Mimesis Valery Podoroga, 2022-08-09 Valery Podoroga was one of the most important thinkers of his generation Here his most famous work is translated into English for the first time In it he gives a panorama view of Russian writing focusing in on the work of Nikolai Gogol Fyodor Dostoevsky and Andrei Bely He identifies these authors as pioneers in creating an other literature This constituted a new form of mimesis or vision of the world in opposition to the Imperial and national myths In Mimesis Podoroga develops and elaborates his analytic anthropological approach on these authors with startling effect excavating the identities and forms of Russian literature and society He places an emphasis on how a literary work is a process of world building both internally by creating a fictive world but also how it reflects the wider world in which it was produced and the power with which it changes the world Finally the literary work s ability to exist in a time that is other than its own time a time where it does not have a contemporary reader and an author who exercises his will but where it nonetheless continues to mean something Mimesis is rightly seen as the masterwork of one of the world s leading literary thinkers

Anglo-American Stage and Screen Drama Mike Ingham, 2023-11-27 Anglo American Stage and Screen Drama analyses and discusses the contemporary role of stage and screen drama as a critical forum for progressive thinking in an increasingly polarised geopolitical world The book addresses the cultural politics of socially engaged 21st century stage plays and films and makes the case for drama as a sociopolitical forum in which the complex and contentious issues that confront society can be explored and debated It conceives of Anglophone political drama as a significant intervention in today s culture wars representing the latter as a convenient distraction from the ongoing depredations of neoliberalism In the main part of the book selected case study plays and films from each of the first two decades illustrate drama s capacity to influence critical debate on social justice issues All of the case study texts under discussion express a powerful aesthetics of resistance to right wing ideology and promote inclusive and enlightened values This broader orientation underlines drama s role as a channel for critical agency in today s putative post socialist post democratic climate

Theatre Sciences, 2015-06-26 Traditional theatre semiotics promoted a scientific approach to theatre studies albeit viewing semiotics as the unique discipline of research Theatre Sciences A Plea for a Multidisciplinary Approach to Theatre Studies suggests instead a multi disciplinary approach including the following theoretical disciplines narratology mythology pragmatics ethics theatre irony theory of genres aesthetics semiotics theory of non verbal figures of speech rhetoric psychoanalysis reception theory history and sociology with semiotics being only one among equals These disciplines are presented from the perspective of their possible contributions to a sound methodology of theatre texts analysis Traditional theatre semiotics moreover holds the view that the actual performance on stage is the genuine text of theatre instead of the play script Despite this paradigmatic shift however this viewpoint has failed to produce commendable analyses of such texts The alternative presupposition put forward in this volume entails a series of novel perceptions of the theatre text and its possible impact on the experiencing spectator whose role in reading interpreting and experiencing the theatre text is not less crucial than that of the text itself This view presupposes that the theatre text is a description of a fictional world generated by the theatre medium The author also contests the age old view that a theatre fictional text reflects a simple narrative structure and suggests instead a complexity that consists of seven layers personified mythical praxical naive ironic modal and aesthetic with each one of them re structuring the previous layer Professor Rozik also presents and describes a semiotic layer that lends communicative capacity to the description of a fictional world and two additional metaphoric and rhetoric layers which structure the theatre experience The underlying purpose is to illustrate the application of the aforementioned disciplines to these fictional layers and eventually their joint application to entire theatre fictional texts Organisation of the book reflects the structure of a university course

Pleasure of Fools Jure Gantar, 2005-08-02 The crucial question is not whether or not there is offensive laughter but whether or not all laughter offends Almost everyone has felt the bitter stab of malicious laughter and knows that laughter can be cruel but it is more difficult to decide if there is also laughter that can never insult Through a reading of Aristophanes Rabelais Moli re Fielding and Rostand Victorian nonsense poetry and the philosophical texts of Plato Dante and More Gantar explores the reasons for critics prejudice against comedy the specific position of laughter in various utopian societies and self deprecating laughter and the role of the comedian as its primary producer His conclusions contradict basic postmodern thought and contribute to current debates on the epistemological nature of criticism

Readings in Russian Civilization Volume II

Thomas Riha, 2009-02-15 This new and enlarged version of Readings in Russian Civilization is the result of fairly extensive revisions. There are now 72 instead of 64 items. 20 of the selections are new. The first volume has undergone the least change with 3 new items of which 2 appear in English for the first time. In the second volume there are 6 new items all of them appear in English for the first time. The third volume has undergone the greatest revision with 11 new items of which 6 are newly translated from the Russian. It is the editor's hope that items left out in the new edition will not be sorely missed and that the new selections will turn out to be useful and illuminating. The aim throughout has been to cover areas of knowledge and periods which had been neglected in the first edition and to include topics which are important in the study of the Russian past and present. The bibliographical headnotes have been enlarged with the result that there are now approximately twice as many entries as in the old edition. New citations include not only works which have appeared since 1963 but also older books and articles which have come to the editor's attention. From the Editor's Preface a judicious combination of seminal works and more recent commentaries that achieves the editor's purpose of stimulating curiosity and developing a point of view. C. Bickford O'Brien, The Russian Review. These three volumes cover quite well the main periods of Russian civilization. The choice of the articles and other material is made by a competent and unbiased scholar. Ivan A. Lopatin, Professor of Asian and Slavic Studies, University of Southern California.

Nineteenth- and Twentieth-century Paintings

Richard R. Brettell, Paul Hayes Tucker, Natalie Henderson Lee, Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), 2009. Robert Lehman 1891-1969, one of the foremost art collectors of his generation embraced the work of both traditional and modern masters. This volume catalogues 130 nineteenth and twentieth century paintings that are now part of the Robert Lehman Collection at The Metropolitan Museum of Art. The majority of the works are by artists based in France but there are also examples from the United States, Latin America and India reflecting Lehman's global interests. The catalogue opens with outstanding paintings by Ingres, Théodore Rousseau and Corot among other early nineteenth century artists. They are joined by an exemplary selection of Impressionist and Post Impressionist works by Degas, Renoir, Sisley, Pissarro, Seurat, Signac, Van Gogh, Cézanne and Gauguin. Twentieth century masters represented here include Bonnard, Matisse, Rouault, Dal and Balthus. There are also newly researched modern works by Vicente do Rego Monteiro, Kees van Dongen, Dietz Edzard and D. G. Kulkarni. Robert Lehman's cultivated taste for nineteenth century French academic practitioners and his intuitive eye for emerging young artists of his own time are documented and discussed. Three hundred comparative illustrations supplement the catalogue entries as do extensively researched provenance information, exhibition histories and references. The volume also includes a bibliography and indexes. Encyclopedia of World Writers, 1800 to the Present, Marie Diamond, 2020-07-01.
