A-M John Ash,1775 God's Gold Skip Worden, 2017-01-03 Dr Worden traces the historical shift through the centuries of how Christian thinkers have assumed profit seeking and wealth are related to the sin of greed For centuries the dominant view was that making and accumulating money instantiates the presence of greed The uncoupling of greed from its assumed external manifestations began to take hold with Aguinas and was complete a century before the Protestant Reformation and its famed work ethic Rather than viewing the Reformation as pro wealth Worden characterizes the reformers broadly as applying the brakes to various degrees in hopes that Christianity would not lapse into accepting greed In the final chapter Worden proffers an explanation to account for the shift from the anti to pro wealth position He examines the core of Christian theology and finds a very subtle pro wealth bias and provides God, Glory and Gold: Journey to the Conquest of the Incas - The Quest Paul M.
