Reading the Bible Missionally Goheen, 2016 Over the past half century it has become clear that mission is a central theme in the Bible's narrative and moreover is central to the very identity of the church. This book significantly widens and deepens the emerging conversation on missional hermeneutics. Essays from top biblical and missiological scholars discuss reading the Scriptures missionally using mission as a key interpretive lens. Five introductory chapters probe various elements of a missional hermeneutic followed by sections on the Old and New Testaments that include chapters on two books from each to illustrate what a missional reading of them looks like. Essays in two concluding sections draw out the implications of a missional reading of Scripture for preaching and for theological education. Publisher

God's Will is Healing, Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 2001 The Reading and Preaching of the Scriptures in the Worship of the Christian Church, Vol. 7 Hughes Oliphant Old, 2010 The Reading and Preaching of the Scriptures in the Worship of the Christian Church is a multivolume study by Hughes Oliphant Old that canvasses the history of preaching from the words of Moses at Mount Sinai through modern times. In Volume 1 The Biblical Period Old begins his survey by discussing the roots of the Christian ministry of the Word in the worship of Israel. He then examines the preaching of Christ and the Apostles. Finally Old looks at the development and practice of Christian preaching in the second and third centuries concluding with the ministry of Origen. God's Word the Final Word on Worship and Music Dean Kurtz, 2008-07 Are you passionate to know what the Bible says about worship and music? Confused by the myriad voices trumpeting their opinions about worship and music? This book not only gives you a Genesis to Revelation concordance of passages dealing with worship and music but also explores many texts critical for the church today. Practical and heartfelt applications from a pastor's heart punctuate the book always with an eye to the final authority, the inspired Word of God. What saith the Scriptures? Many preferences and opinions have been expressed but the important source has not always been considered. Dr Kurtz makes clear principles and patterns of music in worship that we need to make basic and should keep primary as we endeavor to honor God. Dr Warren Vanhetloo, Retired Seminary Dean. It is with great joy and excitement that I heartily recommend Brother Dean Kurtz's book to all pastors and musicians. We have been longing for desperately needing an exegetical study of music and worship from the Word of God. You will find his insights right on target; his theological perspectives sound and his musical expertise encouraging. Your heart will be blessed. Dr Robert Loggans, Senior Pastor, Calvary Baptist Church, Watertown, WI. Dean Kurtz, BS Music Education, BS Bible, MA Sacred Music, Doctor of Ministry, has been passionate to communicate the Word about worship and music for over twenty-five years. His heart for ministry has taken him to classrooms and churches on five continents teaching and preaching to elementary students through seminarians. After twenty-five years at Calvary Baptist Church, Lansdale, PA, Pastor Dean currently serves Calvary Baptist Church, Watertown, WI. Shaw, Charles E. Van Engen, 2003-08-04 Communicating God's Word in a Complex World reaches out to the growing number of missionaries pastors Bible translators and teachers mission and theological educators and students dealing with communicating the gospel This is increasingly difficult in today's pluralist and global contexts What was God's message and how has spreading that message changed through the generations The answer to that question requires a hermeneutical process that seeks to understand the biblical text and the context in which it was originally presented R Daniel Shaw and Charles Van Engen say that contemporary proclaimers of God's word can model their approach after that of the writers of scripture who reinterpreted and restated their received texts for their audiences Thus Gospel communication is impacted by the way humans know God This in turn is informed by contexts Communicating God's Word in a Complex World draws lessons from the biblical authors themselves as a guide for how best to present God's message      God's Word and the Church's
