Gods Story And Modern Literature:

God's Story and Modern Literature Carl Ficken,1985 The Literature of Theology David R. Stewart,2003-01-01 This updated reference guide directs students to over five hundred significant theological resources across a wide area of theological research It details bibliographic sources for encyclopedias dictionaries and electronic resources in biblical studies historical studies theology and practical theology Flannery O'Connor R. Neil Scott,2002 Teaching the Bible through Popular Culture and the Arts Mark Roncace,Patrick Gray,2012-11-01 This resource enables biblical studies instructors to facilitate engaging classroom experiences by drawing on the arts and popular culture It offers brief overviews of hundreds of easily accessible examples of art film literature music and other media and outlines strategies for incorporating them effectively and concisely in the classroom Although designed primarily for college and seminary courses on the Bible the ideas can easily be adapted for classes such as Theology and Literature or Religion and Art as well as for nonacademic settings This compilation is an invaluable resource for anyone who teaches the Bible Flannery O'Connor Harold Bloom,Sterling Professor of Humanities Harold Bloom,2009 Presents a collection of critical essays on the works of Flannery O Connor Narrative Theology and Moral Theology Alexander Lucie-Smith,2016-04-15 Moral thinking today finds itself stranded between the particular and the universal Alasdair MacIntyre s work on narrative discussed here along with that of Stanley Hauerwas and H T Engelhardt aims to undo the perceived damage done by the Enlightenment by returning to narrative and abandoning the illusion of a disembodied reason that claims to be able to give a coherent explanation for everything It is precisely this a theory that holds good for all cases that John Rawls proposed drawing on the heritage of Emmanuel Kant Who is right Must universality be abandoned Must we only think about morality in terms that are relative bound by space and time Alexander Lucie Smith attempts to answer these questions by examining the nature of narrative itself as well as the particular narratives of Rawls and St Augustine Bound and rooted as they are in history and personal experience narratives nevertheless strain at the limits imposed on them It is Lucie Smith s contention that each narrative that points to a lived morality exists against the background of an infinite horizon and thus it is that the particular and the rooted can also make us aware of the universal and unchanging Toni Morrison's Fiction David L. Middleton,2016-01-28 This collection of contemporary criticism explores her concern with racial and gender issues and analyzes her in relation to other major modern authors her philosophical and religious speculations and her preoccupation with the process of fiction making These classics provide a broad look at critical argument about Toni Morrison s meanings and significance during the past 10 years From the formative effects of learning one s Otherness as a result of majority perception to the apocalyptic implications of racial memory to the moral and psychologically constructive act of storytelling to the structural function served by improvisational jazz music to the imagery associated with both flight and naming to the uniquely female experience of community major issues raised by Morrison s body of work are explicated here Broken Hallelujah Darren J. N.

Middleton,2007-01-01 Marking the fiftieth anniversary of Kazantzakis s death author Darren J N Middleton looks back on Kazantzakis s life and literary art to suggest that contrary to popular belief Kazantzakis and his views actually comport with the ideals of Christianity

Struggles Over the Word Timothy Paul Caron,2000 This literary critical study counters the usual tendency to segregate Southern literature from African American literary studies Noting that William Faulkner and Flannery O Connor are classified as Southern writers whereas Zora Neale Hurston and Richard Wright are considered black authors Timothy P Caron argues for an integrated study of the South s literary culture He shows that the interaction of Southern religion and race binds these four writers together Caron broadens our understanding of Southern literature to include both white and African American voices Analyzing O Connor s Wise Blood Faulkner s Light in August Hurston s Moses Man of the Mountain and Wright s Uncle Tom s Children Caron shows that these writers share an intertwined concern for issues of race and religion These two significant components of Southern culture form the intertextual network that binds together such seemingly disparate texts These authors not only interact among themselves in acknowledged and unacknowledged ways but also with the South s discursive practices Most particularly Caron sees common struggles over the Word as he investigates how these writers use the Bible in their understandings of race and religion in the American South While all four authors argue for the centrality of the Bible in both the black and white Southern experience each offers a different view of how this iconic text has shaped Southern culture and its literature

A God in the House Ilya Kaminsky,Katherine Towler,2014-01-28 Editors Ilya Kaminsky and Katherine Towler have gathered conversations with nineteen of America s leading poets reflecting upon their diverse experiences with spirituality and the craft of writing Bringing together poets who are Christian Buddhist Jewish Muslim Pagan Native American Wiccan agnostic and otherwise this book offers frank and thoughtful consideration of themes too often polarized and politicized in our society Participants include Li Young Lee Jane Hirshfield Carolyn Forch Gerald Stern Christian Wiman Joy Harjo and Gregory Orr and others all wrestling with difficult questions of human existence and the sources of art

Spirituality in Modern Literature Swami Satyaswarupananda,Swami Madhurananda, Fictional literature when enkindled with spiritual ideas creates an appeal that transcends time and place This has been the case with many literary works produced in India and other parts of the world and this is so even in our modern times characterized by consumerist culture that hardly sees below the surface of things A compilation from Prabuddha Bharata this book presents to the readers through a series of articles a systematic record of some of those writers who added the spiritual dimension to their fictional works in India and the Americas Published by Advaita Ashrama a publication house of Ramakrishna Math Belur Math

Repent and Turn to God Babu Immanuel,2008-05-01 For many years there has been ongoing work here on the book of Acts looking into the narrative in its Greco Roman and Jewish settings and we greatly appreciate your contribution to this research It leads the reader to a better understanding of the mindset of the period while focusing on issues that are still fundamental for the Christian church today

Dr Elizabeth Magba Librarian Tyndale House Cambridge UK The significance of conversion to the Acts of the Apostles is indisputable so it is surprising that this motif historically has attracted so little scholarly attention We can therefore celebrate all the more Babu Immanuel s joining the small but growing ranks of those who of late have turned their critical attention to this important literary and theological theme in Acts Adopting a narrative critical approach Immanuel urges that working in tandem miraculous activity and missionary proclamation are effective means for effecting conversion of Jew and Gentile alike The result is a welcome emphasis on the role of Luke not only as theologian or historian but also and centrally as mission strategist Joel B Green Professor of New Testament Interpretation Fuller Theological Seminary A Smaller God Petri Merenlahti, 2014-12-16 The Bible is a perplexing book It blends primitive beliefs with timeless truths swings between compassionate love and ruthless violence and forms a sympathetic heavenly father from the remains of a savage tribal god What are we to make of it all Petri Merenlahti takes an entertaining journey through biblical literature and returns with an original theology of imperfection Looking at the Bible through the lenses of history culture literature and psychology he calls his readers to let go of an idealized image of the Christian Scriptures and embrace their limited human nature instead This is vital he argues because false idealization and psychological splitting are major sources of religious fanaticism and violence Merenlahti insists that we make a difference between the smaller God of human imagination and the transcendent God that should remain beyond it We will then be rewarded with wisdom instead of fanaticism mercy instead of moralism and peace instead of hatred and guilt Studies in Contemporary Jewry Peter Y. Medding, 1992-12-17 The eighth volume of the acclaimed annual publication of the Institute of Contemporary Jewry at the Hebrew University of Jerusalem this volume focuses on the history and development of American Jewish life since World War II Contributions include A Golden Decade for American Jews 1945 1955 by Arthur A Goren American Judaism Changing Patterns in Denominational Self Definition by Arnold Eisen Value Added Jews in Postwar American Culture by Stephen J Whitfield The Postwar Economy of American Jews by Barry R Chiswick Jewish Migration in Postwar America The Case of Miami and Los Angeles by Deborah Dash Moore and All in the Family American Jewish Attachments to Israel by Chaim Waxman The volume also contains essays book reviews and a list of recent dissertations in the field Maelcho Emily Lawless, 1894 The Manxman Caine, 1894 Mrs. Tregaskiss Mrs. Campbell Praed, 1895 The Manxman Hall Caine, 1894 Lads' Love Samuel Rutherford Crockett, 1897 Bog-myrtle and Peat Samuel Rutherford Crockett, 1895
