their name from the 1859 best selling Self Help by Samuel Smiles and are often also referred to as self improvement books. This particular self help book concentrates on ambition and desire and the individual's power to use these tools to gain success and happiness. Contents include: He Can Who Thinks He Can, Getting Aroused, Education by Absorption, Freedom at Any Cost, What the World Owes to Dreamers, The Spirit in Which you Work, Responsibility Develops Power, An Overmastering Purpose etc. Dr. Orison Swett Marden, 1848-1924, was an American author of inspirational books. He wrote primarily on the subject of being successful and founded SUCCESS magazine in 1897. Marden's books deal with attaining a fruitful and well-rounded life, with many of his ideas being based on the New Thought movement. Many vintage books such as this are becoming increasingly scarce and expensive. It is with this in mind that we are republishing this volume now in an affordable, modern, high quality edition, complete with the original text and artwork.

He Can Who Thinks He Can Orison Swett Marden, 2020-11-02. It is astonishing how the world makes way for a resolute soul and how obstacles get out of the path of a determined man who believes in himself. There is no philosophy by which a man can do a thing when he thinks he can't. What can defeat a strong man who believes in himself and cannot be ridiculed, down-talked, or written down? Poverty cannot dishearten him, misfortune deter him, or hardship turn him aside from his course. Whatever comes, he keeps his eye on the goal and pushes ahead. What would you think of a young man ambitious to become a lawyer who should surround himself with a medical atmosphere and spend his time reading medical books? Do you think he would ever become a great lawyer by following such a course? No, he must put himself in a law atmosphere, go where he can absorb it, and be steeped in it until he is attuned to the legal note. He must be so grafted upon the legal tree that he can feel its sap circulating through him. How long will it take a young man to become successful who puts himself in an atmosphere of failure and remains in it until he is soaked, saturated with the idea? How long will it take a man who depreciates himself, talks failure, thinks failure, walks like a failure, and dresses like a failure, who is always complaining of the insurmountable difficulties in his way and whose every step is on the road to failure, how long will it take him to arrive at the success goal? Will anyone believe in him or expect him to win? Taken from He Can Who Thinks He Can written by Orison Swett Marden.
