Going Creating Self Reliant Communities In A Global Age:

Going Local Michael Shuman, 2013-06-17 National drug chains squeeze local pharmacies out of business while corporate downsizing ships jobs overseas All across America communities large and small are losing control of their economies to outside interests Going Local shows how some cities and towns are fighting back Refusing to be overcome by Wal Marts and layoffs they are taking over abandoned factories switching to local produce and manufactured goods and pushing banks to loan money to local citizens Shuman details how dozens of communities are recapturing their own economies with these new strategies investing not in outsiders but in locally owned businesses Ellen LaConte, 2010-10-01 LaConte's book offers a compelling answer To The now universal question suggested by her subtitle The global economy has gone viral it is ravaging Earth's equivalent of an immune system the way HIV ravages the human immune system triggering a Critical Mass of AIDS like mutually reinforcing environmental economic social and political crises that are undermining the ability of human and natural communities to support protect and heal themselves LaConte's prognosis Since Life rules we don't Life will last but Life as we know it and a lot of us won't LaConte shows that Life learned two billion years ago how to deal with pathological economies it put them out of business it encoded in other than human species a set of Economic Rules for Survival that allow them to live within Earth's means long term In accessible prose LaConte explains how those rules can work for humans too Recommended as a tool for community transition and cultural transformation Life Rules offers a solution to our global crisis the publishers call authentically conserve alive deeply Green and profoundly liberating Plan C Pat Murphy, 2008-06-01 A sustainability expert goes beyond renewables calling on us to combat the climate crisis with a new low energy way of life Concerns over climate change and energy depletion are increasing exponentially Mainstream solutions still assume that some miracle will cure our climate ills without requiring us to change our energy intensive lifestyle But switching from fossil fuels to renewable energy sources isn't enough We need a Plan C In response to the converging crises of Peak Oil climate change and increasing inequity sustainability expert Pat Murphy offers an inspiring vision of community and curtailment Where cooperation replaces competition we can deliberately reduce consumption of consumer goods Plan C shows how each person's individual choices can dramatically reduce CO2 emissions offering specific strategies in the areas of food transportation and housing Beyond Western Economics Trent Schroyer, 2009-05-08 This book combines intellectual history with contemporary events to offer a critique of mainstream economic thought and its neoliberal policy incarnation in global capitalism The critique operates both theoretically at the level of metaphysics and the philosophy of science and concretely in case studies of globalization and world events Trent Schroyer provides a moral and cultural interpretation of modernity and scientism highlighting their political and economic consequences but the book's main purpose is not to criticize The author moves beyond this to offer alternative economic cultures again combining abstract theoretical analysis with concrete case studies of alternative economic formations from local self sufficiency movements to cooperatives and other anti capitalist institutional experiments These case studies exhibit an impressive range of variation from first world to third world from reformist to utopian transformative Finally Schroyer links the project to the global justice movement that opposes corporate globalization and eventually links participatory economics and democratic politics to a new image of science as participatory social learning the practical sense is gathering steam as businesses change hands and Abrams examines some of the many ways this is done Companies We Keep is structured around eight principles from Sharing Ownership and Cultivating Workplace Democracy to Thinking Like Cathedral Builders and Committing to the Business of Place that Abrams has discovered in the 32 years since he cofounded South Mountain Company on the island of Martha's Vineyard Together these principles reveal communities of enterprise as a potent force of change that can and will improve the way Americans do business hegemonic view of globalization has given rise including devolution and decentralization new forms of governance the balance between public and private funding of education access and equity and the education of girls curriculum particularly with respect to the teaching of English language and technology pedagogies and high stakes testing and the global trade in education These issues are explored within the context of major shifts in global processes and ideological discourses currently being experienced and negotiated by all countries The book also provides an approach to education policy analysis in an age of globalization and will be of interest to those studying globalization and education policy across the social sciences
