gutters at home and on the mission field Today women are fully engaged in ministry within our multicultural society bringing a diversity of voices to match the diversity of the world in which we live Six well known contributors who are themselves involved in the story of women s ministry explore issues of leadership and authority preaching and worship global perspectives the relation to feminist theology and the ecumenical setting Their contributions are complemented by the voice of experience Women from varied backgrounds tell their own stories of being called to a ministry that sometimes doesn t fit of wrestling with the traditions that have nurtured their faith and that can put obstacles in their way Here we see something of the variety and of the rich texture of women s ministries in the contemporary church Some of the women represented here have found their journey to ministry uncomplicated Others have traveled long and painful roads meeting opposition and hostility Many have moved from trying to be one of the boys to the recognition that their gender can have an influence on their ministry The stories interact with the articles bringing many lively and dramatic voices to the telling of our story

Women Officeholders in Early Christianity Ute E. Eisen,2000 Here Ute E Eisen provides a scholarly investigation of the evidence that women held offices of authority in the first centuries of Christianity Topics include apostles prophets

The Gender Conversation Edwina Murphy, David Ian Starling, 2016-05-13 Conversations about gender both inside and outside the church can frequently degenerate into stale and rancorous disputes in which predictable arguments are traded back and forth or fade awkwardly away into the tense silences of mutual misunderstanding But the issue is an important one and calls for a better conversation than either of those alternatives In September 2015 Morling College hosted a one day symposium entitled The Gender Conversation A rich and diverse mix of contributors met to discuss issues of gender theology and Christian living within a shared framework of evangelical conviction Our aim in hosting the symposium was to deepen mutual understanding and respect highlight common ground clarify points of difference and unite us all in a quest to learn from the Scriptures and live in the light of the gospel This book brings together the papers presented at the symposium and the contributors responses to one another as a resource for further reflection and discussion

Women's Socioeconomic Status and Religious Leadership in Asia Minor in the First Two Centuries C.E. Katherine Bain, 2014 Rethinking the socioeconomic status of women in the Roman world Moving beyond discussions of patriarchy and prescribed women s roles in the Roman world discussions that have relied too much on elite literary sources in her view Katherine Bain explores what inscriptional data from Asia Minor can tell us about the actual socioeconomic status of women in the first and second centuries C E Her findings suggest that women s leadership in social associations and by implication in Jewish and Christian congregations as well was even more frequent than has been imagined Book Cover Spirit Wind Peter L. H. Tie,Justin T. T. Tan,2020-12-29 Spirit Wind a collaborative investigation into the works and person of the Holy Spirit clearly and richly demonstrates diversity in theological perspectives but unity in the Christian faith All theological discussions should aim at humbly respecting theological distinctiveness while sincerely encouraging theological conversations Spirit Wind offers itself to achieve just that Spirit Wind consists of nine chapters written by nine Chinese theologians born in the Orient and trained in the West who are now serving passionately as seminary professors in Australia Singapore Taiwan or the United States Each author endeavors to explain the person and works of the Holy Spirit not only from Chinese standpoints but also from biblical historical and cultural pastoral perspectives and yet all chapters are theological in nature No theologian claims to capture all matters about the Spirit but every author of this book is captivated by the powerful presence sovereign freedom and beautiful operations of the Holy Spirit You will be too

Eisen,Heidrun Elisabeth Mader,2021-02-15 Peter Lampe s work has covered a wide range of fields the common denominator being his interest in contextualizing belief systems Mirroring his multifaced work the authors pursue his interest from different interdisciplinary angles addressing the interdependence between religious expressions and their situations or contexts The application of theoretical models to texts examples flanks the inspiring theoretical epistemological and methodological reflections Studies in socio economic and political history adjoin archaeological epigraphic papyrological and iconographic investigations Social psychological interpretations of texts complement rhetorical analyses The hermeneutical reception of biblical materials in for example the Koran and Christian Chinese or Orthodox contexts as well as in religious education and homiletics rounds off the volumes

Found Christianities M. David Litwa, 2022-02-24 M David Litwa tells the stories of the early Christians whose religious identity was either challenged or outright denied In the second century many different groups and sects claimed to be the only Orthodox or authentic version of Christianity and Litwa shows how those groups and figures on the side of developing Christian Orthodoxy often dismissed other versions of Christianity by refusing to call them Christian However the writings and treatises against these groups contain fascinating hints of what they believed and why they called themselves Christian Litwa outlines these different groups and the controversies that surrounded them presenting readers with an overview of the vast tapestry of beliefs that made up second century Christianity By moving beyond notions of gnostic heretical and orthodox Litwa allows these lost Christianities to speak for themselves He also questions the notion of some Christian identities surviving or perishing arguing that all second century Catholic groups look very different to any form of modern Roman Catholicism Litwa shows that countless discourses ideas and practices are continually recycled and adapted throughout time in the building of Christian identities and indeed that the influence of so called lost Christianities can still be felt today The Lost Apostle, Paperback Reprint Rena Pederson, 2008-04-11 In The Lost Apostle award winning journalist Rena Pederson investigates a little known subject in early Christian history the life and times of the female apostle Junia Junia was an early convert and leading missionary whose story was lost when her name was masculinized to Junias in later centuries The Lost Apostle unfolds like a well written detective story presenting Pederson s lively search for insight and information about a woman some say was the first female apostle Jesus Of Asian Women (the) Muriel Orevillo-Montenegro, 2010

Christianity Outside the Box Nigel Scotland, 2012-12-03 A major aspect of the history of Christian missions is the way groups who have jumped the ecclesiastical ship have renewed and recalled their parent bodies back to biblical roots and a biblical vision This book examines fourteen such vibrant Christian movements which operated outside the box Each chapter ends with a practical section highlighting those factors that made the particular group successful They were all missional movements that pursued a Christian vision and developed structures to facilitate it In contrast the traditional organizations from which they emerged tended to do mission from an established given structure Here are seriously committed movements that offer a dynamic challenge to our contemporary churches

A Companion to Second-Century Christian 'Heretics' Antti Marjanen, Petri Luomanen, 2005-07-01 The book illuminates the other side of early Christianity by examining thinkers and movements that were embraced by many second century religious seekers as legitimate forms of Christianity but which are now largely forgotten or are known only from the characteristics attributed to them in the writings of their main adversaries The collection deals with the following teachers and movements Basilides Sethianism Valentinus school Marcion Tatian Bardaisan

Montanists Cerinthus Ebionites Nazarenes Jewish Christianity of the Pseudo Clementines and Elchasites Where appropriate the authors have included an overview of the life and significant publications of the heretics along with a description of their theologies and movements Therefore this volume can serve as a handbook of the second century heretics and their heresies Since all the chapters have been written by specialists who wrestle daily with their research themes the contributions also offer new perspectives and insights stimulating further discussion on this fascinating but often neglected side of early Christianity
