Going Home To Teach:

Going Home to Teach Winkler A, 2006-07 An autobiographical account of an year the author spent at a rural teacher training college that flashes back to the Jamaica of the narrator's childhood recounting incidents and vignettes that shed light on the muddle of competing personalities doctrines and images of self vying for centre stage in the tumult of Jamaican life

Going Home to Teach Anthony C. Winkler, 1995 By the Best Selling author of The Painted Canoe soon to be a major Motion Picture The Lunatic now a Motion Picture and The Great Yacht Race Anthony C Winkler GOING HOME TO TEACH Everyone going and you coming 1975 Nobody could understand why anyone choose in a time of raging democratic socialism and migrating panic stricken middle class Jamaicans to leave the USA to go to Jamaica to teach But for Anthony Winkler the reason was simple he wanted to go home This autobiographical account of the year that he spent at a rural teacher training college flashes back to the Jamaica of the narrator's childhood recounting incidents and vignettes that shed light on the muddle of competing personalities doctrines and images of self currently vying for center stage in the tumult of Jamaican life Emerging from the story are hilariously drawn characters contrasts between the Jamaican and American outlook and lessons about the perils of superimposing a foreign ideology onto a native culture I am a Jamaican writer who by force of circumstances and luck lives in the United States I am keenly interested in the cultural chasm that exists between people of different countries and I have mainly aimed my writing at that theme Odd things always seem to be popping about me in the United States and I must periodically run home to Jamaica for a taste of normalcy Anthony Winkler Anthony Winkler is a man who lives and breathes the island's culture's and customs speaks and writes in the musical rhythms of its language understands the unending struggle for survival and dignity that is every Jamaican's lot Vincent Coppola Atlanta Magazine Cover illustration The Visit by Albert Artwell reproduced with the permission of the Hardingham Collection About the Author Anthony C Winker was born in Kingston Jamaica He was educated at Mount Alvernia Academy then Corwall College in Montego Bay and California State University in Los Angeles He is the author of several textbooks in English and Public Speaking which are widely used in American colleges and universities His first novel The Painted Canoe was published by Kingston Publishers in 1983 followed by The Lunatic in 1987 and The Great Yacht Race in 1992 American editions of the first two novels were published by Lyle Stuart in 1986 and 1987 respectively All three novels met with international critical acclaim and the movie The Lunatic was released in 1990 Mr Winkler currently lives in Atlanta Georgia with his wife and two children

Going Home Val Wood, 2011-11-30 For Amelia and her brothers and sisters the grim past which their mother Emily had endured seemed very far away As pretty as a picture and now learning to be a teacher in York Amelia looked forward with pleasure to becoming acquainted with the young men clamouring to get to know her and especially the two gentlemen who had come all the way from Australia to meet her family Ralph Hawkins bringing with him his friend Jack a handsome half aboriginal Australian who was determined to make a good living for himself arrived in Hull looking for his roots He found Amelia whose tangled family history was inextricably bound up with his Ralph Hawkins's whole world had been turned upside down when he learned that he had been adopted by the couple he had always called his parents In his quest to find his real mother he uncovered some cruel and unpleasant truths before at last realising where his true destiny lay Going Home Thich Nhat Hanh, 2000-10-01 Thich Nhat Hanh shows us the connection between personal inner peace and peace on earth His Holiness The Dalai Lama Nominated by Martin Luther King Jr for a Nobel Peace Prize Thich Nhat Hanh is one of today's leading sources of wisdom peace compassion and comfort Exiled from Vietnam over thirty years ago Thich Nhat Hanh has become known as a healer of the heart a monk who shows us how the everyday world can both enrich and endanger our spiritual lives In this book Jesus and Buddha share a conversation about prayer and ritual and renewal and about where such concepts as resurrection and the practice of mindfulness converge In this unique way Thich Nhat Hanh shows the brotherhood between Jesus and Buddha and in the process shows how we can take their wisdom into the world with us to practice in such a way that Buddha is born every moment of our daily life that Jesus Christ is born every moment of our daily life Going Home: Essays, Articles, and Stories in Honour of the Andersons Pete Myers, 2012-10-12 In Going Home the reader will find an eclectic celebration of the diverse skills students develop at Oak Hill to understand and apply the gospel to daily life From ancient Hebrew studies to telling stories to toddlers the grace of Christ which is taking us home sweetens everything True ministers of the gospel model their message 2 Tim 3 10 11 It is that spirit of gospel practice which this volume is celebrating You get a fair idea of the great esteem and affection in which the Anderson family is held from the way so many members of the Oak Hill College community have contributed to this Festschrift From the Preface by Mike Ovey Putting the Teaching of American History and Civics Back in the Classroom United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Health, Education, Labor, and Pensions, 2003 The Chronology of Meetei Monarchs Raj Kumar Somorjit Sana, 2010 The Calcutta Christian Observer, 1836 Heading South to Teach Kim Tolley, 2015-08-31 Susan Nye Hutchison 1790 1867 was one of many teachers to venture south across the Mason Dixon Line in the Second Great Awakening From 1815 to 1841 she kept journals about her career family life and encounters with slavery Drawing on these journals and hundreds of other documents Kim Tolley uses Hutchison's life to explore the significance of education in transforming American society in the early national period Tolley examines the roles of ambitious educated women like Hutchison who became teachers for economic spiritual and professional reasons During this era working women faced significant struggles when balancing career ambitions with social conventions about female domesticity Hutchison's eventual position as head of a respected southern academy was as close to equity as any woman could achieve in any field By recounting Hutchison's experiences from praying with slaves and free blacks in the streets of Raleigh and establishing an independent school in Georgia to defying North Carolina law by teaching slaves to read Tolley offers a rich microhistory of an antebellum teacher Hutchison's story reveals broad social and cultural shifts and opens an important window onto the world of women s work in southern education The Newark Teacher Strikes Steve Golin,2002-05-01 For three weeks in 1970 and for eleven weeks in 1971 the schools in Newark New Jersey were paralyzed as the teachers went on strike In the wake of the 1971 strike almost two hundred were arrested and jailed The Newark Teachers Union said their members wanted improved education for students The Board of Education claimed the teachers primarily desired more money After interviewing more than fifty teachers who were on the front lines during these strikes historian Steve Golin concludes that another equally important agenda was on the table and has been ignored until now These professionals wanted power to be allowed a voice in the educational agenda Through these oral histories Golin examines the hopes of the teachers as they picketed risking arrest and imprisonment Why did they strike How did the union represent them How did their action and incarceration change them Did they continue to teach in impoverished schools Golin also discusses the tensions arising during that period These include differences in attitudes toward unions among black Jewish and Italian teachers different organizing strategies of men and women and conflict between teachers professional and working class identities The first part of the book sets the stage by exploring the experience of teachers in Newark from World War II to the 1970 strike After covering both strikes Golin brings the story up to 1995 in the epilogue which traces the connection between educational reform and union democracy Teacher Power enhances our understanding of what has worked and what hasn t worked in attempts at reforming urban schools Equally importantly the teachers vivid words and the author s perceptive analysis enables us to view the struggles of not just Newark but the entire United States during a turbulent time Ozark Pioneers ,2001 In the early 1800s rugged and self sufficient pioneers left their native homelands to tame the wild Ozark territory These early settlers left their mark on history as they settled Taney County and became Missouri s first families With family stories and photographs passed down from generation to generation Ozark Pioneers shares the experiences of the first residents of the area Family names such as Allen Coggburn Smith Whorton Layton Bollinger Brittain and Rittenhouse appear throughout the history of Taney County demonstrating the roots and growth of the wild Ozark territory From the bloody days of battle in the Civil War to the continuous fight against the outlaws in the Bald Knobber era these pages detail the courage hardships and strength of theses founding families in an untamed land Teaching to Learn, Learning to Teach Alan J. Rader,2023-01-06 This book covers the myths we learn about crime and how we learn them and teach them It covers cultural educational and familial sources and the harmful behaviors and beliefs that follow It also details how we might teach future generations more accurately about safety cProvided by publisher Going Back to Our Future II Jon Pedersen, Kevin D. Finson, Barbara S. Spector,2015-08-01 Who were the pioneers in science education and what motivated them to do what they did This book is the second volume of an attempt to capture and record some of the answers to these questions either from the pioneers themselves or from those persons who worked most closely with them As with the first volume we have attempted to include as many pioneers as possible but we know that there are still many that are not included in this or the previous volume As we have posed questions rummaged through files and oft neglected books and probed the memories of many individuals we have come to realize our list of true pioneers is ever growing As we consider our list of pioneers we know that there are names on the list that most of us readily recognize We also fully realize that there are names of whom few of us have heard yet who were significant in their roles as mentors or idea development and teaching We continue to be impressed with our science education family tree ever branching out to more individuals and connections The stories in this volume continue to demonstrate how vital this network was in supporting the individual pioneers during their journey in difficult times and continues to be for those of us today in our own enterprise Going Home: Information and Insights on How to Prepare to Visit, Repatriate or Live as an Expatriate in Africa. Kofi Quaye,2019-11-23 Africa is the ideal continent for those seeking the excitement of visiting places considered to be exotic full of ancient monuments and primitive people It is also described in travel related books and media as a continent of fascinating cultures beautiful scenery extraordinary animals and the best safari and wild game hunting in the world Nothing short of a tourist paradise For those with a tourist based interest in Africa information and data about the African continent are easily accessible on travel websites books and publications But there s a lot more to Africa To millions of people Africa represents a continent to be proud of to call the motherland and to regard as their ancestral home These are people of African descent from around the globe who relate to Africa in the context of their ancestral connection to the oldest continent on earth and what it means to them For such people questions that come to mind include which country to travel to when they decide to visit or repatriate to Africa are they welcome how would they cope with the change in cultures general lifestyles traditions and social mores they know nothing about Lately for those repatriating to live in Africa on a permanent basis it becomes even more complicated and brings on the absolute necessity of making adequate preparations This is the main reason for the publication of this book Our goal is to provide readers with real insight valuable information and data on current trends in the new Africa with the aim of making it a lot easier for them to have a better understanding of Africa and Africans regardless of how long they will be in Africa or the reason for going there
