Goethe Three Tales:

Goethe Johann Wolfgang von Goethe, 1964      States of Unconsciousness in Three Tales by C.F. Meyer Dennis McCort, 1988 Making a case for C F Meyer's predominantly deterministic world view this study treats the theme of unconsciousness in three tales by exploring the governing principle of each tale's world the metaphysical in Das Amulett the religious-mythic in Das Leiden eines Knaben and the psychological in Gustav Adolfs Page      Stéphane Mosès ›Displacements‹ Ashraf Noor, 2024-05-06 Stéphane Mosès explores in Displacements the poetry of Paul Celan and the work of major German Jewish thinkers in the context of his distinction between normative and critical modernity The first part contains a translation of his book Approches de Paul Celan the third part a translation of his lecture series Figures philosophiques de la modernité juive and the central section contains alongside a text on Freud essays on Goethe and Benjamin that extend his analysis beyond the Jewish sphere while engaging with the questions of tradition and its fragmentation that he raises there Edited translated and with an Introduction by Ashraf Noor      The German Novelle Martin Swales, 2019-04-23 Although the influence of Homer on Western literature has long commanded critical attention little has been written on how various generations of readers have found meaning in his texts These seven essays explore the ways in which the Iliad and the Odyssey have been read from the time of Homer through the Renaissance By asking what questions early readers expected the texts to answer and looking at how these expectations changed over time the authors clarify the position of the Iliad and the Odyssey in the intellectual world of antiquity while offering historical insight into the nature of reading The collection surveys the entire field of preserved ancient interpretations of Homer beginning with the fictional audiences portrayed within the poems themselves proceedings to readings by Aristotle the Stoics and Aristarchus and Crates and culminating in the spiritualized allegorical reading current among Platonists of the fifth and sixth centuries C E The influence of these ancient interpretations is then examined in Byzantium and in the Latin West during the Renaissance Contributors to this volume are Robert Browning Anthony Grafton Robert Lamberton A A Long James Porter Nicholas Richardson and Charles Segal Robert Lamberton is Assistant Professor of Classics and John J Keaney is Professor of Classics both at Princeton University Originally published in 1977 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905      *Rebuilding Babel: The Translations of W.H. Goethe's Cyclical Narratives Jane K. Brown, 2020-05-01 The novelty of this study lies in its techniques for understanding the deliberate narrative contradictions and elusive parody in Goethe's work Interpretation of the entire
