

I am so thankful that in my thinking
I do not have to limit the gift of God's grace in the person of His Son to just some little group, as though it were just for a small elect company that Jesus died.

“He gave himself for us.”

I can look out over the whole wide world, whether men are saved or unsaved,

and say to them on the authority of the Word of God that “He gave himself for us”
—for everyone of us.

Cooper's Sea Tales James Fenimore Cooper, 1857 North Sea Passage and the Women of Spirit André Schulman, 2013-02-01 This is a story like a novel of two generations of a fugitive family who land at Harwich in 1939 There are backward glances through Germany and Poland to the mid nineteenth century and it ends in the present day The actions take place in the villages of old Poland Nazi Berlin wartime London and seaside towns in school and the sports field in the Paris of 1945 on Alpine glaciers amongst rising stars of British politics It has two main threads the mind of Etienne and the characters of the mother the sister and later of the Cabinet Minister who was a leading persuader in the formation of the party that was to re shape British politics and was its Leader in the Lords The sister was the nearest thing the Left had to a political hostess Theme might be said to be corruption of character associated with idealistic politics even more portentously the pre Socratic mind of Etienne through whom the action is seen overwhelmed by his present experiences and historical daydreams retarded in rationality unable to speak his mind a disorder of mists and his values dark un English unmodern

North Sea Passage and the Women of Spirit is a memoir but written in the style of literary novel and will appeal to readers of that genre as well as of biography and modern history
