The Illustrated London News, 1913 The Magic Lantern at Work Martyn Jolly, Elisa deCourcy, 2020-01-20 For centuries various new media technologies have provided individuals with a set of powerful tools to affect their audiences Among these the magic lantern show was perhaps the most pervasive and persuasive Around the world audiences gathered together in darkened rooms to see a sequence of projected images transition one into another as they listened to personal stories or scripted narrations Through the power of the magic lantern audiences for the first time became the direct witnesses to distant often traumatic political events they visually learned new scientific and medical knowledge virtually experienced distant places and collectively experienced strange often uncanny phenomena Although relatively neglected until recently the apparatus of the magic lantern is now receiving the attention it deserves from historians curators and artists Through a set of case studies focusing on the use of the magic lantern by very different but equally fascinating individuals a team of international scholars analyses the emerging power of the lantern show in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries within politics religion travel science health marketing and entertainment The magic lantern s connections to today s multimedia environments are explored through the intertwined themes of connecting experiencing witnessing and persuading The Journal of the Royal Anthropological Institute of Great Britain and Ireland Royal Anthropological Institute of Great Britain and Ireland,1921 Prosthetic Gods Robert Dixon,2001 Boys' Life ,1938-03 Boys Life is the official youth magazine for the Boy Scouts of America Published since 1911 it contains a proven mix of news nature sports history fiction science comics and Scouting The Australian Encyclopædia: M to Z Arthur Wilberforce Jose,Herbert James Carter,1926 Headhunters of Papua Tony Saulnier,1963 Chambers's Journal ,1915 The Megalithic Culture of Melanesia Alphonse Riesenfeld,1950 Chambers's Journal of Popular Literature, Science and Arts ,1915 A Broken Mission John M. Watriama and Co Hugh Laracy, 2013-10-01 WATRIAMA AND CO the title echoes Kipling's STALKY AND CO is a collection of biographical essays about people associated with the Pacific Islands. It covers a period of almost a century and a half. However, the individual stories of first-hand experience converge to some extent in various ways so as to present a broadly coherent picture of Pacific History. In this, politics, economics, and religion overlap. So too do indigenous cultures and concerns together with the activities and interests of the Europeans who ventured into the Pacific and who had a profound, widespread, and enduring impact there from the nineteenth century and who also prompted reactions from the Island peoples. Not least significant in this process is the fact that the Europeans generated a paper trail through which their stories and those of the Islanders who also contributed to their written record can be known. Thus not only are the subjects of the essays to be encountered personally and within a contextual kinship, but the way in which the past has shaped the future is clearly discernible. Watriama himself features in various historical narratives. So too certain of his confreres in this collection, which is the product of several decades of exploring the Pacific past in archives, by sea and on foot through most of Oceania.
